On appeal from the register, or in a proceeding removed from the register, the orphans' court division may find, upon the testimony taken before the register, that a substantial dispute of fact exists and grant a jury trial. When upon the testimony taken before the register a jury trial is not granted, the division shall hear the testimony de novo unless all parties appearing in the proceeding agree that the case be heard on the testimony taken before the register. In any event, the division may require witnesses already examined and other witnesses to appear before it. The division, in its discretion, may impanel a jury at any stage of the proceedings.

§ 777. Right to jury trial; discretion of orphans' court division.

(a) Title to property.—When a substantial dispute of fact shall arise concerning the decedent's title to property, real or personal, any party in interest shall be entitled to a trial of such issue by a jury. The verdict of the jury shall have the same effect as the verdict of a jury in a case at law.

(b) Determination of incompetency.—Any person against whom proceedings have been instituted to establish his incompetency shall be entitled to a trial of such issue by a jury. The verdict of the jury shall have the same effect as the verdict of a jury in a case at law.

(c) Will contest and other matters.—When a contest shall arise concerning the validity of a writing alleged to be testamentary, or concerning any matter other than as provided in subsections (a) and (b) of this section, the orphans' court division, in its discretion at any stage of the proceedings, may impanel a jury to decide any question of fact, but the verdict of the jury shall be advisory only.

(d) Waiver of right.—A person desiring a trial by jury shall make demand therefor in writing at least ten days prior to the initial hearing before the orphans' court division or; if the initial hearing is dispensed with as provided in section 778(b) of this code (relating to combined hearings and trials) then at least ten days prior to the trial. The right to trial by jury is waived if such demand is not so made or, after having been made, the person claiming the right fails to appear.

§ 778. Procedure for jury trials.

(a) Jury.—Jury trials in any case begun before or certified or appealed to an orphans' court division shall be tried in the division. The division shall draw a jury and preside at the trial of the issue and shall have all the powers of a judge in trials by jury in cases at law. The panel of jurors drawn for service in other divisions of the court shall be available for such service in the orphans' court division when required, and in judicial districts where there is a separate orphans' court division, the court of common pleas shall, by appropriate rules, provide for and regulate the manner in which the jurors shall be made available and sent to the orphans' court division when required for the trial of issues therein.

(b) Combined hearings and trials.—In any case begun before or certified or appealed to the orphans' court division, the court may, on its own motion or on motion of a party and with reasonable notice to all parties:

- (1) combine the hearing to determine whether a substantial dispute of fact exists with the trial to determine the dispute, and impanel a jury before determining whether or not a substantial dispute of fact exists; and
- (2) combine the hearing and trial on all wills, the issues in regard to which are closely interrelated.

The court may withdraw the case from the jury, if the court determines that no substantial dispute of fact exists.

(c) Rules of court.—Unless and until an orphans' court division otherwise directs, the appropriate rules of the division of the court having jurisdiction over actions at law shall apply to jury trials of issues in the orphans' court division, and matters relating to such trials shall be heard and disposed of by the orphans' court division.

§ 781. Methods of enforcement.

Compliance with an order or decree of an orphans' court division may be enforced by attachment of the person; sequestration of real or personal property; execution on personal property; attachment execution; or execution on real estate.

§ 782. Procedure on attachment of the person.

(a) Direction of writs.—A writ of attachment of the person shall be directed to and executed by the sheriff of the county in which the court or branch of the court is located or of any county where the person to be attached is located.

(b) Discharge of person attached for contempt.—Any person attached for contempt may be discharged from custody by the orphans' court division upon purging himself of contempt to the satisfaction of the division by whose order he was attached.

§ 783. Procedure on sequestration of real or personal property.

A writ of sequestration of real or personal property of an estate or trust, or of the respondent, to enforce an order or decree of the orphans' court division in the administration of the estate or trust shall be allowed by the orphans' court division as fully as in any court of equity, and shall be directed to and executed by the sheriff of the county in which the court or branch of the court is located or of any county where property to be sequestered is located. The orphans' court division, by general rule or special order, may prescribe the practice relating to sequestration of real and personal property. To the extent not provided for by general rule or special order, the practice relating to sequestration shall conform to the practice in the division of the court having jurisdiction over actions at law.

§ 784. Procedure on execution on personal property.

Writs of execution on personal property shall be allowed by the orphans' court division and directed to and executed by the sheriff of the proper county. The proceedings thereon shall be the same as on execution on personal property issued out of the division of the court having jurisdiction over actions at law.

§ 785. Procedure on attachment execution.

Writs of attachment execution shall be allowed by the orphans' court division and directed to and executed by the sheriff of the proper county. The proceedings thereon shall be the same as attachment executions issued out of the division of the court having jurisdiction over actions at law.

§ 786. Procedure on execution on real estate.

(a) Filing.—The prothonotary of any court of common pleas shall, on demand of the fiduciary or of any party in interest, file and docket a certified transcript or extract from the record showing that an orphans' court division has adjudged an amount to be due by any person, and such transcripts or extract shall constitute a judgment of the court against such person from the time of its filing with the same effect as if it had been obtained in an action in the division of the court having jurisdiction over actions at law. If the amount adjudged to be due shall be increased or decreased on appeal, the prothonotary shall, if the decree of the appellate court is certified to him, change his records accordingly, and if the appellate court has increased the amount, the excess shall constitute a judgment from the time when the records are so changed.

(b) Satisfaction and discharge.—If the orphans' court division shall order such person to be relieved from any such judgment, the prothonotary shall, on demand of any party in interest, enter on his records a certified copy of such order, which shall operate as a satisfaction of the judgment.

(c) Executions.—Execution may be issued on the judgment out of the court against the real estate of such respondent by any interested party for the recovery of so much as may be due to him, in the same manner as upon any other judgment rendered by the court.

§ 791. Allowance and allocation.

The allowance and allocation of costs incident to proceedings before the orphans' court division or to the administration of estates or trusts within its jurisdiction shall be as now or hereafter provided by law, and in the absence thereof, as fixed by the division by general rule or special order.

§ 792. Right of appeal.

Any party in interest who is aggrieved by a final order or decree of the orphans' court division, or a fiduciary whose estate or trust is so aggrieved, may appeal therefrom to the proper appellate court. An appeal in like manner may be taken from a decree of distribution of the orphans' court division which is not final within the meaning of this section, provided the division shall certify that the decree is sufficiently definite to determine the substantial issues between the parties.

§ 793. Effect of appeal.

No appeal from an order or decree of an orphans' court division concerning the validity of a will or the right to administer shall suspend the powers or prejudice the acts of a personal representative acting thereunder. The reversal or modification of any decree of an orphans' court division in a proceeding in which the division has jurisdiction of the sale, mortgage, exchange or conveyance of real or personal estate shall not divest any estate or interest acquired thereunder by a person not a party to the appeal.

§ 794. Disposition of cases on appeal.

The Supreme Court of the Commonwealth shall, in all cases of appeal from a decree of the orphans' court division, hear, try and determine the same as to right and justice may belong, and decree according to the equity thereof, and may place or allocate the record costs, including printing costs, upon an appellant or appellee or upon the estate or trust.

One equal share shall descend to each such living person in the nearest degree and one equal share shall descend by representation to the issue of each such deceased person, except that no issue of a child of an uncle or aunt of the decedent shall be entitled to any share of the estate unless there be no relatives as close as a child of an uncle or aunt living and taking a share therein, in which case the grandchildren of uncles and aunts of the decedent shall be entitled to share, but no issue of a grandchild of an uncle or aunt shall be entitled to any share of the estate.

(2) Taking in same degree. When persons entitled to take under this chapter other than as a surviving spouse are all in the same degree of consanguinity to the decedent, they shall take in equal shares.

(8) Alienage. Real and personal estate shall descend without regard to whether the decedent or any person otherwise entitled to take under this chapter is or has been an alien.

to the decedent through two lines of relationship shall take one share only which shall be the larger share.

§ 2105. Spouse's rights.

(1) Words following signature. The presence of any writing after the signature to a will, whether written before or after its execution, shall not invalidate that which precedes the signature.

No such objection shall be valid unless it is in writing signed by the objector and unless a copy thereof shall be filed with the clerk of the court having jurisdiction within six months of the probate of the will. Each person so objecting shall receive the share he would have received if the entire bequest or devise had been invalid and the balance, if any, of the bequest or devise shall be valid. The 30-day period shall be so computed as to include the day on which the will or codicil is written and to exclude the day of death. Unless the testator directs otherwise, if such a will or codicil could revoke or supersede a prior will or codicil executed at least 30 days before the testator's death, and not theretofore revoked or superseded and the original of which can be produced in legible condition, and if each instrument shall contain an identical gift for substantially the same religious or charitable purpose, the gift in the later will or codicil shall not be subject to objection; or if each instrument shall give for substantially the same religious or charitable purpose a cash legacy or a share of the residuary estate or a share of the same asset, payable immediately or subject to identical prior estates and conditions, the later gift shall not be subject to objection to the extent to which it shall not exceed the prior gift. If a bequest or devise is revoked within 30 days of death and the revocation has the effect of increasing the religious or charitable bequest or devise, such increase shall not be considered a new or additional bequest or devise for religious or charitable purposes within the meaning of this act.

(2) Divorce. If the testator is divorced from the bonds of matrimony after making a will, all provisions in the will in favor of or relating to his spouse so divorced shall thereby become ineffective for all purposes.

(3) Marriage. If the testator marries after making a will, the surviving spouse shall receive the share of the estate to which he would have been entitled had the testator died intestate, unless the will shall give him a greater share.

(4) Birth or adoption. If the testator fails to provide in his will for his child born or adopted after making his will, unless it appears from the will that the failure was intentional, such child shall receive out of the testator's property not passing to a surviving spouse, such share as he would have received if the testator had died unmarried and intestate owning only that portion of his estate not passing to a surviving spouse.

(5) Slaying. Any person who participates either as a principal or as an accessory before the fact in the wilful and unlawful killing of any person shall not in any way acquire property or receive any benefits as the result of the wilful and unlawful killing but such property or benefits shall be distributed as provided by Chapter 88 of this code (relating to slayers).

§ 2508. Change by election of surviving spouse.

(a) Right of election.—When a married person dies testate as to any part of his estate, the surviving spouse while living shall have a right of election under the limitations and conditions hereinafter stated: Provided, That the spouse so electing also must elect to take against all conveyances within the scope of section 6111(a) of this code (relating to conveyances to defeat marital rights), of which he is a beneficiary.

(b) Share of estate.—The surviving spouse, upon an election to take against the will, shall be entitled to one-third of the real and personal estate of the testator if the testator is survived by more than one child or by one or more children and the issue of a deceased child or children or by the issue of more than one deceased child, and in all other circumstances the surviving spouse shall be entitled to one-half of the real and personal estate of the testator.

(c) Power of appointment.—The surviving spouse, upon an election to take against the will, shall not be entitled to any share in property passing under a power of appointment given by someone other than the testator and exercised by the will of the testator whether or not such power has been exercised in favor of the surviving spouse and whether or not the appointed and the individual estates have been blended.

§ 2509. Forfeiture of right of election.

(a) By husband.—A husband, who for one year or upwards previous to the death of his wife, shall have wilfully neglected or refused to provide for her, or who for that period or upwards shall have wilfully and maliciously deserted her, shall have no right of election.

(b) By wife.—A wife, who for one year or upwards previous to the death of her husband shall have wilfully and maliciously deserted him, shall have no right of election.

(c) Slayer.—Any surviving spouse who participates either as a principal or as an accessory before the fact in the wilful and unlawful killing of the testator shall have no right of election.

(d) Surviving spouse as witness.—The surviving husband or wife shall be a competent witness as to all matters pertinent to the issue of forfeiture under this section.

§ 2510. How election made.

The surviving spouse electing to take under or against the will shall manifest the election in writing signed by him and acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments of deeds. The election or a copy thereof shall be mailed or delivered to the personal representative of the testator or his attorney. The election shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the orphans' court division of the district where the will was probated, and a record shall be made of such filing by the clerk. When the estate includes real estate the election or a duplicate original or a certified copy thereof shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of each county in which any of the real estate of the testator lies, and shall be indexed by the recorder in the grantors' index under the name of the surviving spouse. The costs of filing and recording the election shall be paid out of the estate as a part of the administration expenses.

§ 2511. Time for making election.

As between the surviving spouse and other legatees and devisees, the spouse's election shall be in time if within one year after the probate of will the surviving spouse shall:

- (i) mail or deliver the election or a copy thereof to the personal representative of the testator or his attorney; or
- (ii) file it in the office of the clerk of the orphans' court division and mail or deliver a copy to the personal representative or his attorney; or
- (iii) record such election or a duplicate original or certified copy thereof in the ¹office of the recorder of deeds of any county in which real estate of the testator lies and mail or deliver a copy to the personal representative or his attorney.

The orphans' court division, on application of the surviving spouse made within one year after the probate of the will, may extend the time for making the election for such period and upon such terms and conditions as the court shall deem proper under the circumstances. A certified copy of the decree of the court extending the time for making the election may be recorded and indexed in the office of the recorder of deeds in any county in which any of the real estate of the testator lies in the manner provided in section 2510 of this code (relating to how election made).

§ 2512. Failure to make an election.

(a) Effect.—Except as provided in section 2507(3) of this code (relating to marriage), failure to make an election in the manner and within the time limits set forth in section 2511 of this code (relating to time for making election) shall be deemed an election to take under the will or an acquiescence in the provisions thereof. No payment or distribution from the estate, except the exemption allowed by law to the surviving spouse, shall be required to be made to the surviving spouse within one year after the probate of the will unless his election to take under or acquiesce in the will shall have been made and filed as provided in section 2510 of this code (relating to how election made).

(b) Personal right.—The right of election shall be personal to the surviving spouse and shall not be exercised after his death.

§ 2513. Grantee or lienholder.

An election shall be void as against a bona fide grantee of or holder of a lien on real estate in any county unless:

(i) the election or a duplicate original or certified copy thereof is recorded in such county within one year after the probate of the will or if thereafter then before the recording or entering of the instrument or lien under which such grantee or lienholder claims; or

(ii) a certified copy of the decree of the court extending the time for making the election has been recorded in such county within one year after the probate of the will or if thereafter then before the recording or entering of such instrument or lien and the election or a duplicate original or certified copy thereof has been recorded in such county within the time set by the court or if thereafter then before the recording or entering of such instrument or lien.

§ 2514. Rules of interpretation.

In the absence of a contrary intent appearing therein, wills shall be construed as to real and personal estate in accordance with the following rules:

(1) Wills construed as if executed immediately before death. Every will shall be construed, with reference to the testator's real and personal estate, to speak and take effect as if it had been executed immediately before the death of the testator.

(2) After-acquired property. The real and personal estate acquired by a testator after making his will shall pass by a general devise or bequest.

(3) Devises of real estate. All devises of real estate shall pass the whole estate of the testator in the premises devised, although there be no words of inheritance or of perpetuity.

(4) Meaning of "heirs" and "next of kin," etc.; time of ascertaining class. A devise or bequest of real or personal estate, whether directly or in trust, to the testator's or another designated person's "heirs" or "next of kin" or "relatives" or "family" or to "the persons thereunto entitled under the intestate laws" or to persons described by words of similar import, shall mean those persons, including the spouse, who would take under the intestate laws if the testator or other designated person were to die intestate at the time when such class is to be ascertained, a resident of the Commonwealth, and owning the estate so devised or bequeathed: Provided, however, That the share of a spouse, other than the spouse of the testator, shall not include the allowance under the intestate laws. The time when such class is to be ascertained shall be the time when the devise or bequest is to take effect in enjoyment.

(5) Time for ascertaining class. In construing a devise or bequest to a class other than a class described in section 2514(4), the class shall be ascertained at the time the devise or bequest is to take effect in enjoyment, except that the issue then living of any member of the class who is then dead shall take per stirpes the share which their deceased ancestor would have taken if he had then been living.

(6) Meaning of "die without issue" and similar phrases. In any devise or bequest of real or personal estate, the words "die without issue," "die without leaving issue," "have no issue," or other words importing either a want or failure of issue of any person in his lifetime or at the time of his death, or an indefinite failure of his issue, shall be construed to mean a want or failure of issue in his lifetime or at his death, and not an indefinite failure of his issue.

(7) Adopted children. In construing clauses (9), (10) and (11) of this section, relating to lapsed and void devises and legacies, and in construing a will making a devise or bequest to a person or persons described by relationship to the testator or to another, any person adopted before the death of the testator shall be considered the child of his adopting parent or parents and not the child of his natural parents: Provided, That if a natural parent shall have married the adopting parent before the testator's death, the adopted person shall also be considered the child of such natural parent.

