

than sixty (60) days, or any day to which a sale may be continued, the bureau shall sell such property (except where the property is essential to the business of quasi-public corporations), or where held by the bureau under article seven as agent for the various taxing districts, the premises remain occupied by one or more persons in the family of the previous owner who are, or within the sixty (60) days immediately preceding were, receiving assistance from a public agency, against which a tax claim has become absolute, and the period of redemption has expired (without the property having been redeemed), or against which a tax judgment has heretofore been entered under any other law, which judgment has not been satisfied and on which a sale has not been stayed by agreement, in the manner hereinafter provided, and where the property subject to the claim or judgment is not or no longer remains in possession of the sequestrator. The bureau may for convenience and because of the number of properties involved, schedule sales of property in various taxing districts or wards thereof on different dates, but all sales, except as herein otherwise provided, shall be held by the bureau by the end of the said calendar year. Taxing districts shall notify the bureau of tax judgments which have, prior to the effective date of this act, been entered under any other law in order that properties subject to the lien of such judgments may be included in the sale.
