

said political subdivision into magisterial districts as nearly equal as possible in population and area, and the court may presume that the population density of each part of a political subdivision is the same population density as for the whole political subdivision.

Section 5. Salaries.—(a) A district justice shall receive an annual salary paid by the Commonwealth and computed by adding to three thousand dollars ($3,000) the product of the population of his magisterial district times forty cents (40c), but in no event shall the salary exceed fourteen thousand dollars ($14,000).

(b) The court shall certify to the State Treasurer the number of persons residing within each magisterial district in the Commonwealth. For determining population for salary purposes only, it may consider any population figures or estimates made by any Federal, State or local agency.

Section 6. Offices.—The district justice shall establish an office or offices within the magisterial district in locations approved by the president judge of the court of common pleas in compliance with standards and rules prescribed by the Supreme Court.

Reasonable costs and expenses incident to the establishment, maintenance and operation of offices of district justices as approved by the president judge of the court of common pleas and the county commissioners in compliance with standards and rules prescribed by the Supreme Court shall be paid by the county in which the offices are located.

Section 7. Costs; Disposition.—All costs collected by a district justice shall be paid monthly to the county in which his magisterial district is located, and such costs shall be retained by the county for its use.

Section 8. Effective Date.—This act shall take effect January 1, 1969.

APPROVED—The 2d day of December, A. D. 1968.