(8) Persons born out of wedlock. In construing clauses (9), (10) and (11) of this section, relating to lapsed and void devises and legacies, and in construing a will making a devise or bequest to a person or persons described by relationship to the testator or to another, a person born out of wedlock shall be considered the child of his mother and not of his father: Provided, That when the parents of a person born out of wedlock shall have married each other, he shall thereafter be considered as having been born within the period of time during which the parents were married.

(9) Lapsed and void devises and legacies; substitution of issue. A devise or bequest to a child or other issue of the testator or to his brother or sister or to a child of his brother or sister whether designated by name or as one of a class shall not lapse if the beneficiary shall fail to survive the testator and shall leave issue surviving the testator but shall pass to such surviving issue who shall take per stirpes the share which their deceased ancestor would have taken had he survived the testator: Provided, That such a devise or bequest to a brother or sister or to the child of a brother or sister shall lapse to the extent to which it will pass to the testator's spouse or issue as a part of the residuary estate or under the intestate laws.

(10) Lapsed and void devises and legacies; shares not in residue. A devise or bequest not being part of the residuary estate which shall fail or be void because the beneficiary fails to survive the testator or because it is contrary to law or otherwise incapable of taking effect or which has been revoked by the testator or is undisposed of or is released or disclaimed by the beneficiary, if it shall not pass to the issue of the beneficiary under the provisions of clause (9) hereof, and if the disposition thereof shall not be otherwise expressly provided for by law, shall be included in the residuary devise or bequest, if any, contained in the will.

(11) Lapsed and void devises and legacies; shares in residue. When a devise or bequest as described in clause (10) hereof shall be included in a residuary clause of the will and shall not be available to the issue of the devisee or legatee under the provisions of clause (9) hereof, and if the disposition shall not be otherwise expressly provided for by law, it shall pass to the other residuary devisees or legatees, if any there be, in proportion to their respective shares or interests in the residue.

(12) Real estate subject to a mortgage. The devisee of real estate which is subject to a mortgage shall take subject thereto, and shall not be entitled to exoneration out of the other estate of the testator, real or personal; and this whether the mortgage was created by the testator or by a previous owner or owners, and notwithstanding any general direction by the testator that his debts be paid.

(13) Power of appointment. A general devise of the real estate of the testator, or of the real estate of the testator in any place, or in the occupation of any person mentioned in his will, or otherwise described in a general manner, shall be construed to include any real estate, or any real estate to which such description shall extend, as the case may be, which he shall have power to appoint in any manner he shall think proper, and shall operate as an execution of such power. In like manner, a bequest of the personal estate of the testator, or any bequest of personal property described in a general manner, shall be construed to include any personal estate, or any personal estate to which such description shall extend, as the case may be, which he shall have power to appoint in any manner he shall think proper, and shall operate as an execution of such power. In like manner, a general pecuniary legacy, when the assets of the individual estate of the testator are not sufficient for its payment, shall, to the extent necessary to make possible the payment of the legacy, be construed to include any estate which the testator shall have power to appoint in any manner he shall think proper, and shall to such extent operate as an execution of such power.

(14) Cemetery lot. If in a will no express disposition or other mention is made of a cemetery lot owned by the testator at his decease and wherein he or any member of his family is buried, the ownership of the lot shall not pass from his lawful heirs by a residuary or other general clause of the will but shall descend to his heirs as if he had died intestate.

(15) Inheritance tax. The inheritance tax imposed by the Inheritance and Estate Tax Act of 1961 upon the transfer of real or personal property which passes by will absolutely and in fee, and which is not part of the residuary estate, shall be paid out of the residuary estate and charged in the same manner as a general administration expense. Such inheritance tax imposed upon the transfer of any estate, income or interest for a term of years, for life or for other limited period, shall be paid out of the principal of the property by which the estate income or interest is supported.

(16) Ademption. A specific devise or bequest shall not be adeemed when the testator or the testator's estate receives an asset in exchange for the subject of the devise or bequest and the act which otherwise would have caused the ademption occurs while the testator is an adjudged incompetent. In such case the devise or bequest shall be deemed to apply to whatever was received in exchange.

§ 2515. Devise or bequest to trust.

A devise or bequest in a will may be made to the trustee of a trust (including an unfunded life insurance trust, although the settlor has reserved any or all rights of ownership in the insurance contracts) established, in writing, by the testator or any other person before, concurrently with or after the execution of the will. Such devise or bequest shall not be invalid because the trust is amendable or revocable, or both, or because the trust was amended after execution of the will. Unless the will provides otherwise, the property so devised or bequeathed shall not be deemed held under a testamentary trust of the testator but shall become and be a part of the principal of the trust to which it is given to be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions of the instrument establishing that trust and any amendment thereof. An entire revocation of the trust prior to the testator's death shall invalidate the devise or bequest unless the will directs otherwise.

§ 2516. Devise in fee tail abolished.

Whenever by any devise an estate in fee tail would be created according to the common law of the Commonwealth, it shall pass an estate in fee simple, and as such shall be inheritable and freely alienable.

§ 2517. Rule in Shelley's case.

The rule in Shelley's case and its corollaries shall not be applied, and a devise or bequest directly or in trust which shall express an intent to create an estate for life with remainder to the life tenant's heirs or the heirs of his body or his issue or his next of kin or persons described by words of similar import, shall not operate to give such life tenant an estate in fee in real estate or an absolute estate in personalty.

§ 2518. Alienage.

Real and personal estate shall pass without regard to whether the testator or any devisee or legatee is or has been an alien.

§ 2519. Testamentary guardian.

(a) Guardian of the person.—A person competent to make a will, being the sole surviving parent or adopting parent of any unmarried minor child, may appoint a testamentary guardian of the person of such child during his minority, ¹or for any shorter period: Provided, That no father who, for one year or upwards previous to his death, shall have wilfully neglected or refused to provide for his child, and no mother who, for a like period, shall have deserted her child or wilfully failed to perform her parental duties, shall have the right to appoint a testamentary guardian of the person of such child.

(b) Guardian of the estate.—Any person may by will appoint a guardian of real or personal property passing to a minor upon his death, when such property:

(1) Is devised, bequeathed or appointed to the minor in that person's will or descends from that person to the minor by intestacy.

(2) Is the proceeds of an insurance or annuity contract on the testator's life, unless the owner of the contract has made an inter vivos designation of a guardian therefor.

(3) Arises from an inter vivos transfer, the major portion of which constituted a gift from the testator, unless the testator has made an inter vivos designation of a guardian therefor.

(4) Is a cause of action arising by reason of the testator's death.

(5) Is a pension or death benefit from an employer of the testator or a society or organization of which the testator was a member.

(6) Is a tentative trust of which the testator was the settlor.

§ 2520. Personal estate of nonresident.

Nothing contained in this chapter shall be construed to apply to the disposition of personal estate by a testator whose domicile at the time of his death is out of the Commonwealth.

3101. Payment of wages, salary, vacation benefits to family.

3102. Settlement of small estates on petition.

§ 3101. Payment of wages, salary, vacation benefits to family.

Any employer of a person dying domiciled in the Commonwealth at any time after the death of the employee, whether or not a personal representative has been appointed, may pay wages, salary or any accrued vacation benefits or pension due the deceased in an amount not exceeding $1,000 to the spouse, any child, the father or mother, or any sister or brother (preference being given in the order named) of the deceased employee. Any employer making such a payment shall be released to the same extent as if payment had been made to a duly appointed personal representative of the decedent and he shall not be required to see to the application thereof. Any person to whom payment is made shall be answerable therefor to anyone prejudiced by an improper distribution.

§ 3102. Settlement of small estates on petition.

When any person dies domiciled in the Commonwealth owning property (exclusive of real estate and of wages, salary or any accrued vacation benefits or pension payable under section 3101 of this code (relating to payment of wages, salary, vacation benefits to family), but including personal property claimed as the family exemption) of a gross value not exceeding $5,000, the orphans' court division of the county wherein the decedent was domiciled at the time of his death, upon petition of any party in interest, in its discretion, with or without appraisal, and with such notice as the court shall direct, and whether or not letters have been issued or a will probated, may direct distribution of the property (including wages, salary or any accrued vacation benefits or pensions not paid under section 3101 of this code) to the parties entitled thereto. The decree of distribution so made shall constitute sufficient authority to all transfer agents, registrars and others dealing with the property of the estate to recognize the persons named therein as entitled to receive the property to be distributed without administration, and shall in all respects have the same effect as a decree of distribution after an accounting by a personal representative. Within one year after such decree of distribution has been made, any party in interest may file a petition to revoke the decree and shall direct restitution as equity and justice shall require.

SUBCHAPTER B FAMILY EXEMPTION

Sec.

- 3121. When allowable.
- 3122. Payment or delivery of exemption.
- 3123. Payment from real estate.
- 3124. Income.
- 3125. Other remedies.
- 3126. Grantee or lienholder.

§ 3121. When allowable.

The spouse of any decedent dying domiciled in the Commonwealth, and if there be no spouse, or if he has forfeited his rights, then such children as are members of the same household as the decedent, and in the event there are no such children, then the parent or parents of the decedent who are members of the same household as the decedent, may retain or claim as an exemption either real or personal property, or both, not theretofore sold by the personal representative, to the value of $1,500: Provided, That property specifically devised or bequeathed by the decedent, or otherwise specifically disposed of by him, may not be so retained or claimed if other assets are available for the exemption. The surviving husband or wife shall be a competent witness as to all matters pertinent to the issue of forfeiture of the right to exemption.

§ 3122. Payment or delivery of exemption.

(a) Items claimed.—The personal representative, if any, shall deliver to the spouse, child or children, parent or parents, the items of personal property claimed as the exemption, at the values fixed by the inventory and appraisal.

(b) Property set aside for minors.—When any spouse, child or parent entitled to all or part of the exemption is a minor, the guardian of his estate, and if no such guardian has been appointed then the personal representative, without request made to him by anyone, shall select, for the use and benefit of the minor, real or personal property to the full value to which he is entitled, and in so doing the guardian or personal representative shall be governed by the necessities of the minor under the circumstances of each case.

(c) Control of court.—On petition of any party in interest, the court, with or without appraisal and on such notice as it shall direct, may control the distribution and the valuation of articles of personal property retained or claimed.

§ 3123. Payment from real estate.

(a) Appraisalment.—If the exemption is claimed in whole or in part out of real estate, the appraisalment of the real estate shall be made by two appraisers appointed by the court, upon petition and after such notice as the court shall direct. The orphans' court division of the county where letters testamentary or of administration have been granted, or should no letters have been granted then of the county within which was the family or principal residence of the decedent, shall have jurisdiction concerning the exemption, whether the real estate is situate in that county or in any other county of the Commonwealth. When real estate is located outside of the county of original jurisdiction, the orphans' court division of the county of original jurisdiction may, in its discretion, direct that an application for the appointment of appraisers shall be made to the orphans' court division of the county in which the real estate is located. The appraisers so appointed shall fix the value of the real estate as of the date of presenting the petition for their appointment and shall receive such compensation as shall be allowed by the court appointing them. Exceptions to appraisements shall be filed with the court of original jurisdiction which may, in its discretion, refer the exceptions to the orphans' court division of the county in which the real estate is located. Upon compliance with such requirements of notice as the court shall direct, the court of original jurisdiction may confirm the appraisalment and set apart the real estate to the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents entitled thereto.

(b) Real estate valued at more than amount claimed.—When the real estate of the decedent cannot be divided so as to set apart the amount claimed without prejudice to or spoiling the whole or any parcel of it and the appraisers shall value such real estate or parcel thereof at any sum exceeding the amount claimed, it shall be lawful for the orphans' court division of original jurisdiction to confirm the appraisalment and to set apart such real estate or parcel thereof for the use of the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents, conditioned, however, that the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents shall pay the amount of the valuation in excess of the amount claimed, without interest, within six months from the date of confirmation of the appraisalment. If the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents shall refuse to take the real estate or parcel thereof at the appraisalment, or shall fail to make payment as provided above, the court, on application of any party in interest, may direct the personal representative or a trustee appointed by the court to sell the same and the sale in such case shall be upon such terms and security as the court shall direct.

(c) Payment of surplus.—The real estate, if taken by the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents, shall vest in him or them, upon his or their payment of the surplus above so much of the exemption as shall be claimed out of the real estate to the parties entitled thereto or to the personal representative of the decedent, as the court, in its discretion, shall direct. If the real estate is sold, so much of the exemption as shall be claimed out of it shall be paid out of the purchase money to the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents entitled thereto, and the balance, after payment of costs, shall be distributed to the parties entitled thereto or to the personal representative of the decedent, as the court, in its discretion, shall direct.

(d) Recording and registering decrees.—A certified copy of every decree confirming an appraisal of real estate and setting it apart to the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents shall be recorded in the deed book in the office of the recorder of deeds of each county where the real estate shall lie, shall be indexed by the recorder in the grantor's index under the name of the decedent and in the grantee's index under the name of such surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents, and shall be registered in the survey bureau or with the proper authorities empowered to keep a register of real estate in the county: Provided, That no decree conditioned upon payment of any surplus by the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents shall be recorded or registered unless there is offered for recording, concurrently therewith, written evidence of the payment of such surplus.

(e) Costs and expenses.—All costs, appraisers' fees and expenses of recording and registering incurred in claiming the exemption shall be part of the general administration expenses of the estate.

§ 3124. Income.

When the family exemption does not exhaust the entire real and personal estate, the income of the estate shall be equitably prorated among the surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents and the others taking the estate.

§ 3125. Other remedies.

The surviving spouse, child or children, parent or parents may also collect the exemption out of real and personal estate, together with income thereon, in the manner provided by law for the collection of legacies.

§ 3126. Grantee or lienholder.

(a) Rights accruing before death; purchase money obligation.—Nothing in Subchapter A of this chapter (relating to dispositions independent of letters) and this subchapter shall be construed as impairing any lien existing at death for the purchase money of real estate.

(b) Rights accruing after death.—A decree setting apart a family exemption shall be void as against a subsequent bona fide grantee of, or holder of a lien on, real estate, unless the decree granting the exemption from real estate, or a duplicate original or certified copy thereof, is recorded in the deed book in the office of the recorder of deeds in the county in which the real estate lies, within one year after the death of the decedent, or, if thereafter, then before the recording or entering of the instrument or lien under which such grantee or lienholder claims.

SUBCHAPTER C
PROBATE

Sec.

- 3131. Place of probate.
- 3132. Manner of probate.
- 3133. Limit of time for probate.
- 3134. Nuncupative wills.
- 3135. Wills in foreign language.
- 3136. Wills probated outside the Commonwealth.
- 3137. Enforcing production of will.
- 3138. Later will or codicil.

§ 3131. Place of probate.

The will of a decedent domiciled in the Commonwealth at the time of his death shall be probated only before the register of the county where the decedent had his last family or principal residence. If the decedent had no domicile in the Commonwealth, his will may be probated before the register of any county where any of his property is located.

§ 3132. Manner of probate.

All wills shall be proved by the oaths or affirmations of two competent witnesses and

(1) Will signed by testator. In the case of a will to which the testator signed his name, proof by subscribing witnesses, if there are such, shall be preferred to the extent that they are readily available, and proof of the signature of the testator shall be preferred to proof of the signature of a subscribing witness.

(2) Will signed by mark or by another. In the case of a will signed by mark or by another in behalf of the testator, the proof must be by subscribing witnesses, except to the extent that the register is satisfied that such proof cannot be adduced by the exercise of reasonable diligence. In that event other proof of the execution of the will, including proof of the subscribers' signatures, may be accepted, and proof of the signature of a witness who has subscribed to an attestation clause shall be prima facie proof that the facts recited in the attestation clause are true.

(3) Nuncupative will. In the case of a nuncupative will, the witnesses shall have been present when the will was declared and shall have reduced it to writing or directed it to be reduced to writing.

§ 3133. Limit of time for probate.

(a) Original probate.—A will, other than a nuncupative will, may be offered for probate at any time.

(b) Conclusiveness of original probate.—The probate of a will shall be conclusive as to all property, real or personal, devised or bequeathed by it, unless an appeal shall be taken from probate as provided in section 908 of this code (relating to appeals), or the probate record shall have been amended as authorized by section 3138 of this code (relating to later will or codicil).

(c) Effect upon grantee or mortgagee.—A will offered for original or subsequent probate more than two years after the decedent's death shall be void against a bona fide grantee or mortgagee of real estate of the decedent if the conveyance or mortgage is recorded before the will is offered for probate.

§ 3134. Nuncupative wills.

A nuncupative will shall not be admitted to probate, nor shall letters thereon be issued, unless notice has first been given to those who would be entitled to the estate in case of intestacy.

§ 3135. Wills in foreign language.

A writing not in English shall not be filed for probate or for any other purpose in the office of the register unless there is attached to it and filed with it a translation into English, sworn to be correct. The register shall attach the translation to the original and shall file them in his office, and in all cases where a recording is now or hereafter may be required, both the original and the translation shall be recorded. A writing filed in violation of this section shall not constitute notice to any person.

