

If a magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace finds that any person brought before him has been guilty of a violation of this act he shall impose the punishment prescribed in this act and shall award possession of the property taken or found pursuant to the execution of the search and seizure warrant to the owner thereof.

Section 14. Rights and Remedies Under Any Other Statute Not Affected.—The provisions of this act shall not be construed as preventing the enforcement of rights and remedies under any other statute concerning articles or supplies upon which a name, mark, or device indicating ownership thereof has been produced, whether or not such name, mark, or device has been filed pursuant to this act.

Section 15. Penalties.—Whoever violates any of the provisions of this act shall, for the first offense, upon summary conviction before a magistrate, alderman or justice of the peace, be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars ($50) nor more than one hundred dollars ($100), or to be imprisoned not less than ten days nor more than one month, or both, and for each subsequent offense be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than two hundred dollars ($200), or imprisoned not less than thirty days nor more than three months, or both.

AN ACT

SB 1075

Amending the act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959), entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, certain state officers, and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly, and repealing certain inconsistent acts," increasing the salaries of the Chief Justice and associate judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and associate judges of the Superior Court and judges of courts of common pleas, orphans' courts, County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County and County Court of Philadelphia.

Section 1. The title, act of June 1, 1956 (P. L. 1959), entitled "An act fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, certain state officers, and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly, and repealing certain inconsistent acts," is amended to read:

AN ACT

Fixing the salaries and compensation of the Chief Justice and judges of the Supreme Court, the President Judge and judges of the Superior Court, the judges of the courts of common pleas, the judges of the orphans' courts, the judges of the [Municipal] County Court of Philadelphia and the judges of the County Court and Juvenile Court of Allegheny County, certain associate judges not learned in the law, certain state officers, and the salary and expenses of the members of the General Assembly, and repealing certain inconsistent acts.

Section 2. Sections 2, 3, 4 and 5 of the act, amended September 28, 1961 (P. L. 1734), are amended to read:

Section 2. The annual salary of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court shall be [thirty-three thousand dollars ($33,000)] thirty-eight thousand dollars ($38,000), and the annual salary of each of the associate judges of the Supreme Court shall be [thirty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($32,500)] thirty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($37,500).

Section 3. The annual salary of the President Judge of the Superior Court shall be [thirty-one thousand dollars ($31,000)] thirty-six thousand dollars ($36,000) and the annual salary of each of the associate judges of the Superior Court shall be [thirty thousand five hundred dollars ($30,500)] thirty-five thousand five hundred dollars ($35,500).

Section 4. With the exception of the judges of the courts of common pleas of Dauphin County and the judges of the orphans' court of Dauphin County, the annual salary of each of the judges of the courts of common pleas, learned in the law, and of each judge of the orphans' court where a separate orphans' court is established in judicial districts, having a population of more than one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants shall be [twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000)] thirty thousand dollars ($30,000); in judicial districts, having a population of one hundred thousand and more but less than one hundred fifty thousand inhabitants shall be [twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500)] twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($27,500); in judicial districts having a population of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, shall be [twenty-one thousand five hundred dollars ($21,500)] twenty-six thousand five hundred dollars ($26,500). The amount of the salaries to be paid under this paragraph in the several judicial districts shall be determined and fixed according to the population of such districts as ascertained by reference, from time to time, to the last preceding decennial United States census.

Section 5. The judges of the courts of common pleas of Dauphin County and the judges of the orphans' court of Dauphin County shall each receive [twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($27,500)] thirty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($32,500) annually.

Section 3. Section 6 of the act, amended September 28, 1961 (P. L. 1734), is repealed.

Section 4. Sections 7, 8 and 9 of the act, amended September 28, 1961 (P. L. 1734), are amended to read:

Section 7. The [annual salary of the President Judge of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia shall be twenty-three thousand dollars ($23,000) and the] annual salary of [each of] the [other] judges of the [Municipal] County Court of Philadelphia shall be [twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500)] twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($27,500).

Section 8. The annual salary of the [President Judge of the County Court of Allegheny County shall be twenty-three thousand dollars ($23,000) and the annual salary of each of the other] judges of the County Court of Allegheny county shall be [twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500)] twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($27,500).

Section 9. The annual salary of the [judge] judges of the Juvenile Court of Allegheny County shall be [twenty-two thousand five hundred dollars ($22,500)] twenty-seven thousand five hundred dollars ($27,500).

Section 5. The act is amended by adding after section 9 a new section to read:

Section 9.1. In addition to the salaries provided in sections 4, 5, 7, 8 and 9, the president judge of each court shall receive the additional sum of five hundred dollars ($500) per year.

Section 6. This act shall take effect January 1, 1967.

APPROVED—The 26th day of January, A. D. 1966.

AN ACT

SB 1107

Amending the act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), entitled "An act relating to the public school system, including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools; amending, revising, consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto," providing an alternative way of equalizing tax levies in school districts crossing county lines and validating certain levies.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1. Section 672.1, act of March 10, 1949 (P. L. 30), known as the "Public School Code of 1949," added August 7, 1961 (P. L. 968), is amended to read:

Section 672.1. School Districts Lying in More Than One County; Limitation on Total Tax Revenues.—Whenever a school district shall lie in more than one county, the total taxes levied on real estate within the school district in each county shall be subject to the limitation that the ratio which such total bears to the most recent valuation of the same properties by the State Tax Equalization Board shall be uniform in all of the counties, and if such ratio is greater in any county or counties than in any other county, then the school district shall adjust its rate of taxation in any or all of the counties to the extent necessary to bring such total levy within the limitation provided in this section; or

Whenever a school district shall lie in more than one county the board of assessment and revision of taxes in any of the counties or all of the counties in which the school district is located shall, at the request of the school directors of the district, furnish the market value of each parcel of property on the tax roll required to be furnished to the school directors under any assessment law of the Commonwealth. The market
