

are wilfully and deliberately not being enforced by any public officer or employe whose duty it is to enforce any of the provisions of this act, shall bring such failure to enforce the law to the attention of such public officer or employe. To provide against unreasonable and irresponsible demands being made, all such demands to enforce the law must be in writing, under oath, with facts set forth specifically stating the nature of the failure to enforce the law. The stating of false facts and charges in such affidavit shall constitute perjury and shall subject the affiant to penalties prescribed under the law for perjury. If such public officer or employe neglects or refuses for an unreasonable time after demand to enforce such provision, any such citizen shall have the right to bring an action of mandamus in the court of common pleas of the county in which the operation which relates to the alleged lack of enforcement is being conducted. The court, if satisfied that any provision of this act is not being enforced, may make an appropriate order compelling the public officer or employe, whose duty it is to enforce such provision, to perform his duties, and upon failure to do so such public officer or employe shall be held in contempt of court and shall be subject to the penalties provided by the laws of the Commonwealth in such cases.

Section 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 1964.

APPROVED—The 8th day of August, A. D. 1963.