§ 3136. Wills probated outside the Commonwealth.

A duly authenticated copy of a will proved outside of the Commonwealth according to the law of the place of probate may be offered for probate before any register having jurisdiction, and letters testamentary or of administration with a will annexed may be granted thereon as though the original will had been offered before such register. If, in addition to such copy, there shall be produced a duly authenticated copy of the record of the probate proceeding of the original instrument, the will shall be entitled to probate in this Commonwealth and appropriate letters shall be issued thereon without the production or examination of the witnesses to prove such will, unless the will was probated outside of the United States and the record shows or it is satisfactorily proved that an essential requirement of Pennsylvania law for a valid will has not been met. If the will was probated outside of the United States, the probate proceedings may be supplemented by the submission of additional evidence to the register.

§ 3137. Enforcing production of will.

The register, at the request of any party in interest, shall issue a citation to any person alleged to have possession or control of a will of a decedent requiring him to show cause why it should not be deposited with him. The court on its own motion may, and on the petition of any party in interest alleging adequate grounds for removal shall, order the personal representative to appear and show cause why he should not be removed, or, when necessary to protect the rights of creditors or parties in interest, may summarily remove him. Upon removal, the court may direct the grant of new letters testamentary or of administration by the register to the person entitled and may, by summary attachment of the person or other appropriate orders, provide for the security and delivery of the assets of the estate, together with all books, accounts and papers relating thereto. He shall collect the rents and income from each asset in his possession until it is sold or distributed, and, during the administration of the estate, shall have the right to maintain any action with respect to it and shall make all reasonable expenditures necessary to preserve it. The court may direct the personal representative to take possession of, administer and maintain real estate so occupied by an heir or a devisee if this is necessary to protect the rights of claimants or other parties. Nothing in this section shall affect the personal representative's power to sell real estate occupied by an heir or devisee.

§ 3312. Renunciation of right to administer property.

When any property is of no value to the estate, the court may authorize the personal representative to renounce his right to administer it.

The personal representative, at the expense of the estate, may protect himself, his employees and the beneficiaries by insurance from liability to third persons arising from the administration of the estate.

§ 3314. Continuation of business.

The court, aided by the report of a master if necessary, may authorize the personal representative to continue any business of the estate for the benefit of the estate and in doing so the court, for cause shown, may disregard the provisions of the governing instrument, if any. The order may be with or without notice. If prior notice is not given to all parties in interest, it shall be given within five days after the order or within such extended time as the court, for cause shown, shall allow. Any party in interest may, at any time, petition the court to revoke or modify the order. The order may provide:

§ 3316. Investment of funds.

Subject to his duty to liquidate the estate for prompt distribution and to the provisions of the will, if any, the personal representative may invest the funds of the estate but shall have no duty to do so. Any such investment, except as the court or the will may otherwise authorize or direct, shall be restricted to obligations of the United States or the United States Treasury, of the Commonwealth, or of any political subdivision of the Commonwealth, and to interest bearing deposits authorized by section 7313 of this code (relating to interest-bearing deposit) and to savings accounts in savings associations authorized in section 7310(b) of this code (relating to savings accounts insured by Federal savings and loan insurance corporation).

§ 3318. Revival of judgments against personal representative.

When the estate holds a judgment which is a lien on the real estate of the personal representative, any party in interest may suggest his interest in the judgment upon the record thereof and bring an appropriate action to revive it and to continue its lien. Any judgment so revived shall remain for the use of all parties in interest.

§ 3319. Power of attorney; delegation of power over subscription rights and fractional shares; authorized delegations.

(a) Power of attorney.—A personal representative may convey real estate, transfer title to personal estate, or perform any other act of administration by an attorney or attorneys-in-fact. Nothing in this subsection authorizes the delegation of any discretionary power.

(b) Delegation of power over subscription rights and fractional shares.—Where there is more than one personal representative, one or more may delegate to another the power to decide whether rights to subscribe to stock should be sold or should be exercised, and also the power to decide whether a fractional share of stock should be sold or should be rounded out to a whole share through the purchase of an additional fraction, and also the power to carry out any such decision. Any delegation may extend to all subscription rights and fractional shares from time to time received by the personal representatives on account of stock held by them, or may § 3320. Voting stock by proxy.

The personal representatives or a majority of them, either in person or by proxy, may vote stock owned by the estate.

§ 3321. Nominee registration; corporate fiduciary as attorney-in-fact.

(a) Corporate personal representative.—A bank and trust company or a trust company incorporated in the Commonwealth, or a national bank with trust powers having its principal office in the Commonwealth, may keep investments or fractional interests in investments held by it, either as sole personal representative or jointly with other personal representatives, in the name or names of the personal representatives or in the name of the nominee of the corporate personal representative: Provided, That the consent thereto of all the personal representatives is obtained: And provided further, That all such investments shall be so designated upon the records of the corporate personal representative that the estate to which they belong shall appear clearly at all times.

(b) Individual personal representative.—A personal representative serving jointly with a bank and trust company or a trust company incorporated in the Commonwealth, or with a national bank having its principal office in the Commonwealth, may authorize or consent to the corporate personal representative having exclusive custody of the assets of the estate and to the holding of such investments in the name of a nominee of such corporate personal representative, to the same extent and subject to the same requirements that the corporate personal representative, if it were the sole personal representative, would be authorized to hold such investments in the name of its nominee.

(c) Corporate fiduciary as attorney-in-fact.—An individual personal representative may employ a bank and trust company or a trust company incorporated in the Commonwealth, or a national bank with trust powers having its principal office in the Commonwealth, to act as his attorney-in-fact in the performance of ministerial duties, including the safekeeping of estate assets, and such attorney-in-fact, when so acting, may be authorized to hold such investments in the name of its nominee to the same extent and subject to the same requirements that such attorney-in-fact, if it were the personal representative, would be authorized to hold such investments in the name of the nominee.

§ 3322. Acceptance of deed in lieu of foreclosure.

The personal representative may take for the estate from the owner of property encumbered by a mortgage owned by the estate, a deed in lieu of foreclosure, in which event the real estate shall be considered personalty to the same extent as though title were acquired by foreclosure at sheriff's sale. Any deed or deeds heretofore so accepted are hereby made valid in accordance with the provisions hereof.

§ 3323. Compromise of controversies.

(a) In general.—Whenever it shall be proposed to compromise or settle any claim, whether in suit or not, by or against an estate, or to compromise or settle any question or dispute concerning the validity or construction of any governing instrument, or the distribution of all or any part of any estate, or any other controversy affecting any estate, the court, on petition by the personal representative or by any party in interest setting forth all the facts and circumstances, and after such notice as the court shall direct, aided if necessary by the report of a master, may enter a decree authorizing the compromise or settlement to be made.

(b) Pending court action.—

(1) Court order. Whenever it is desired to compromise or settle an action in which damages are sought to be recovered on behalf of an estate, any court or division thereof in which such action is pending and which has jurisdiction thereof may, upon oral motion by plaintiff's counsel of record in such action, or upon petition by the personal representative of such decedent, make an order approving such compromise or settlement. Such order may approve an agreement for the payment of counsel fees and other proper expenses incident to such action.

(2) Order not subject to collateral attack. The order of the court approving such compromise or settlement or an agreement for the payment of counsel fees and other expenses shall not be subject to collateral attack in the orphans' court division in the settlement of an estate.

(3) Filing copy of order; additional security. The personal representative shall file a copy of the order of the court approving such compromise or settlement in the office of the register of wills or clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the estate. When the personal representative has been required to give bond, he shall not receive the proceeds of any such compromise or settlement until the court of the county having jurisdiction of his estate has made an order excusing him from entering additional security or requiring additional security, and in the latter event, only after he has entered the additional security.

§ 3324. Death or incompetency of fiduciary.

The personal representative of the estate of a deceased fiduciary or the guardian of an adjudged incompetent fiduciary by reason of his position shall not succeed to the administration of, or have the right to possess, any asset of an estate which was being administered by the deceased or incompetent fiduciary, except to protect it pending its delivery to the person entitled to it. The account of the deceased or incompetent fiduciary may be filed by the fiduciary of his estate and it shall be filed if the court shall so direct. The court may direct the fiduciary of a deceased or incompetent fiduciary to make the distribution and to make the transfers and assignments necessary to carry into effect a decree of distribution.

§ 3325. Administrator C.T.A.

An administrator with the will annexed shall have all the powers given by the will to the executor, unless otherwise provided by the will. When he has been required to give bond, no proceeds of real estate shall be paid to him until the court has made an order excusing him from entering additional security or requiring additional security, and in the latter event, only after he has entered the additional security.

§ 3326. Administrator D.B.N. and D.B.N.C.T.A.

An administrator de bonis non, with or without a will annexed, shall have the power to recover the assets of the estate from his predecessor in administration or from the personal representative of such predecessor and, except as the will shall provide otherwise, shall stand in his predecessor's stead for all purposes, except that he shall not be personally liable for the acts of his predecessor. When he has been required to give bond, no proceeds of real estate shall be paid to him until the court has made an order excusing him from entering additional security or requiring additional security, and in the latter event, only after he has entered the additional security.

§ 3327. Surviving or remaining personal representatives.

Surviving or remaining personal representatives shall have all the powers of the original personal representatives, unless otherwise provided by the governing instrument.

§ 3328. Disagreement of personal representatives.

(a) Decision of majority.—If a dispute shall arise among personal representatives, the decision of the majority shall control unless otherwise provided by the governing instrument, if any. A dissenting personal representative shall join with the majority to carry out a majority decision requiring affirmative action and may be ordered to do so by the court. A dissenting personal representative shall not be liable for the consequences of any majority decision even though he joins in carrying it out, if his dissent is expressed promptly to all the other personal representatives: Provided, That liability for failure to join in administering the estate or to prevent a breach of trust may not be thus avoided.

(b) When no majority.—When a dispute shall arise among personal representatives as to the exercise or nonexercise of any of their powers and there shall be no agreement of a majority of them, unless otherwise provided by the governing instrument, the court, upon petition filed by any of the personal representatives or by any party in interest, aided if necessary by the report of a master, in its discretion, may direct the exercise or nonexercise of the power as the court shall deem for the best interest of the estate.

§ 3329. Effect of revocation of letters, probate of will, later will or codicil.

No act of administration performed by a personal representative in good faith shall be impeached by the subsequent revocation of his letters or by the subsequent probate of a will, of a later will or of a codicil: Provided, That regardless of the good or bad faith of the personal representative, no person who deals in good faith with a duly qualified personal representative shall be prejudiced by the subsequent occurrence of any of these contingencies.

§ 3330. Notice of devise or bequest to corporation or association.

A personal representative to whom original letters are granted shall send a written notice, within three months after the grant of letters, to each corporation or association named as a beneficiary in the decedent's will, stating the date of the decedent's death, the county where the will has been probated, and that it is named as a beneficiary.

§ 3331. Liability of personal representative on contracts.

Unless he expressly contracts otherwise, in writing, a personal representative shall not be personally liable on any written contract which is within his authority as personal representative and discloses that he is contracting as personal representative of a named estate. Any action on such a contract shall be brought against the personal representative in his fiduciary capacity only, or against his successor in such capacity, and execution upon any judgment obtained therein shall be had only against property of the estate.

§ 3332. Inherent powers and duties.

Except as otherwise provided in this code, nothing in this code shall be construed to limit the inherent powers and duties of a personal representative.

Nothing in this subsection shall affect the liability of a personal representative for surcharge on the ground of negligence or bad faith in making a contract.

(b) Brokers' commissions.—When a personal representative shall enter into an agreement of sale of real estate in good faith, which is not binding under subsection (a) of this section and which is set aside upon receipt of a higher offer for such real estate, he shall not be relieved from the payment of real estate broker or broker's commissions to the broker who had procured such agreement of sale, and in the event that more than one real estate broker is entitled to commissions for said agreements of sale, then such commissions shall be equally divided between or among such real estate brokers: Provided further, That the total aggregate commission paid as a percentage of the gross consideration of the final sale shall in no event exceed the prevailing rate of commission as recommended by the schedule of commissions of the board of realtors in the territory in which the property is located.

If the amount adjudged to be due by the personal representative shall be increased or decreased on appeal, the prothonotary shall, if the decree of the appellate court is certified to him, change his records accordingly, and if the appellate court has increased the amount, the excess shall constitute a judgment against the personal representative from the time when the records are so changed.

(b) Satisfaction and discharge.—If the orphans' court division shall order the personal representative to be relieved from any such judgment, the prothonotary shall, on demand of any party in interest, enter on his records a certified copy of such order, which shall operate as a satisfaction of the judgment.

3551. Enforcement of payment.

3552. Discharge of portion of property from charges payable in the future.

3553. Discharge of property from lien of charge.

3554. Presumption of payment, release or extinguishment.

§ 3551. Enforcement of payment.

When a sum of money is charged upon real or personal property by will, inter vivos trust or decree, and has become payable, the court having jurisdiction of the estate or trust, upon petition of a party in interest and after notice to all persons liable for its payment and to the owner of the property charged, may enter a decree directing payment by the person liable, and in default of payment, may direct the fiduciary or a trustee to be appointed to sell the property charged, or so much of it as shall be necessary, upon such terms and security as the court shall direct, in which event the proceeds of the sale shall be distributed under the direction of the court as in other cases of judicial sales, to the persons legally entitled to receive them.

§ 3552. Discharge of portion of property from charges payable in the future.

When a sum of money is charged upon real or personal property by will, inter vivos trust or decree, and is payable at a future date, the court having jurisdiction of the estate or trust, upon petition of a party in interest and after such notice as it shall direct, aided by the report of ¹a master if necessary, or at the audit of any accounting, may enter a decree not contrary to any expressed provision in the will or trust instrument, exonerating and discharging such portion of the real and personal property charged as to it may seem beyond the amount requisite for providing a sufficient continuing security for the payment of the charge, or may direct that excess income be accumulated for the further protection of the charge, or be distributed to the persons entitled thereto. When an annuity is not restricted by the will or trust instrument to the income of the property charged with its payment, the court may authorize the payment of the annuity from the principal of the property set apart to secure its payment, should income at any time prove insufficient.

§ 3553. Discharge of property from lien of charge.

(a) Payment into court.—When real or personal property by will, inter vivos trust or decree is subject to a charge which ²has become payable, the court which has jurisdiction of the estate or trust, upon petition of a party in interest and after such notice as it shall direct, shall enter a decree fixing the amount of the charge then payable, and directing that it be paid into court and that upon such payment the property shall be discharged from so much of the charge as shall be paid into court. When the amount of the charge does not appear as a matter of record, the court, by appointment of a master or by investigation in open court, may ascertain and fix the amount. A certified copy of every decree relieving real property of the lien of a charge shall be recorded in the deed book in the office of the recorder of deeds of each county where the real estate shall lie, and shall be indexed by the recorder in the grantor's index under the name of the decedent or settlor, as the case may be, and in the grantee's index under the name of the owner of the land: Provided, That no conditional decree shall be recorded unless there is offered for recording, concurrently therewith, written evidence of compliance with the condition.

(b) Distribution of moneys paid into court.—Any money paid into court under the provisions of this section, subject to the laws of the Commonwealth relating to the payment of unclaimed funds into the State Treasury without escheat, shall remain there until the court, on petition of a party in interest and after such notice as it shall direct, aided by the report of a master if necessary, shall direct distribution to the persons entitled. The court may, in its discretion, appoint an auditor to make such distribution.

§ 3554. Presumption of payment, release or extinguishment.

(a) Lapse of 20 years.—When:

(1) for 20 years after the same or any part thereof becomes due, no payment has been made on account of a dower, recognizance, legacy, annuity instalment, or other charge, created by will, agreement, inter vivos trust or court decree, upon real property; or

(2) no proceeding has been brought or no written acknowledgment of the existence thereof or no written promise to pay the same has been made within such period by the owner or owners of the property subject to the charge, a release or extinguishment thereof shall be presumed, and the charge shall thereafter be 'irrecoverable.

(b) Perpetuation of Evidence.—The evidence of any such payment or written acknowledgment or promise may be perpetuated by recording it in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county or counties in which the real property bound by the charge is situate. (c) Renewal of evidence every 20 years.—If such evidence of the charge is so recorded and indexed within the said period of 20 years, it shall remain a charge on the real property for a period of 20 years from the time of indexing and no longer: Provided, That such evidence may be renewed within successive periods of 20 years, as often as necessary.

(d) Irrecoverable after 20 years.—If such evidence does not appear of record and is not indexed as herein provided within a period of 20 years or within the periods provided for a renewal thereof, then said dower, recognizance, legacy, annuity instalment, or other charge shall be irrecoverable from any purchaser, mortgagee, or other lien creditor.

3702. Equitable apportionment.

3703. General rules.

3704. Method of apportionment.

3705. Enforcement of contribution or exoneration.

§ 3701. Definitions.

The following words when used in this chapter, unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, shall have the meanings ascribed to them in this section:

“Person.” Includes a corporation, partnership, and association, as well as a natural person, whether acting in a separate or in a fiduciary capacity.

“Estate tax.” Means gross Federal estate tax, including interest and penalty thereon.

“Persons interested in property includible in gross estate.” Includes persons liable for payment of estate tax and persons whose property is subject to a lien for the estate tax. It includes personal representatives, guardians and trustees, individual or corporate.

“Gross estate.” Means all property of every description required to be included in computing the estate tax.

§ 3702. Equitable apportionment.

Estate tax, except as provided in section 3703(a) of this code (relating to powers of testator or settlor), shall be apportioned equitably, as near as may be in accordance with the principles hereinafter stated, among all persons interested in property includible in gross estate, whether residents or nonresidents of the Commonwealth, and they shall pay the amounts apportioned against them.

§ 3703. General rules.

(a) Powers of testator or settlor.—A testator, settlor, or possessor of any appropriate power of appointment may direct how the estate tax shall be apportioned or allocated or grant a discretionary power to another so to direct. Any such direction shall take precedence over the provisions of this chapter in so far as the direction provides for the payment of the estate tax or any part thereof from property, the disposition of which can be controlled by the instrument containing the direction or delegating the power to another.

(b) Present and remainder interests.—When estate tax shall be apportioned in a situation involving both a present and future interest, the amount apportioned, including interest and penalties, shall be paid entirely from principal, even though the holder of the present interest also has rights in the principal.

(c) Separate apportionment of interest and penalties; special circumstances.—When the orphans’ court division shall find that it is inequitable to apportion interest and penalties in the same manner as the principal of the estate tax by reason of special circumstances, it may direct apportionment of interest and penalties in a manner different from principal.

(d) Outright devises and bequests.—No estate tax shall be apportioned against a distributee of a devise or bequest:

- (1) which passes by will, absolutely and in fee; and
- (2) which is not part of the residuary estate.

Any estate tax attributable thereto shall be paid entirely from the residuary estate, and charged in the same manner as a general administration expense, except that where a portion of the residuary estate is an interest described in section 3704(b)(1) of this code (relating to deductions allowed by Federal revenue laws in determining the value of decedent's net estate), such tax shall be paid from the portion of the residuary estate which is not such an interest.

§ 3704. Method of apportionment.

(a) Basis of apportionment.—Apportionment of the estate tax, except as provided in section 3703 of this code (relating to general rules), shall be made among the persons interested in property includible in gross estate in the proportion that the value of the interest of each such person bears to the value of the net estate before exemption. The values used in determining the amount of tax liability shall be used for this purpose.

(b) Treatment of deductions and credits.—The following principles shall apply with respect to deductions and credits allowable:

(1) Deductions allowed by Federal revenue laws in determining the value of decedent's net estate. Any interest for which deduction is allowable under Federal revenue laws in determining the value of decedent's net estate, such as property passing to or in trust for a surviving spouse and charitable, public, or similar gifts or bequests to the extent of the allowed deduction, shall not be included in the computation provided in subsection (a) of this section, and to that extent no apportionment shall be made against such interest, except that when such an interest is subject to a prior present interest which is not allowable as a deduction, the estate tax apportionable against the present interest shall be paid from principal.

(2) Property previously taxed and gift tax. Any deduction for property previously taxed and any credit for gift taxes or taxes of a foreign country paid by the decedent or his estate shall inure to the proportionate benefit of all persons liable to apportionment.

(3) Credit for State taxes. Any credit for inheritance, succession or estate taxes or taxes in the nature thereof in respect to property or interests includible in the gross estate shall inure to the benefit of the persons or interests chargeable with the payment of such taxes to the extent or in proportion that the tax paid or payable reduces the estate tax.

(4) Inheritance or death tax effect. To the extent that property passing to or in trust for a surviving spouse does not constitute an allowable deduction solely by reason of an inheritance tax or other death tax imposed upon and deductible from such property, it shall not be included in the computation provided for in subsection (a) of this section, and to that extent no apportionment shall be made against such property.

§ 3705. Enforcement of contribution or exoneration.

(a) Fiduciary's duty.—The fiduciary charged with the duty to pay the tax shall be entitled, and it shall be his duty to recover, from persons liable to apportionment or from whoever is in possession of property includible in the gross estate not in the fiduciary's possession, the amounts of tax apportionable thereto.

(b) Suspending distribution.—Distribution of property includible in the gross estate to any person, other than a fiduciary charged with the duty to pay the tax, shall not be required of any fiduciary until the tax apportionable with respect thereto is paid or if the tax has not been determined and apportionment made, until adequate security for such payment is furnished to the person making such distribution.

(c) Court decrees.—The orphans' court division, upon petition or at an accounting or in any appropriate action or proceeding, shall make such decrees or orders as it shall deem advisable apportioning the tax. It may also direct a fiduciary to collect the apportioned amounts from the property or interests in his possession of any persons against whom such apportionment has been made and direct all other persons against whom the tax has been or may be apportioned or from whom any part of the tax may be recovered to make payment of such apportioned amounts to the fiduciary. When it is ascertained that the fiduciary holds property of the person liable to apportionment insufficient to satisfy the apportioned tax, the court may direct that the balance of the apportioned amount of tax shall be paid to the fiduciary by the person liable. Should an overpayment of the tax be made by any person or on his behalf, the court may direct an appropriate reimbursement for the overpayment. If the court shall apportion any part of the tax against any person interested in nontestamentary property or among the respective interests created by any nontestamentary instrument, the court, in its discretion, may assess against such property or interests an equitable share of the expenses incurred in connection with the determination and apportionment of the tax. If the fiduciary cannot recover the tax apportioned against a person benefited, such an unrecovered amount shall be charged in such manner as the court may determine.

§ 4101. In general.

A foreign fiduciary may institute proceedings in the Commonwealth, subject to the conditions and limitations imposed on nonresident suitors generally, and may exercise all the other powers of a similar local fiduciary, but a foreign personal representative shall have no such power when there is an administration in the Commonwealth. Except in the case of powers with respect to securities and bank accounts, for which special provision is made in section 4102 of this code (relating to powers with respect to securities and bank accounts) the maintenance of a proceeding or the exercise of any other power by a foreign fiduciary shall be subject to the following additional conditions and limitations:

(1) Copy of appointment. The foreign fiduciary shall file with the register of the county where the power is to be exercised, or the proceeding is instituted, or the property concerning which the power is to be exercised is located, an exemplified copy of his appointment or other qualification in the foreign jurisdiction, together with an exemplified copy of the will or other instrument, if any, in pursuance of which he has been appointed or qualified. When he is an executor, administrator C.T.A., testamentary trustee, or testamentary guardian under a will of a decedent who either died prior to April 1, 1956, or whose will was probated outside of the United States, and wishes to exercise a power with respect to Pennsylvania real estate, the will must be admitted to probate in Pennsylvania as required by law.

(2) Affidavit. The foreign fiduciary shall execute and file an affidavit with the register of the county where the power is to be exercised or the proceeding is instituted or the property concerning which the power is to be exercised is located, stating that after diligent search and inquiry, the estate of which he is fiduciary is not, to his knowledge or so far as he has been able to discover, indebted to any person in the Commonwealth, and that he will not exercise any power which he would not be permitted to exercise in the jurisdiction of his appointment. The affidavit shall be attached to the copy of appointment.

(3) Time limitation. When the foreign fiduciary is a personal representative or a trustee under the will of a nonresident decedent, he shall not exercise any of his powers within the Commonwealth for one month after the decedent's death.

(4) Taxes. When the foreign fiduciary exercises a power to sell or mortgage any Pennsylvania real estate, all taxes due thereon to the Commonwealth or to any subdivision thereof must be paid or provided for.

§ 4102. Powers with respect to securities and bank accounts.

(a) Securities.—When there is no administration in the Commonwealth, a foreign fiduciary, upon submission of a certificate of his appointment, shall have all of the powers of a similar local fiduciary with respect to stock, bonds and other securities of a Pennsylvania corporation or of a Federal corporation located in Pennsylvania, and shall not be required to comply with the conditions and limitations of section 4101 of this code (relating to in general).

(b) Bank accounts.—When there is no administration in the Commonwealth, a foreign fiduciary, upon submission to the financial institution of:

(i) a certificate of his appointment; and

(ii) an affidavit stating that after diligent search and inquiry the estate of which he is fiduciary is not to his knowledge, or so far as he has been able to discover, indebted to any person in the Commonwealth and that any taxes owing by such estate to the Commonwealth or any subdivision thereof have been paid or provided for shall have all the powers of a similar local fiduciary with respect to money deposited or invested in a financial institution located in Pennsylvania and shall not be required to comply with the conditions and limitations of section 4101 of this code.

(c) Definition.—As used in subsection (b) of this section “financial institution” means a bank, a bank and trust company, a trust company, a savings and loan association, a building and loan association, a credit union, a savings bank, a private bank and a national bank.

§ 4103. Service of process.

The acceptance by a foreign fiduciary of the privilege extended by the laws of the Commonwealth of exercising any of his powers within the Commonwealth shall constitute the Department of State his attorney-in-fact upon whom service of process and notices may be made in any suit or proceeding instituted in the courts of the Commonwealth arising out of, or by reason of, the exercise of any of his powers or the performance or nonperformance of any of his duties as such fiduciary.

§ 4104. Proof of authority in court proceedings.

Upon commencing any proceeding in any court of the Commonwealth, the foreign fiduciary, in addition to the requirements of section 4101 of this code (relating to in general), shall file with the court in which the proceeding is commenced, an exemplified copy of his official bond, if he has given a bond. If the court believes that he should furnish security or additional security in the Commonwealth or in the domiciliary jurisdiction, it may, at any time, order the action or proceeding stayed until sufficient security is furnished.

§ 4105. Effect of local proceedings.

No person who, before receiving actual notice of local administration or of application therefor, has changed his position by relying on the powers granted to foreign fiduciaries by this chapter shall be prejudiced by reason of the application for or grant of local administration.

SUBCHAPTER B
DISTRIBUTIONS TO FOREIGN FIDUCIARIES

Sec.

4111. To foreign personal representative.

4112. To foreign trustee, guardian or committee.

§ 4111. To foreign personal representative.

When a share of an estate administered in the Commonwealth is distributable to a deceased nonresident creditor or other distributee, the court may award it to his domiciliary personal representative or to some other person performing the function of a personal representative, unless it shall appear that the rights of any resident of the Commonwealth may be adversely affected or the court shall determine that for any reason ancillary administration within the Commonwealth is advisable.

§ 4112. To foreign trustee, guardian or committee.

When a share of an estate administered in the Commonwealth is distributable to a nonresident minor, a trustee subject to the jurisdiction of a foreign court, or a nonresident incompetent, the court may award it to the guardian or committee of the nonresident appointed in the foreign jurisdiction, or to such trustee: Provided, That the court shall be satisfied, in all cases where an applicable will or trust instrument does not direct distribution to the foreign guardian, committee or trustee, that adequate security or other protection has been provided in the domiciliary jurisdiction by the domiciliary law for the protection of the persons beneficially interested in the share so awarded.

SUBCHAPTER C

§ 4121. Award to foreign guardian when minor or incompetent becomes a nonresident.

When the minor or incompetent for whose estate a guardian has been appointed by the court is or becomes a nonresident of the Commonwealth, the court, upon satisfactory proof that it will be for the best interests of the minor or incompetent and that no rights of a resident of the Commonwealth will be adversely affected and that removal of the property will not conflict with any limitations upon the right of the minor or incompetent to such property, may direct the locally appointed guardian to transfer the assets of the minor or incompetent within his control to a duly qualified guardian or guardians in the jurisdiction where the minor or incompetent resides.

§ 4502. Notice.

Except as otherwise provided by contract, the surety of every fiduciary shall be entitled to written notice by the fiduciary of all accountings and of other court proceedings in which the fiduciary is a party. The fiduciary's failure to give notice hereby required shall not affect the rights or remedies of claimants and other parties in interest against the surety.

§ 4503. Participation in administration.

The surety of a fiduciary may intervene in any proceeding which may affect the liability of the fiduciary and shall have the right to except to and appeal from any action which may affect the fiduciary's liability. The court may authorize or direct the parent, person, or institution maintaining the minor to execute as natural guardian, any receipt, deed, mortgage, or other appropriate instrument necessary to carry out a decree entered under section 5101 of this code (relating to when guardian unnecessary) and, in such event, may require the deposit of money in a savings account or the care of securities in any manner considered by the court to be for the best interests of the minor. The decree so made, except as the court shall expressly provide otherwise, shall constitute sufficient authority to all transfer agents, registrars and others dealing with property of the minor to recognize the persons named therein as entitled to receive the property, and shall in all respects have the same force and effect as an instrument executed by a duly appointed guardian under court decree.

APPOINTMENT OF GUARDIAN

(b) Nonresident minor.—A guardian of the estate within the Commonwealth of a minor residing outside the Commonwealth may be appointed by the court of the county having jurisdiction of a decedent's estate or of a trust from which the minor's estate is derived. When the nonresident minor's estate is derived otherwise than from a decedent's estate or a trust, a guardian may be appointed by the court of any county where an asset of the minor's estate is located.

(c) Exclusiveness of appointment.—When a court has appointed a guardian of a minor's estate pursuant to subsections (a) or (b), no other court shall appoint a similar guardian for the minor within the Commonwealth.

§ 5112. Persons not qualified to be appointed by the court.

The court shall not appoint as guardian of the estate of a minor any person who is:

- (1) Under 21 years of age.
- (2) A corporation not authorized to act as fiduciary in the Commonwealth.
- (3) A parent of the minor, except that a parent may be appointed a co-guardian with another fiduciary or fiduciaries.

§ 5113. Persons preferred in appointment.

A person of the same religious persuasion as the parents of the minor shall be preferred as guardian of his person. A person nominated by a minor over the age of 14, if found by the court to be qualified and suitable, shall be preferred as guardian of his person or estate.

§ 5114. Service of process on nonresident guardian.

When a guardian is or becomes a nonresident of the Commonwealth, the acceptance of his appointment or the act of becoming a nonresident, as the case may be, shall constitute the Department of State his attorney-in-fact upon whom services of process and notices may be made as to all causes of action relating to the minor's estate.

§ 5115. Appointment of guardian in conveyance.

Any person, who makes a deed or gift inter vivos or exercises a right under an insurance or annuity policy to designate the beneficiary to receive the proceeds of such policy, may in such deed or in the instrument creating such gift or designating such beneficiary, appoint a guardian of the estate or interest of each beneficiary named therein who shall be a minor or otherwise incompetent. Payment by an insurance company to the guardian of such beneficiary so appointed shall discharge the insurance company to the extent of such payment to the same effect as payment to an otherwise duly appointed and qualified guardian.

In case any such orphan child, at or before the time said city is charged with the administration of such a charitable use or trust, or during the remaining time it acts as guardian of his estate, shall possess or become entitled to any effects or property, the said city shall be entitled, in like manner as other guardians, to demand and receive the same from any person having possession thereof, or owning the same, and to give acquittance therefor; and it shall be the duty of the said city to take care of the same as guardians, and to make the same productive as far as reasonably can be, and to deliver and pay over the same with the increase, less expenditures made in the exercise of a reasonable discretion, to the said orphan, on his attaining the age of 21 years, or to his legal representatives if he shall die before attaining that age.

under the Pennsylvania Uniform Gifts to Minors Act,” and such policy or contract shall be delivered to the person in whose name it is thus registered as custodian.

(b) Any gift made in a manner prescribed in subsection (a) of this section may be made to only one minor and only one person may be the custodian.

(c) A donor who makes a gift to a minor in a manner prescribed in subsection (a) of this section shall promptly do all things within his power to put the subject of the gift in the possession and control of the custodian, but neither the donor’s failure to comply with this subsection nor his designation of an ineligible person as custodian, nor renunciation by the person designated as custodian affects the consummation of the gift.

§ 5304. Effect of gift.

(a) A gift made in a manner prescribed in this chapter is irrevocable, and conveys to the minor indefeasibly vested legal title to the custodial property given, but no guardian of the minor has any right, power, duty or authority with respect to the custodial property, except as provided in this chapter.

(b) By making a gift in a manner prescribed in this chapter, the donor incorporates in his gift all the provisions of this chapter and grants to the custodian and to any issuer, transfer agent, bank, life insurance company, broker, or third person, dealing with a person designated as custodian, the respective powers, rights and immunities provided in this chapter.

§ 5305. Duties and powers of custodian.

(a) The custodian shall collect, hold, manage, invest and reinvest the custodial property.

(b) The custodian shall pay over to the minor for expenditure by him or expend for the minor's benefit so much of or all the custodial property as the custodian deems advisable for the support, maintenance, education and benefit of the minor, in the manner, at the time or times, and to the extent that the custodian, in his discretion, deems suitable and proper, with or without court order, with or without regard to the duty of himself or of any other person to support the minor, or his ability to do so, and with or without regard to any other income or property of the minor, which may be applicable or available for any such purpose.

(c) The court on the petition of a parent or guardian of the minor, or of the minor if he has attained the age of 14 years, may order the custodian to pay over to the minor for expenditure by him or to expend so much of or all the custodial property as is necessary for the minor's support, maintenance or education.

(d) To the extent that the custodial property is not so expended, the custodian shall deliver or pay it over to the minor on his attaining the age of 21 years, or if the minor dies before attaining the age of 21 years, he shall thereupon deliver or pay it over to the estate of the minor.

(e) The custodian, notwithstanding statutes restricting investments by fiduciaries, shall invest and reinvest the custodial property as would a prudent man of discretion and intelligence who is seeking a reasonable income and the preservation of his capital, except that he may, in his discretion and without liability to the minor or his estate, retain a security given to the minor in a manner prescribed in this chapter or hold money so given in an account in the financial institution to which it was paid or delivered by the donor.

(f) The custodian may sell, exchange, convert or otherwise dispose of custodial property, in the manner, at the time or times, for the price or prices, and upon the terms he deems advisable. He may vote in person, or by general or limited proxy, a security which is custodial property. He may consent, directly or through a committee or other agent, to the reorganization, consolidation, merger, dissolution or liquidation of an issuer, a security which is custodial property, and to the sale, lease, pledge or mortgage of any property by or to such an issuer, and to any other action by such an issuer. He may execute and deliver any and all instruments in writing, which he deems advisable to carry out any of his powers as custodian.

(g) The custodian shall register each security which is custodial property, and in registered form in the name of the custodian followed in substance by the words “as custodian for under the Pennsylvania Uniform Gifts to Minors Act.” The custodian shall keep all other custodial property separate and distinct from his own property in a manner to identify it clearly as custodial property.

(name of minor)

(h) If the subject of the gift is a life or endowment insurance policy or annuity contract the custodian shall have all the incidents of ownership in such policy or contract which he may hold as custodian to the same extent as if he were the owner thereof, except that the designated beneficiary of any policy or contract held by a custodian shall always be the minor or in the event of his death the minor’s estate.

(i) The custodian shall keep records of all transactions with respect to the custodial property, and make them available for inspection at reasonable intervals by a parent or legal representative of the minor or by the minor if he has attained the age of 14 years.

(j) A custodian has, with respect to the custodial property in addition to the rights and powers provided in this chapter, all the rights and powers which a guardian has with respect to property not held as custodial property.

§ 5306. Custodian’s expenses, compensation, bond and liabilities.

(a) A custodian is entitled to reimbursement from the custodial property for his reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

(b) A custodian may act without compensation for his services.

(c) Unless he is a donor, a custodian may receive from the custodial property reasonable compensation for his services, which may be specified by the donor when the gift is made.

(d) Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, a custodian shall not be required to give a bond for the performance of his duties.

(e) A custodian not compensated for his services is not liable for losses to the custodial property, unless they result from his bad faith, intentional wrong-doing or gross negligence, or from his failure to maintain the standard of prudence in investing the custodial property provided in this chapter.

§ 5307. Exemption of third persons from liability.

No issuer, transfer agent, bank, life insurance company, fraternal benefit society, broker or other person, acting on the instructions of or otherwise dealing with any person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian, is responsible for determining whether the person designated as custodian by the purported donor, or by the custodian or purporting to act as a custodian, has been duly designated, or whether any purchase, sale or transfer to or by or any other act of any person purporting to act in the capacity of custodian is in accordance with or authorized by this chapter, or is obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety under this chapter of any instrument or instructions executed or given by a person purporting to act as a donor or in the capacity of a custodian, or is bound to see to the application by any person purporting to act in the capacity of a custodian of any money or other property paid or delivered to him. No issuer, transfer agent, bank, life insurance company, fraternal benefit society, broker or other person acting on any instrument of designation of a successor custodian, executed as provided in section 5308(a) of this code (relating to resignation, death or removal of custodian; bond; designation of successor custodian) by a minor to whom a gift has been made in a manner prescribed in this chapter and who has attained the age of 14 years, is responsible for determining whether the person designated by the minor as successor custodian has been duly designated, or is obliged to inquire into the validity or propriety under this chapter of the instrument of designation.

§ 5308. Resignation, death or removal of custodian; bond; designation of successor custodian.

(a) Only an adult member of the minor’s family, a guardian of the minor or a trust company is eligible to become successor custodian. A custodian may designate his successor by executing and dating an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor; the instrument of designation may but need not contain the resignation of the custodian. If the custodian does not so designate his successor before he dies or becomes legally incapacitated, and the minor has no guardian and has attained the age of 14 years, the minor may designate a successor custodian by executing an instrument of designation before a subscribing witness other than the successor. A successor custodian has all the rights, powers, duties and immunities of a custodian designated in a manner prescribed by this chapter.

(b) The designation of a successor custodian as provided in subsection (a) of this section takes effect as to each item of the custodial property when the custodian resigns, dies or becomes legally incapacitated and the custodian or his legal representative:

(1) causes the item, if it is a security in registered form or a life insurance policy or annuity contract, to be registered, with the issuing insurance company in the case of a life insurance policy or annuity contract, in the name of the successor custodian followed, in substance by the words “as custodian forunder the Pennsylvania
(name of minor)

Uniform Gifts to Minors Act”; and

(2) delivers or causes to be delivered to the successor custodian any other item of the custodial property, together with the instrument of designation of the successor custodian or a true copy thereof and any additional instruments required for the transfer thereof to the successor custodian.

(c) A custodian who executes an instrument of designation of his successor containing the custodian’s resignation as provided in subsection

(a) of this section shall promptly do all things within his power to put each item of the custodial property in the possession and control of the successor custodian named in the instrument. The legal representative of a custodian who dies or becomes legally incapacitated shall promptly do all things within his power to put each item of the custodial property in the possession and control of the successor custodian named in an instrument of designation executed as provided in subsection (a) of this section by the custodian or, if none, by the minor if he has no guardian and has attained the age of 14 years, or in the possession and control of the guardian of the minor if he has a guardian. If the custodian has executed as provided in subsection (a) of this section more than one instrument of designation, his legal representative shall treat the instrument dated on an earlier date as having been revoked by the instrument dated on a later date.

(d) If a person designated as custodian or as successor custodian by the custodian as provided by subsection (a) of this section is not eligible, dies or becomes legally incapacitated before the minor attains the age of 21 years and if the minor has a guardian, the guardian of the minor shall be successor custodian. (f) Upon the filing of a petition as provided in this section, the court shall grant an order, directed to the persons and returnable on such notice as the court may require, to show cause why the relief prayed for in the petition should not be granted, and in due course grant such relief as the court finds to be in the best interests of the minor.

§ 5511. Petition and hearing.

(a) Resident.—The court, upon petition and a hearing at which good cause is shown, may find a person domiciled in the Commonwealth to be incompetent and appoint a guardian or guardians of his person or estate. The petitioner may be the alleged incompetent's spouse, a relative, a creditor, a debtor, or any person interested in the alleged incompetent's welfare. Notice of the petition and hearing shall be given in such manner as the court shall direct to the alleged incompetent, to all persons residing within the Commonwealth who are sui juris and would be entitled to share in the estate of the alleged incompetent if he died intestate at that time, and to such other parties as the court may direct. The alleged incompetent shall be present at the hearing unless:

- (i) the court is satisfied, upon the presentation of positive testimony, that because of his physical or mental condition his welfare would not be promoted by his presence; or
- (ii) it is impossible for him to be present because of his absence from the Commonwealth. It shall not be necessary for the alleged incompetent to be represented by a guardian ad litem in the proceeding.

(b) Nonresident.—The court may find a person not domiciled in the Commonwealth, having property in the Commonwealth, to be incompetent and may appoint a guardian of his estate. The appointment may be made after petition, hearing and notice, as in the case of a person domiciled in the Commonwealth, or upon the submission of an exemplified copy of a decree establishing his incompetency in another jurisdiction. The court shall give preference in its appointment to the foreign guardian of the nonresident incompetent, unless it finds that such appointment will not be for the best interests of the incompetent.

§ 5512. County of appointment.

(a) Resident incompetent.—A guardian of the person or estate of an incompetent may be appointed by the court of the county in which the incompetent is domiciled.

(b) Nonresident incompetent.—A guardian of the estate within the Commonwealth of an incompetent domiciled outside of the Commonwealth may be appointed by the court of the judicial district having jurisdiction of a decedent's estate or of a trust in which the incompetent has an interest. When the nonresident incompetent's estate is derived otherwise than from a decedent's estate or a trust within the Commonwealth, a guardian may be appointed by the court of any county where an asset of the incompetent is located.

(c) Exclusiveness of appointment.—When a court has appointed a guardian of an incompetent's person or estate pursuant to subsection (a) or (b) of this section, no other court shall appoint a similar guardian for the incompetent within the Commonwealth.

Notwithstanding the provisions of section 5511 of this code (relating to petition and hearing), the court, upon petition and a hearing at which good cause is shown, may appoint a temporary guardian or guardians of the person or estate of a person alleged to be incompetent, when it appears that a failure to make such appointment will result in irreparable harm to the person or estate of the alleged incompetent. The provisions of section 5511 of this code shall be applicable to such proceedings, except that only such notice of the petition and hearing shall be required as shall appear to the court to be feasible in the circumstances, and need not be given at such times or to such persons as would be required by the provisions of section 5511 of this code in a proceeding for the appointment of a guardian. A temporary guardian so appointed for the person or estate of an alleged incompetent shall only have and be subject to such powers, duties and liabilities and serve for such time as the court shall direct in its decree.

§ 5514. To fill vacancy; co-guardian.

The court, after such notice to parties in interest as it shall direct, may appoint a succeeding guardian to fill a vacancy in the office of guardian or may appoint a co-guardian of the estate of a person found to be incompetent without a hearing.

(8) Discharge of guardian and surety, as in section 3184 (relating to discharge of personal representative and surety).

§ 5516. Fiduciary estate.

The court, in its discretion, upon the application of any party in interest, in addition to any bond required for the incompetent's individual estate, may require a separate bond in the name of the Commonwealth, with sufficient surety, in such amount as the court shall consider necessary for the protection of the parties in interest in an estate of which the incompetent is a fiduciary and conditioned in the following form:

(1) When one guardian. The condition of this obligation is that, if the said guardian shall well and truly account for property held by the incompetent as fiduciary according to law, this obligation shall be void; but otherwise it shall remain in force.

(2) When two or more guardians. The condition of this obligation is that, if the said guardians or any of them shall well and truly account for property held by the incompetent as fiduciary according to law, this obligation shall be void as to the guardian or guardians who shall so account; but otherwise it shall remain in force.

All claims remaining unpaid at the incompetent's death shall be presented to the personal representative.

§ 5535. Disposition of trust income.

Except as otherwise provided by the trust instrument, the trustee of an inter vivos or testamentary trust, with the approval of the court having jurisdiction of the trust, may pay income distributable to an incompetent beneficiary for whose estate no guardian has been appointed directly to the incompetent, or expend and apply it for his care and maintenance or the care, maintenance and education of his dependents.

5701. Proof of death.

5702. Trustee for absentee.

5703. Distribution of property of absentee.

5704. Notice to absentee.

5705. Search for absentee.

§ 5701. Proof of death.

(a) Finding of death.—When a person domiciled in the Commonwealth disappears and is absent from his place of residence without being heard of after diligent inquiry, the court of the county where he last resided, aided by the report of a master if necessary, upon the petition of any party in interest, and, if a trustee has been appointed for the absentee, at any time during the trusteeship, may make a finding and decree that the absentee is dead and of the date of his death, provided the notice required by section 5704 of this code (relating to notice to absentee) has been given to the absentee.

(b) Presumption from absence.—When the death of a person or the date thereof is in issue, his unexplained absence from his last known place of residence and the fact that he has been unheard of for seven years may be a sufficient ground for finding that he died seven years after he was last heard of.

(c) Exposure to specific peril.—The fact that an absentee was exposed to a specific peril of death may be sufficient ground for finding that he died less than seven years after he was last heard of.

(d) Competency of witnesses.—All persons shall be competent to testify concerning the death or disappearance of an absentee regardless of relationship by marriage to him or of interest in his estate.

§ 5702. Trustee for absentee.

(a) Appointment.—When a person domiciled or having property in the Commonwealth disappears and is absent from his last known place of residence for a period of one year without being heard of after diligent inquiry, the court of the county where the absentee last resided or, if a nonresident, the court of the county where any of his property shall be located, aided by the report of a master if necessary, upon the petition of any person who would be a party in interest were the absentee deceased or of any insurer or creditor of the absentee, after notice as provided in section 5704 of this code (relating to notice to absentee), upon good cause being shown, may find that the absentee's property requires protection and that he was last heard of on a date certain and may appoint a trustee to take charge of his estate. The absentee shall be made a party to the proceeding and any other person who would have an interest in the property of the absentee were he deceased, upon direction of the court, may be made a party to the proceeding. The period of one year specified in this subsection may be shortened in the discretion of the court.

(b) Bonds, powers, duties and liabilities.—A trustee for an absentee shall give such bond, shall be removed and discharged, and, except as otherwise expressly provided, shall have the same powers, duties and liabilities in the administration of the absentee's real and personal estate as are provided in Chapter 51 of this code (relating to minors) with respect to a guardian in the administration of a minor's estate and, in addition, shall have the right to pay premiums on policies of insurance insuring the life of the absentee and, with the approval of the court, to pay or expend and apply so much of the absentee's property or the income therefrom, as may be necessary for the support of anyone whom the absentee, if living, would be under a legal duty to support, or for the education of his minor children. He shall not have the power to sell or dispose of any asset of the estate or to enter into any lease without prior court approval.

(c) Temporary trustee.—Upon the filing of a petition for the appointment of a trustee for an absentee, the court, if it finds it necessary to protect the property of the absentee, may appoint a temporary trustee to take charge of it and to conserve it, in the manner directed by the court, pending a hearing on the petition. The temporary trustee shall give such bond as the court shall require. Should a permanent trustee be appointed, the temporary trustee shall deliver to the permanent trustee all property of the absentee in his possession, less such as may be necessary to cover his expenses and compensation, as allowed by the court, shall file his final account, and upon its confirmation may be discharged. Should the petition for a permanent trustee be denied, the court shall make appropriate orders for the disposition of the property.

§ 5703. Distribution of property of absentee.

Upon the entry of a decree establishing the death of a person domiciled in the Commonwealth, based in whole or in part upon his absence from his place of residence, the real and personal property of the absentee shall be administered by his personal representative as in the case of other decedents. However, the personal representative shall make no distribution of such property to the persons entitled thereto by will or by intestacy, nor shall such persons acquire indefeasible title thereto, except under decree of court. The court, in awarding distribution, shall require that a refunding bond, with or without security and in such form and amount as the court shall direct, shall be executed by each distributee and filed with the clerk. The bond shall be conditioned that, if it shall later be established that the absentee was in fact alive at the time of distribution, the distributee upon demand will return the property received by him or, if it has been disposed of, will make such restitution therefor as the court shall deem equitable. Should a distributee not execute the bond, the court shall appoint a trustee to receive and hold his share until further order of the court.

§ 5704. Notice to absentee.

The court, if satisfied concerning the interest of the petitioner, shall cause to be advertised in a newspaper of general circulation in the county of the absentee's last known residence and in the legal journal, if any, designated by rule of court for publication of legal notices, once a week for four successive weeks, and to be otherwise advertised as the court according to the circumstances of the case shall deem advisable, the fact of such application, together with notice that on a specified day, which shall be at least two weeks after the last appearance of any such advertisement, the court, or a master appointed by the court for that purpose, will hear evidence concerning the alleged absence, including the circumstances and duration thereof.

§ 5705. Search for absentee.

The court, on its own motion or upon the application of any party in interest, may direct the trustee to search for the absentee in any manner which the court shall deem appropriate, or may appoint a master, investigator or appropriate agency to do so. The expenses of such a search shall be paid out of the property of the absentee.

The following words and phrases, when used in this chapter unless the context clearly indicates otherwise, shall have meanings ascribed to them in this section:

“Charity” or “charitable purposes.” Includes but is not limited to the relief of poverty, the advancement of education, the advancement of religion, the promotion of health, governmental or municipal purposes, and other purposes the accomplishment of which is beneficial to the community.

“Conveyance.” Means an act by which it is intended to create an interest in real or personal property whether the act is intended to have inter vivos or testamentary operation. Except as used in section 6111 of this code (relating to conveyances to defeat marital rights), it shall include an act by which a power of appointment whenever given is exercised.

§ 6102. Termination of trusts.

(a) Failure of original purpose.—The court having jurisdiction of a trust heretofore or hereafter created, regardless of any spendthrift or similar provision therein, in its discretion may terminate such trust in whole or in part, or make an allowance from principal to a conveyor, his spouse, issue, parents, or any of them, who is an income beneficiary, provided the court after hearing is satisfied that the original purpose of the conveyor cannot be carried out or is impractical of fulfillment and that the termination, partial termination, or allowance more nearly approximates the intention of the conveyor, and notice is given to all parties in interest or to their duly appointed fiduciaries. But, distributions of principal under this section, whether by termination, partial termination, or allowance, shall not exceed an aggregate value of $25,000 from all trusts created by the same conveyor.

(b) Distribution of terminated trust.—Whenever the court shall decree termination or partial termination of a trust under the provisions of this section, it shall thereupon order such distribution of the principal and undistributed income as it deems proper and as nearly as possible in conformity with the conveyor's intention.

(c) Other powers.—Nothing in this section shall limit any power of the court to terminate or reform a trust under existing law.

§ 6103. Release or disclaimer of powers or interests.

(a) Powers and interests releasable.—Any power of appointment, or power of consumption, whether general or special, other than a power in trust which is imperative, and any interest in, to, or over real or personal property held or owned outright, or in trust, or in any other manner which is reserved or given to any person by deed, will or otherwise, and irrespective of any limitation of such power or interest by virtue of any restriction in the nature of a so-called spendthrift trust provision, or similar provision, may be released or disclaimed, either with or without consideration by written instrument signed by the person possessing the power or the interest and delivered as hereinafter provided, but nothing in this section shall authorize an income beneficiary of a spendthrift trust to release or disclaim his right to such income, unless as a result of the release or disclaimer the released or disclaimed income will pass to one or more of the beneficiary's descendants.

(b) Form of release or disclaimer.—A power or interest which is releasable or disclaimable may be released or disclaimed either absolutely or conditionally, and may also be released or disclaimed in such manner as to reduce or limit the persons or objects or classes of persons or objects in whose favor such power or interest would otherwise be exercisable. No release or disclaimer of a power or of an interest shall be deemed to make imperative a power or interest which was not imperative prior to such release or disclaimer unless the instrument of release or disclaimer expressly so provides.

(c) Delivery of release or disclaimer.—Such release or disclaimer may be delivered to any one of the following:

(1) Any person specified for such purpose in the instrument creating the power or interest.

(2) Any trustee of the property to which the power or interest relates.

(3) The clerk of the court having jurisdiction of the trust for filing in said court.

(4) The recorder of deeds for recording in the county in which the person possessing the power or interest resides, or in which the deed, will, or other instrument creating the power or interest is recorded or filed.

§ 6104. Rule against perpetuities.

(a) General.—No interest shall be void as a perpetuity except as herein provided.

(b) Void interest; exceptions.—Upon the expiration of the period allowed by the common law rule against perpetuities as measured by actual rather than possible events, any interest not then vested and any interest in members of a class the membership of which is then subject to increase shall be void.

This subsection shall not apply to:

(1) Interest exempt at common law. Interests which would not have been subject to the common law rule against perpetuities.

(2) Cemetery trusts. Interests which are directed to be used for the maintenance, care, or adornment of any cemetery, churchyard, or other place for the burial of the dead, or any portion thereof, or any grave therein or any improvement on or about the same, and which are subject to no condition precedent at the end of the period described in subsection (b).

(3) Pension or profit-sharing plans. Interests created by a bona fide trust inter vivos primarily for the benefit of business employees, their families or appointees, under a stock bonus, pension, disability or death benefit, profit-sharing or other employee-benefit plan.

(4) Administrative powers. Powers which contribute to the effective management of trust assets, including powers to sell, mortgage, or lease trust assets, powers relating to investment of trust assets, powers to determine what is principal and what is income, and powers to name successor trustees.

(c) Time for beginning period. The period allowed by the common law rule against perpetuities under subsection (b) of this section shall be measured from the expiration of any time during which one person while living has the unrestricted power to transfer to himself the entire legal and beneficial interest in the property.

§ 6105. Rule against perpetuities; disposition when invalidity occurs.

(a) Valid interests following void interests.—A valid interest following a void interest in income shall be accelerated to the termination date of the last preceding valid interest.

(b) Void interests on condition subsequent or special limitation.—A void interest following a valid interest on condition subsequent or special limitation shall vest in the owner of such valid interest.

(c) Other void interests.—Any other void interest shall vest in the person or persons entitled to the income at the expiration of the period described in section 6104(b) of this code (relating to void interest; exceptions).

§ 6106. Income accumulations; when valid.

(a) General.—No direction or authorization to accumulated income shall be void, except as herein provided.

(b) Void accumulations; exceptions.—Upon the expiration of the period allowed by the common law rule against perpetuities as measured by actual rather than possible events, any direction or authorization to accumulate income shall be void.

This subsection shall not apply to:

(1) Directions or authorizations to accumulate income in a trust for any charitable purpose or purposes.

(2) Directions or authorizations to accumulate income in a bona fide trust inter vivos primarily for the benefit of business employees, their families or appointees, under a stock bonus, pension, disability or death benefit, profit-sharing or other employee-benefit plan.

(c) Time for beginning period.—The period allowed by the common law¹ rule against perpetuities under subsection (b) of this section shall be measured from the expiration of any time during which one person while living has the unrestricted power to transfer to himself the entire legal and beneficial interest in the property.

§ 6107. Income accumulations; disposition when invalidity occurs.

Income subject to a void direction or authorization to accumulate shall be distributed to the person or proportionately to the persons in whom the right to such income has vested by the terms of the instrument or by operation of law.

§ 6108. Designation of beneficiaries of insurance or employee death benefits not testamentary.

(a) In general.—The designation of beneficiaries of life insurance, annuity or endowment contracts, or of any agreement entered into by an insurance company in connection therewith, supplemental thereto or in settlement thereof, and the designation of beneficiaries of benefits payable upon or after the death of a participant under any pension, bonus, profit-sharing, retirement annuity, or other employee-benefit plan, shall not be considered testamentary and shall not be subject to any law governing the transfer of property by will. This section shall apply regardless of whether the insurance contract or the employee-benefit plan designates the ultimate beneficiaries or makes the proceeds payable, directly or indirectly, to a trustee of a trust under a will or under a separate trust instrument which designates the ultimate beneficiaries, and regardless of whether any such trust is amendable or revocable, or both, or is funded or unfunded, and notwithstanding a reservation to the settlor of all rights of ownership in the insurance contracts or under the employee-benefit plans. Unless otherwise expressly provided in the conveyance, funds or other property so passing to a trust under a will shall become and be a part of the testamentary trust to be administered and disposed of in accordance with the provisions thereof, without forming any part of the testator's estate for administration by his personal representative.

(b) Applicability.—The provisions of subsection (a) of this section relating to the designation of beneficiaries of benefits payable under employee-benefit plans shall apply to designations made prior or subsequent to January 1, 1970, by persons who die on or after said date, and shall not be deemed to create any implication of invalidity of any such designation made by any person who dies before said date.

§ 6109. Combination of charitable trusts.

Whenever two or more trusts heretofore have been or hereafter shall be created for substantially the same charitable purposes, and the court having jurisdiction over any such trust, upon the application of any party in interest, shall find that they can be more effectively administered if they are combined, the court in its discretion, after such notice as the court shall direct, may combine them in the manner and to the extent that the court shall approve, but not so as to violate any express provision to the contrary in any conveyance creating any of the trusts so combined.

§ 6110. Administration of charitable estates.

Except as otherwise provided by the conveyer, if the charitable purpose for which an interest shall be conveyed shall be or become indefinite or impossible or impractical of fulfillment, or if it shall not have been carried out for want of a trustee or because of the failure of a trustee to designate such purpose, the court may, on application of the trustee or of any interested person or of the Attorney General of the Commonwealth, after proof of notice to the Attorney General of the Commonwealth when he is not the petitioner, order an administration or distribution of the estate for a charitable purpose in a manner as nearly as possible to fulfill the intention of the conveyer, whether his charitable intent be general or specific.

§ 6111. Conveyances to defeat marital rights.

(a) In general.—A conveyance of assets by a person who retains a power of appointment by will, or a power of revocation or consumption over the principal thereof, shall, at the election of his surviving spouse, be treated as a testamentary disposition so far as the surviving spouse is concerned to the extent to which the power has been reserved, but the right of the surviving spouse shall be subject to the rights of any income beneficiary whose interest in income becomes vested in enjoyment prior to the death of the conveyer. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any contract of life insurance purchased by a decedent, whether payable in trust or otherwise, nor to employee death benefits described in section 6108 of this code (relating to designation of beneficiaries of insurance or employee death benefits not testamentary), whether payable in trust or otherwise.

(b) Determination of share.—The spouse may elect to take against any such conveyance and shall be entitled to one-third thereof if the conveyer is survived by more than one child, or by one or more children and the issue of a deceased child or children, or by the issue of more than one deceased child, and in all other circumstances one-half thereof.

(c) Election against other conveyances.—A spouse electing under this section also must elect to take against the will, if he is a beneficiary thereunder, and against all other conveyances within the scope of subsection (a) of this section of which he is a beneficiary.

(d) Procedure.—The election to treat a conveyance as testamentary shall be made in the same manner as an election to take against the will. If there is a will, such election shall be made within the same time limitations as an election to take against the will. If there is no will, such election shall be made within one year of the conveyor's death, and the orphans' court, on application of the surviving spouse made within such period, may extend the time for making the election. It can be made only if there has been no forfeiture of the right to make an election. The court having jurisdiction of the deceased conveyor's estate shall determine the rights of the surviving spouse in the property included in the conveyance.

§ 6112. Spendthrift trusts.

Income of a trust subject to spendthrift or similar provisions shall nevertheless be liable for the support of anyone whom the income beneficiary shall be under a legal duty to support.

§ 6113. Limited estates in personalty and in the proceeds of the conversion of real estate.

A person having a present interest in personal property, or in the proceeds of the conversion of real estate, which is not in trust, and which is subject to a future interest, shall be deemed to be a trustee of such property, and not a debtor to the remainderman, with the ordinary powers and duties of a trustee, except that he shall not be required to change the form of the investment to an investment authorized for Pennsylvania fiduciaries, nor shall he be entitled to compensation as trustee. Such person, unless given a power of consumption or excused from entering security by the terms of the conveyance, shall be required to enter such security for the protection of persons entitled to the future interests as the court in its discretion shall direct. If a person having a present interest shall not enter security as directed, the court shall appoint a trustee who shall enter such security as the court shall direct, and who shall exercise all the ordinary powers and duties of a trustee, except that he shall not be required to change the form of the investment to an investment authorized for Pennsylvania fiduciaries.

§ 6114. Rules of interpretation.

In the absence of a contrary intent appearing therein, conveyances shall be construed, as to real and personal estate, in accordance with the following rules:

- (1) Meaning of "heirs" and "next of kin," etc.; time of ascertaining class. A conveyance of real or personal property, whether directly or in trust, to the conveyor's or another designated person's "heirs" or "next of kin" or "relatives" or "family" or to "the persons thereunto entitled under the intestate laws," or to persons described by words of similar import, shall mean those persons, including the spouse, who would take under the intestate laws if such conveyer or other designated person were to die intestate at the time when such class is to be ascertained, a resident of the Commonwealth, and owning the property so conveyed: Provided, That the share of a spouse other than the spouse of the conveyer, shall not include the allowance under the intestate laws. The time when such class is to be ascertained shall be when the conveyance to the class is to take effect in enjoyment.

(2) Time for ascertaining class. In construing a conveyance to a class other than a class described in paragraph (1) of this section, the class shall be ascertained at the time the conveyance is to take effect in enjoyment, except that the issue then living of any member of the class who is then dead shall take per stirpes the share which their deceased ancestor would have taken if he had then been living.

(3) Meaning of "die without issue" and similar phrases. In any conveyance of real or personal estate, the words "die without issue," "die without leaving issue," "have no issue," or other words importing either a want or failure of issue of any person in his lifetime or at the time of his death, or an indefinite failure of his issue, shall be construed to mean a want or failure of issue in his lifetime or at his death, and not an indefinite failure of his issue.

(4) Adopted children. In construing a conveyance to a person or persons described by relationship to the conveyer or to another, any person adopted before the effective date of the conveyance shall be considered the child of his adopting parent or parents and not the child of his natural parents: Provided, That if a natural parent shall have married the adopting parent before the effective date of the conveyance, the adopted person shall also be considered the child of such natural parent.

(5) Persons born out of wedlock. In construing a conveyance to a person or persons described by relationship to the conveyer or to another, a person born out of wedlock shall be considered the child of his mother and not of his father: Provided, That when the parents of a person born out of wedlock shall have married each other, he shall thereafter be considered legitimate.

(6) Inheritance tax. The inheritance tax imposed by the Inheritance and Estate Tax Act of 1961 upon the conveyance of any estate, income or interest, for a term of years, for life, or for other limited period, shall be paid out of the principal of the property by which the estate, income or interest is supported.

§ 6115. Estates pur auter vie.

An interest conveyed to a person for the life of another, whether or not such conveyance is to him and his heirs, shall, on his death before expiration of the interest, be considered as personal property forming a part of his estate and shall be subject to distribution in like manner as a lease for a term of years.

§ 6116. Estates in fee tail abolished.

Whenever by any conveyance an estate in fee tail would be created according to the common law of the Commonwealth, it shall pass an estate in fee simple, and as such shall be inheritable and freely alienable.

§ 6117. Rule in Shelley's case.

The rule in Shelley's case and its corollaries shall not be applied, and a conveyance directly or in trust which shall express an intent to create an estate for life with remainder to the life tenant's heirs or the heirs of his body or his issue or his next of kin or persons described by words of similar import, shall not operate to give such life tenant an estate in fee in real estate or an absolute estate in personalty.

Sec.

- 8101. Definition of terms.
- 8102. Application of the chapter; powers of settlor.
- 8103. Income and principal; disposition.
- 8104. Apportionment of income.
- 8105. Corporate dividends and share rights.
- 8106. Premium and discount bonds.
- 8107. Principal used in business.

- 8109. Disposition of natural resources.

8110. Interest-bearing obligations in default.

8111. Expenses; trust estates.

8112. Expenses; nontrust estates.

§ 8101. Definition of terms.

“Principal.” As used in this chapter means any realty or personalty which has been so set aside or limited by the owner thereof, or a person thereto legally empowered, that it and any substitutions for it are to remain in trust perpetually, or are eventually to be conveyed, delivered or paid to a person, while the return therefrom, or use thereof, or any part of such return or use, is in the meantime to be taken or received by, or held for accumulation for, the same or another person.

“Income.” As used in this chapter means the return derived from principal.

“Tenant.” As used in this chapter means the person to whom income is presently or currently payable, or for whom it is accumulated, or who is entitled to the beneficial use of the principal presently and for a time prior to its distribution.

“Remainderman.” As used in this chapter means the person ultimately entitled to the principal, whether named or designated by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established, or determined by operation of law.

“Trustee.” As used in this chapter includes the original trustee of any trust to which the principal may be subject and also any succeeding or added trustee.

§ 8102. Application of the chapter; powers of settlor.

This chapter shall govern the ascertainment of income and principal and the apportionment of receipts and expenses between tenants and remaindermen in all cases where a principal has been established with or, unless otherwise stated hereinafter, without the interposition of a trust: Provided, That the person establishing the principal may himself direct the manner of ascertainment of income and principal and the apportionment of receipts and expenses or grant discretion to the trustee or other person, to do so and such provision and direction, where not otherwise contrary to law, shall control, notwithstanding this chapter.

§ 8103. Income and principal; disposition.

(a) All receipts of money or other property, paid or delivered as rent of realty, or hire of personalty, or corporate distributions deemed to be income under section 8105 of this code (relating to corporate dividends and share rights), or interest on money loaned, or interest on or the rental or use value of property wrongfully withheld or tortiously damaged, or otherwise in return for the use of principal, shall be deemed income, unless otherwise expressly provided in this chapter.

(b) All receipts of money or other property paid or delivered as the consideration for the sale, or other transfer, not a leasing or letting of property, forming a part of the principal, or as a repayment of loans or in liquidation of the assets of a corporation, or as the proceeds of property taken in eminent domain proceedings, where separate awards to tenant and remainderman are not made, or as proceeds of insurance upon property forming a part of the principal, except where such insurance has been issued for the benefit of either tenant or remainderman alone, or otherwise as a refund or replacement or change in form of principal, shall be deemed principal, unless otherwise expressly provided in this chapter. Any profit or loss, resulting from any change in form of principal, shall enure to or fall upon principal, unless otherwise expressly provided in this chapter.

(c) All income, after payment of expenses properly chargeable to it, shall be paid and delivered to the tenant or retained by him, if already in his possession, or held for accumulation, where legally so directed by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established; while the principal shall be held for ultimate distribution as determined by the terms of the transaction by which it was established, or by law.

(d) Nothing in this section shall apply to property in the nature of wasting assets, such as timber, minerals, coal, stone, oil, gas or other natural resources or to property subject to depletion such as leaseholds, patents, copyrights and royalty rights, but this section shall apply to the shares of corporations which own such property.

§ 8104. Apportionment of income.

Whenever a tenant shall have the right to income from periodic payments, which shall include rent, interest on loans and annuities, but shall not include dividends on corporate shares, and such right shall cease and determine by death, or in any other manner at a time other than the date when such periodic payments should be paid, he or his personal representative shall be entitled to that portion of any such income next payable, which amounts to the same percentage thereof as the time elapsed from the last due date of such periodic payments to and including the day of the determination of his right is of the total period during which such income would normally accrue. The remaining income shall be paid to the person next entitled to income by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established. But no action shall be brought by the trustee or tenant to recover such apportioned income, or any portion thereof, until after the day on which it would have become due to the tenant but for the determination of the right of the tenant entitled thereto. The provisions of this section shall apply whether an ultimate remainderman is specifically named or not. Likewise, when the right of the first tenant accrues at a time other than a payment date of such periodic payments, he shall only receive that portion of such income which amounts to the same percentage thereof as the time during which he has been so entitled is of the total period during which such income would normally accrue, and the balance shall be a part of the principal.

§ 8105. Corporate dividends and share rights.

(a) Corporate distributions made to a trustee in the shares of the distributing corporation, however described or designated by the distributing corporation, shall be deemed principal but if the number of shares of any class distributed to shareholders of such class is 6% or less of the number of shares of that class outstanding on the record date for such distribution, the shares so distributed shall be deemed income. Except as provided above and in other subsections of this section all dividends payable otherwise than in shares of the distributing corporation, including ordinary and extraordinary cash dividends and dividends payable in shares or other securities or obligations of corporations other than the distributing corporation, shall be deemed income. Where the trustee shall have the option of receiving a dividend, either in cash or in the shares of the distributing corporation, it shall be considered as a cash dividend and deemed income, irrespective of the choice made by the trustee.

(b) All rights to subscribe to the shares or other securities or obligations of a corporation, accruing on account of the ownership of shares or other securities in such corporation, and the proceeds of any sale of such rights shall be deemed principal. All rights to subscribe to the shares or other securities or obligations of a corporation, accruing on account of the ownership of shares or other securities in another corporation, and the proceeds of any sale of such rights shall be deemed income.

(c) Where the assets of a corporation are liquidated, wholly or partially, amounts paid upon corporate shares as cash dividends, declared before such liquidation began, or as arrears of cumulative preferred, or guaranteed dividends shall be deemed income, all other amounts paid upon corporate shares on disbursement of the corporate assets to the stockholders shall be deemed principal. All disbursements of corporate assets to the stockholders, whenever made, which are designated by the corporation as a return of capital or division of corporate property, shall be deemed principal. Any profit or loss resulting from the sale or liquidation of corporate shares shall enure to or fall upon principal.

(d) Where a corporation is a party to a merger, consolidation or reorganization, or otherwise acquires the assets of another corporation, or where the capital structure of a corporation is changed, either with or without merger or consolidation, and the securities of the surviving, succeeding, reorganized or acquiring corporation with or without cash or other properties are issued to the shareholders of the original corporation in like proportion to, or in substitution for their shares in the original corporation and prior to the effective date of such merger, consolidation or reorganization there were arrearages of cumulative preferred or guaranteed dividends, and such arrearages are eliminated in the merger, consolidation or reorganization, so much of the securities and cash and other properties received as is designated by the corporation as a payment in settlement of such arrearages, shall be allocated to such arrearages, and the balance of the securities and cash and other properties received shall be deemed principal. In case the corporation does not so designate, the securities received in like proportion to or in substitution for shares upon which there were such arrearages of cumulative preferred or guaranteed dividends at their value as of the effective date of such merger, and the cash and other properties received shall be allocated first to principal, in the amount of the inventory value of the said shares of the original corporation, or in default thereof, of their market value at the time the principal was established, or of their cost where purchased later; second, to the arrearages of cumulative preferred or guaranteed dividends, or in satisfaction thereof if less than such amount; and third, the balance, if any, to principal.

(e) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (d) of this section, where a corporation is a party to a merger, consolidation or reorganization or otherwise acquires the assets of another corporation and shares of stock of whatsoever character or whatsoever class or classes of the surviving, succeeding, reorganized or acquiring corporation with or without cash or other securities or properties are issued to the shareholders of a corporation which is a party to such merger, consolidation, reorganization or acquisition of assets in like proportion to or in substitution for their shares in such corporation, all shares of stock so issued and also all cash and other securities and properties which may be so issued shall be principal.

(f) In applying this section, the date when a dividend accrues to the person who is entitled to it shall be held to be the date specified by the corporation as the one on which the stockholders entitled thereto are determined, or in default thereof, the date of declaration of the dividend.

(g) The trustee in his discretion may either distribute in kind any whole or fractional shares of stock or rights to subscribe which are deemed income under this section, or may sell such shares or rights and distribute the net proceeds.

§ 8106. Premium and discount bonds.

Where any part of the principal consists of bonds or other obligations for the payment of money, they shall be deemed principal at their inventory value, or in default thereof, at their market value at the time the principal was established, or at their cost where purchased later, regardless of their par or maturity value, and upon their respective maturities or upon their sale, any loss or gain realized thereon shall fall upon or enure to the principal: Provided, however, That:

(1) the scheduled increment in value of bonds, issued on a discount basis and subject to definite appreciation in value on a fixed schedule, shall constitute income as of each date on which an increment occurs, and shall be made available as income for such disposition as is provided by the terms of the transaction under which the principal was established by transferring from the principal on each such date an amount equivalent to the increment then occurring; and

(2) the increment in value of United States Treasury bills issued on a discount basis and subject to definite appreciation in value upon maturity but not on a fixed schedule shall constitute income at maturity.

§ 8107. Principal used in business.

(a) Whenever a trustee or tenant is authorized by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established, or by law, to use any part of the principal in the continuance of a business, which the original owner of the property comprising the principal had been carrying on, the net profits of such business attributable to such principal shall be deemed income.

(b) Where such business consists of buying and selling property, the net profits for any period shall be ascertained by deducting from the gross proceeds during, and the inventory value of the property at the end of such period, the expenses during, and the inventory value of the property at the beginning of such period.

(c) Where such business does not consist of buying and selling property, the net income shall be computed in accordance with the customary practice of such business, but not in such way as to decrease the principal.

(d) Any increase in the value of the principal used in such business shall be deemed principal, and all losses in any one calendar year, after the income from such business for that year has been exhausted, shall fall upon principal.

§ 8108. Principal comprising animals.

Where any part of the principal consists of animals employed in business, the provisions of section 8107 of this code (relating to principal used in business) shall apply, and in other cases where the animals are held as a part of the principal, partly or wholly, because of the offspring or increase which they are expected to produce, all offspring or increase shall be deemed principal to the extent necessary to maintain the original number of such animals, and the remainder shall be deemed income, and in all other cases, such offspring or increase shall be deemed income.

§ 8109. Disposition of natural resources.

Where any part of the principal consists of property in lands from which may be taken timber, minerals, coal, stone, oil, gas or other natural resources and the trustee or tenant is authorized by the terms of the transaction by which the principal was established or by order of court to sell, lease or otherwise develop such natural resources, or where such natural resources have been leased or developed prior to the transaction by which the principal was established, and no provision is made for the disposition of the net proceeds thereof after the payment of expenses and carrying charges on such property, one-third of the net proceeds, if received as rent or payment on a lease, or as royalties, shall be deemed income, and the remaining two-thirds thereof shall be deemed principal to be invested to produce income: Provided, That if a surviving spouse of the person establishing the principal shall be the sole tenant, he shall be entitled to such proportion of the net proceeds as he would be entitled to under the intestate laws, if the person establishing the principal were to die intestate at the time of the receipt of such proceeds, a resident of the Commonwealth and owning such proceeds, but this shall not include the $10,000 allowance. Such proceeds if received as consideration for the permanent severance of such natural resources from the land, payable otherwise than as rents, or royalties, shall be deemed principal to be invested to produce income.

Nothing in this section shall be construed to abrogate or extend any right, which may otherwise have accrued by law to a tenant to develop or work such natural resources for his own use.

§ 8110. Interest-bearing obligations in default.

(a) Whenever the interest on an interest-bearing obligation, owned by a trust, shall be in default, in whole or in part, and the obligation shall be converted into money or property which can be fairly apportioned, or both, before the principal is finally distributed, then the tenant, or in case of his death, his personal representative shall be entitled to share in the net proceeds received from the property as delayed income to the extent hereinafter stated.

(b) Such delayed income shall be the difference between the net proceeds received from the conversion and the amount which, had it been placed at simple interest at the rate of 4% per annum for the period during which such interest was in default, in whole or in part, would have produced the net proceeds at the time of conversion. In no event shall delayed income exceed the defaulted interest upon the obligation. The net proceeds shall consist of the gross proceeds, including property other than money received from the conversion, less any expenses incurred in converting and preserving the asset, and less all carrying charges which have been paid out of principal, pending conversion, but shall not include net income received pending conversion.

(c) The tenant shall be entitled to receive from time to time and to keep the net income from any form of property or obligation into which such interest-bearing obligation may be converted, until it is finally converted into money or property which can be fairly apportioned, or both, and his share of the delayed income shall be reduced by the amount of income received and by the value of any beneficial use of the property which he may have had.

(d) In the case of successive tenants, the delayed income shall be divided among them, or their representatives, according to the length of the period for which each was entitled to income.

§ 8111. Expenses; trust estates.

(a) All ordinary expenses and charges, incurred in connection with the trust estate or with its administration and management, shall be paid out of income, but such expenses, where incurred in disposing of or as carrying charges on unproductive estate, shall be paid out of principal, and where incurred in disposing of, or as carrying charges on underproductive estate, shall be paid out of principal to the extent that the income from the property shall not be equal to such expenses.

(b) Trustees' compensation, compensation of assistants and court costs and attorneys' and other fees may be apportioned between income and principal as the court may direct.

(c) All other expenses including cost of investing or reinvesting principal, and other costs incurred in maintaining or defending any action to protect the trust or the property or assure the title thereof, unless due to the fault or cause of the tenant, and costs of or assessments for improvements to property, forming part of the principal, shall be paid out of the principal. Any tax levied by any authority, Federal, State or foreign, upon profits or gain defined as principal under the terms of section 8103(b) of this code (relating to income and principal; disposition) shall be paid out of principal, notwithstanding said tax may be denominated a tax upon income by the taxing authority.

(d) Interest and penalties on inheritance and estate taxes, levied by any authority, Federal, State or foreign, shall be paid out of principal to the extent that such interest and penalties are in excess of the rate of return which has been or shall be realized from the estate during the time that such interest and penalty have accrued.

(e) Expenses paid out of income, according to subsection (a) hereof, which represent regularly recurring charges, shall be considered to have accrued from day to day, and shall be apportioned on that basis, whenever the right of the tenant begins or ends at some date other than the payment date of the expenses. Where the expenses to be paid out of income are of unusual amount, the trustee may distribute them throughout an entire year, or part thereof, or throughout a series of years. After such distribution, where the right of the tenant ends during the period, the expenses shall be apportioned between tenant and remainderman on the basis of such distribution.

§ 8112. Expenses; nontrust estates.

(a) The provisions of section 8111 of this code (relating to expenses; trust estates) so far as applicable shall govern the apportionment of expenses between tenants and remaindermen where no trust has been created; subject, however, to any legal agreement of the parties, or any specific direction of the taxing, or other statutes, but where either tenant or remainderman has incurred an expense for the benefit of his own estate, and without the consent or agreement of the other he shall pay such expense in full.

(b) The special taxes or assessments for an improvement, representing an addition of value to property, forming part of the principal, shall be paid by the tenant, where such improvement cannot reasonably be expected to outlast the estate of the tenant. In all other cases a portion thereof only shall be paid by the tenant, while the remainder shall be paid by the remainderman. Such portion shall be ascertained by taking that percentage of the total which is found by dividing the present value of the tenant's estate by the present value of an estate of the same form as that of the tenant, except that it is limited for a period corresponding to the reasonably expected duration of the improvement. The computation of present values of the estates shall be made on the expectancy basis set forth in the American experience tables of mortality and no other evidence of duration of expectancy shall be considered.

(2) The amicable partition and exchange thereof.

(3) The squaring and adjusting of lines between adjoining owners.

(4) The consolidation and combination of mining lands with other adjoining mining lands, so that they shall form one tract, and the leasing thereof in such manner that the several persons interested therein shall be seised of undivided interests in the whole, proportionate to their several undivided interests before such combination and consolidation; the rents or royalties received under the lease to be apportioned among them in like proportions.

(5) The joining by owners of undivided interests in making and taking conveyances, in order to change, in part or in whole, the route or location of any right-of-way or passage existing over and upon adjoining or other lands.

of all those interested therein, and without prejudice to any trust, charity, or purpose for which the real estate or ground-rent shall be held, and without the violation of any law which may confer an immunity or exempt from sale or alienation.

§ 8202. When jurisdiction to be exercised.

(a) The court shall exercise the jurisdiction conferred by section 8201 of this code (relating to powers of courts to authorize sale, etc., of certain lands) in all cases:

(ii) By a wife whose husband is a minor, or by a married minor whose spouse is a minor, or by a married woman or married man whose spouse is a lunatic, or has abandoned him or her for one year, or has been absent and unheard of for seven years, or who is one of the tenants of an estate by entireties, and whose spouse, the other tenant of such estate by entireties, has been absent and unheard from for seven years under those circumstances from which the law would presume his or her decease.

(iii) By corporations of any kind having no capacity to convey, or by any unincorporated association.

(iv) By any religious, beneficial, or charitable society or association, incorporated or unincorporated, and the title is subject to forfeiture if real estate is held in excess of the amount prescribed by its charter, or now or hereafter prescribed by law.

(6) Where a trust has been created, and no power conferred on the trustee to do any of the acts which the court is empowered to authorize or confirm under the provisions of section 8201 hereof.

(b) Such jurisdiction may be exercised whether the ownership or interest in real estate be held in severalty, joint tenancy, or tenancy in common, or by husband and wife as tenants by entireties.

§ 8203. Jurisdiction where land wholly in one county.

In all proceedings under the provisions of this chapter where the real estate shall lie wholly within one county the petition shall be presented only in the court of that county.

§ 8204. Jurisdiction and proceedings where land in two counties; recording mortgages.

When an application shall be made under the provisions of this chapter for the sale, mortgaging, leasing, or other proceedings relating to real estate, through which real estate the line dividing two or more counties runs, the court of the county in which the mansion-house is situated; or, if there be no mansion-house, the court of the county where the principal improvements may be; or, if there be no improvements, the court of either county, may exercise jurisdiction as to the whole of such real estate, irrespective of the county line; and any such sale, mortgaging, leasing, or other decree relating to real estate, shall be as effectual as if the whole of such real estate had been within the county whereof said court has jurisdiction. Notices of said proceedings as required by this chapter shall be given in all the counties in which the land is situated, and a certified copy of all proceedings shall be filed in the proper court, of each county in which said land is situated. Any mortgage taken to secure the purchase-money, or any part thereof, shall be duly recorded in each of the counties in which said lands lie, as required by law.

§ 8205. Existing laws, rights and powers not affected.

Nothing herein contained shall be taken to repeal or impair the authority of any act of Assembly, general or private, authorizing the sale of real estate, by decree of court or otherwise; nor to affect or impair any rights or powers, otherwise existing in any person or corporation, to do any of the acts which the court is empowered to authorize or confirm under the provisions of section 8201 of this code (relating to powers of courts to authorize sale, etc., of certain lands).

§ 8206. Petition, citation and proceedings.

All jurisdiction conferred by this chapter on the orphans' court division or the court of common pleas shall be exercised on the petition of any party in interest, supported by oath or affirmation; and, if all proper parties shall not voluntarily appear as petitioners or respondents, the court shall fix a day for them to appear, and cause a citation to be served, on all persons in being who shall not have appeared, and who shall have any present or expectant interest in the premises, warning them to appear and that they shall be heard on the day designated; and, for those who cannot otherwise be served, cause advertisement to be made in manner most likely to afford notice; and service made in any part of the United States and the territories and possessions thereof or elsewhere, with oath or affirmation of the fact, taken before any judge or justice of the peace or notary public or any person authorized by laws of the United States to take oaths or affirmations in foreign countries, and filed of record, shall be good service. Service having been made as aforesaid, the court shall on the day fixed make such decree as shall be proper in the premises. Guardians shall be notified and appear for their wards; and, if minors have no guardian, the court may appoint one for them, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by law for the appointment of guardians; and such appointment may be made on the petition of any party interested with notice to the persons who shall by law be charged with the duty of petitioning for the appointment of a guardian. Committees and guardians shall be notified and appear for lunatics, habitual drunkards, and weak-minded persons, and in each of such cases notice shall be given to the next of kin: Provided, That if it shall appear to the court that, after due investigation, it cannot be ascertained who are such next of kin, the court may direct that notice be given by advertisement, as above provided, to the next kin generally without naming or otherwise identifying them. Trustees shall be notified and appear for the cestuis que trust; provided cestuis que trust, of age and sound mind, having vested interests, or interests subject to a condition precedent, shall also be notified; and all cestuis que trust not in being, or unascertained, shall be represented by the trustees aforesaid.

§ 8207. Sale of land in which minor has remainder; disposition of proceeds.

Where lands and tenements are held by will, or otherwise, for life or pur auter vie, by any person or persons, with remainder to any minor or minors, and it shall appear to the court that it would be to the interests of such minor or minors that the same should be sold, in every such case, upon the application of the tenant or tenants for life or pur auter vie, as the case may be, the said court shall appoint a trustee to make sale of said lands; and the said trustee shall receive and hold the proceeds of such sale in trust for the parties in interest therein, and shall invest the same in investments authorized by law, and shall pay the interest thereof as it shall accrue to the tenants for life or pur auter vie, until the estate for life or pur auter vie shall have terminated, and shall then pay over the principal sum to the person or persons entitled to such remainder.

§ 8208. Effect of decree; requisites of petition.

Every such decree made by the court shall have the effect, as to the title authorized to be transferred:

- (1) Of a common recovery to bar an estate tail or a remainder, whether contingent or to a class.
- (2) Of barring executory devises.
- (3) Of defeating the right of the Commonwealth to forfeit real estate that may have been held by or for any corporation in excess of the amount now or hereafter duly authorized by law, only, however, in the case where no proceedings to procure a forfeiture shall have been commenced before the filing of the petition.
- (4) Of discharging the lien of decedents' debts not of record.

In all cases where the proceedings shall be for the purpose of freeing the title of any of the limitations or defeasibility described in this section, that purpose shall be set forth in the petition, in addition to the explanation of the title.

§ 8209. Appointment of master.

In all cases where an application shall be made to the court for a decree authorized under any of the provisions of this chapter, the court may appoint a suitable person as master to investigate the facts of the case, and to report upon the expediency of granting the application, and, in cases where authority is asked to make a sale or mortgage, upon the amount to be raised thereby; and, upon such report being made, the court may decree accordingly.

§ 8210. Bond to secure application of moneys.

In all cases where the carrying out of any decree of the court, under the provisions of this chapter, shall involve the receipt of money by the person carrying it out, the court shall direct the person acting under the decree to file a bond to the Commonwealth, in a sufficient amount, conditioned for the proper application of all moneys to be received; which bond shall inure to the benefit of all parties interested, and be executed by two individual sureties, or by one corporate surety, approved by the court; and, before any such decree shall be executed, such bond, with sureties as may be required, shall be filed: Provided, That where a corporation duly authorized by law shall be designated to carry out any such decree, the court may, in lieu of security as aforesaid, permit such corporation to enter its own bond without surety.

§ 8211. Execution of conveyances.

In all cases where, under the provisions of this chapter, sales, mortgages, leases, or conveyances on ground-rent shall be authorized or directed the same shall be made by executors, administrators, guardians, trustees, committees, or owners having a present vested interest, or trustees appointed for the purpose, as the court may order.

§ 8212. Title acquired; nonliability of purchaser.

The title transferred in 'pursuance of any such decree of the court shall be such as is authorized in the decree, which title shall be indefeasible by any person, ascertained or unascertained, or any class of persons mentioned in the petition or decree and having a present or expectant interest in the premises, and shall be unprejudiced by any error in the proceedings of the court; and where security shall be entered, in accordance with the provisions hereof, no party who shall pay over money in pursuance of the decree of the court shall be liable to see to the application thereof, or be in any manner liable for or affected by any lien of debts of a decedent not of record, or by any trust limitation of or defects in the title set out in the petition or decree in pursuance of which the money is paid over.

§ 8213. Payment or foreclosure of mortgage.

In all cases where the court shall authorize or confirm the making of a mortgage in any of the cases provided for in this chapter, the title shall, upon the mortgage being duly paid and satisfied of record, revert to its former condition, except that nothing herein contained shall operate to extend the lien of the debts of a decedent not of record beyond the time now or hereafter allowed by law; and, upon legal proceedings being brought upon the mortgage or bond accompanying the same, as may now or hereafter be provided by law, and the title being sold at sheriff's sale in pursuance of such proceedings, the surplus proceeds of the sale, if any, after paying the mortgage, with interest and all costs, and liens which may by law be payable out of the fund, shall be paid over to the party who made the mortgage, or such other person as the court may direct or appoint for that purpose, to be held by him as part of the mortgage-money and subject to the same liens or limitations: Provided, That the sheriff shall not pay over any such sum until such additional bond shall be filed as the orphans' court division may require under the circumstances of the case.

§ 8214. Title to money or property received on sale, exchange, etc.; distribution, investment or application.

The purchase-money, mortgage-money, ground or other rents reserved or the title received in the case of an exchange or partition, for the title subject to a lien or limitation, shall be held for and applied to the use and benefit of the same persons and for the same interests, legal or equitable, present or future, vested, contingent or executory, as the title so sold, mortgaged, conveyed on ground-rent, let, partitioned, or exchanged had been subject or held, excepting only the case of an estate tail, or the title of a corporation subject to forfeiture, which in each case shall by the proceedings, without the necessity of a bond being filed by either the corporation or the tenant in tail, be converted into an absolute estate in fee simple; and all remainders, whether contingent or to a class, executory devises, and debts of a decedent not of record, shall be transferred to the fund or title raised by the proceedings in pursuance of the decree, as to which fund or title they shall take effect, in like manner as they would have taken effect as to the title transferred under the decree. The court shall make such order or orders, from time to time, as to the distribution or investment of such funds, as may become entitled thereto, or to any part thereof. In every case of a sale, mortgage, lease, or conveyance on ground-rent, under the provisions hereof, the purchase-money, mortgage-money, ground-rent or other rents reserved, shall, nevertheless, have and retain the quality of real estate as respects the devolution, under the intestate laws, of the interest of any infant, lunatic, or person non compos mentis, as whose property the land was sold, mortgaged, leased, or conveyed on ground-rent. The court may direct the application of such proceeds, or part thereof, for the maintenance and education of minor parties whose personal estate shall be insufficient for such purposes; or, generally, for the maintenance or education of parties having the like interest, vested or expectant; provided such moneys can be equally and equitably so applied, and without diminution of the capital that may of right become the property of parties having unbarred interests or title in remainder or by executory devise.

§ 8215. How moneys expended.

No principal moneys raised by sale or mortgage, as aforesaid, shall be expended for any other purpose than for the payment of liens upon or the improvement of the same real estate when mortgaged, or other real estate when held for the same uses and persons, except as provided in section 8214 of this code (relating to title to money or property received on sale, exchange, etc.; distribution, investment or application), and it shall be the duty of the court to decree the proper application of all purchase-moneys and rents, with the aid of an auditor when deemed necessary, to the discharge of liens, and to parties interested, as and when they may be entitled.

§ 8216. Before whom instruments may be acknowledged.

All deeds, mortgages, or leases executed in pursuance of any decree of the court, under the provisions of this chapter, may be acknowledged before any officer or person now or hereafter authorized by the laws of this Commonwealth to take the acknowledgment of deeds and other instruments of writing to be recorded therein.

§ 8217. Title not affected by defect in appointment.

Whenever any person therein described as a trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, or as standing in any other fiduciary relation to the parties interested, shall grant and convey or mortgage any real estate, in which proceedings security shall be duly entered by him or her under the order or decree of the court, no irregularity or defect in his or her original appointment, or the absence of any proper qualification in respect thereto, shall affect the title of the grantee, purchaser, or mortgagee, or the liability of the sureties, but the same shall be as valid in all respects as if such irregularity or defect had not existed.

§ 8218. Nonliability of purchaser for misapplication of purchase price.

Whenever a public or private sale of real estate shall be authorized, directed, or confirmed by any court, under the provisions of this chapter, the person or persons purchasing the real estate so sold, and taking title in pursuance of the decree of the court, shall take such title free and discharged of any obligation to see to the application of the purchase-money.

§ 8219. Notice of public sales.

Whenever, by the provisions of this chapter, it shall be lawful for the court to order the public sale of real estate, public notice of such sale shall be given by the person who is to make the sale, once a week, for a period of three weeks before the day appointed therefor, by advertisement in the legal periodical, if any, designated by rule of court for the publication of legal notices, and in at least one newspaper published in the county, if there be one, or, if there be none, then in an adjoining county; and in all cases notice shall also be given by handbills, one of which shall be posted at a conspicuous place on the real estate proposed to be sold, and at least three of which shall be posted at three of the most public places in the vicinity of such estate.

§ 8220. Terms of sale; security for unpaid purchase money.

Whenever, under the provisions of this chapter, the court has power to authorize or confirm a sale of real estate, the same may be made upon such terms as the court shall approve; all unpaid purchase-money to be secured on the premises by mortgage.

§ 8221. Effect of sale on liens.

All public sales of real estate under the provisions of this chapter, shall have the effect of judicial sales as to the discharge of liens upon the real estate so sold, but private sales shall not discharge the liens of debts of record.

§ 8222. Confirmation of sales.

All public sales of real estate under the provisions of this chapter, shall be subject to confirmation by said court; but, in the case of private sales authorized or directed under the provisions of this chapter, no return or confirmation shall be necessary.

§ 8223. Proceedings where fiduciary dies or is removed or neglects to execute deed.

In all cases where the sale of real estate shall be made by an executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee, under an order of or confirmed by the court, or where the making of a mortgage by such fiduciary shall be authorized by said court, and the letters testamentary or of administration shall be revoked, or the executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee shall be removed or shall die or become insane, or otherwise be incapable, before a conveyance is made to the purchaser or before a mortgage is executed and delivered, it shall be lawful for the successor of such executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee, having first given security, to be approved by the said court, for the faithful appropriation of the proceeds of such sale, to execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of conveyance for the estate so sold, on the purchaser's full compliance with the terms and conditions of sale, or to execute and deliver said mortgage. If there shall be no such successor who shall have given security as aforesaid, the said court shall have power, on petition of the purchaser, to direct the clerk of the court to execute and deliver to the purchaser the necessary deed of conveyance, on his full compliance with the terms and conditions of sale, paying into court the moneys payable, and executing and delivering to the clerk any bond and mortgage required by the said terms and conditions; which moneys and bond and mortgage shall remain subject to the disposition of the court; or, where the making of a mortgage by a fiduciary shall be authorized by said court, the court under the circumstances aforesaid shall have power to direct the clerk of the court to execute and deliver such mortgage. The like proceedings may be had where an executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee shall neglect or refuse to execute and deliver such deed or mortgage for the space of 30 days after due notice of an order of the court requiring him to execute and deliver the same.

§ 8224. Where one joint fiduciary dies or becomes incapacitated.

In all cases where the sale of real estate shall be made by co-executors, co-administrators, co-guardians, or co-trustees, under an order of or confirmed by the court, or where the making of a mortgage by such co-fiduciaries shall be authorized by said court, and if one or more of such co-fiduciaries shall be removed or shall die or become insane, or otherwise be incapable, before a conveyance is made to the purchaser or before such mortgage is executed and delivered, said court may, upon the facts being made to appear, by petition duly verified, authorize the surviving or remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries to execute and deliver to the purchaser a deed of conveyance for the real estate so sold, on the purchaser's full compliance with the terms and conditions of sale, or to execute and deliver such mortgage.

§ 8225. Where joint fiduciary dies or becomes incapable before sale is made.

Where authority is or shall be given by decree of any court to executors, administrators, guardians, or trustees to sell real estate, and any of such executors, administrators, guardians, or trustees shall have died, been removed, become insane, or otherwise be incapable, or cease to act, before a sale is effected, in all such cases said court may, upon the facts being made to appear by petition duly verified, authorize the surviving or remaining fiduciary or fiduciaries to effect such sales, with as full effect in all particulars as it effected or executed by the executors, administrators, guardians, or trustees in office at the time the sale was originally decreed.

§ 8226. Effect of sale or conveyance.

§ 8227. Title not affected by subsequent removal of fiduciary.

In all cases of sales or mortgages under the order of or confirmed by the court, the title of the purchaser or mortgagee shall not be affected by the subsequent revocation of the letters testamentary or of administration of the executor or administrator making such sale or mortgage, or by the subsequent removal of the executor, administrator, guardian, or trustee making such sale or mortgage.

§ 8229. Private sale may be authorized.

The courts of the several counties of this Commonwealth, in all cases where under the provisions of this chapter such courts have power to order the sale of real estate, may authorize or direct a private sale, if, in the opinion of the court, under all the circumstances, a better price can be obtained at private than at public sale, as where the interest shall be undivided, or for any other sufficient cause.

§ 8231. Appeals.

In all cases and proceedings under this chapter appeals may be taken to the proper appellate court, from the orphans' court division as now provided by law in other cases, and from the court of common pleas as provided in equity cases: Provided, That if any decree be carried into execution before the appeal be perfected and written notice thereof given to any vendee, mortgagee, or lessee, any reversal thereof shall not affect the right or title of such vendee, mortgagee, or lessee; but the purchase- or mortgage-moneys or rents shall stand in lieu of the premises sold or mortgaged or leased, so far as thus encumbered: Provided further, That before any decree be carried into effect to afford such indemnity, 21 days be allowed from its entry to take and perfect such appeal.

§ 8232. Ratification of certain sales heretofore made.

All sales of lands and tenements subject to vested remainders liable to open and let in after-born children, heretofore made by order of any court and purporting to have been made under and by virtue of said chapter, are hereby ratified and confirmed.

§ 8233. Sales heretofore made under decree of court validated.

All sales, mortgages, or lettings, or conveyances upon ground-rent, heretofore made under decrees of the orphans' court division, or courts of common pleas of this Commonwealth in cases within the scope and operation of this chapter, and which have been fully consummated in good faith, are hereby validated.

§ 8234. Sales of real estate of lunatics confirmed.

In all cases where sales of the real estate of lunatics have been made under the act of April 18, 1853 (No. 304), entitled "An act relating to the Sale and Conveyance of Real Estate," the same shall be valid and effectual, notwithstanding such real estate may have been derived by descent or will.

(a) Any individual of sound mind and 21 years of age or more may give all or any part of his body for any purpose specified in section 8603 of this code (relating to persons who may become donees; purposes for which anatomical gifts may be made), the gift to take effect upon death. A gift of the whole body shall be invalid unless made in writing at least 15 days prior to the date of death.

(b) Any of the following persons, in order of priority stated, when persons in prior classes are not available at the time of death, and in the absence of actual notice of contrary indications by the decedent or actual notice of opposition by a member of the same or a prior class, may give all or any part of the decedent's body for any purpose specified in section 8603 of this code:

- (1) the spouse;

(6) any other person authorized or under obligation to dispose of the body.

(c) If the donee has actual notice of contrary indications by the decedent or that a gift by a member of a class is opposed by a member of the same or a prior class, the donee shall not accept the gift. The persons authorized by subsection (b) of this section may make the gift after or immediately before death.

(d) A gift of all or part of a body authorizes any examination necessary to assure medical acceptability of the gift for the purposes intended.

(e) The rights of the donee created by the gift are paramount to the rights of others except as provided by section 8607(d) of this code (relating to rights and duties at death).

§ 8603. Persons who may become donees; purposes for which anatomical gifts may be made.

(a) A gift of all or part of the body under section 8602(a) of this code (relating to persons who may execute an anatomical gift) may be made by will. The gift becomes effective upon the death of the testator without waiting for probate. If the will is not probated, or if it is declared invalid for testamentary purposes, the gift, to the extent that it has been acted upon in good faith, is nevertheless valid and effective.

(b) A gift of all or part of the body under section 8602(a) of this code may also be made by document other than a will. The gift becomes effective upon the death of the donor. The document, which may be a card designed to be carried on the person, must be signed by the donor in the presence of two witnesses who must sign the document in his presence. If the donor is mentally competent to signify his desire to sign the document but is physically unable to do so, the document may be signed for him by another at his direction and in his presence in the presence of two witnesses who must sign the document in his presence. Delivery of the document of gift during the donor's lifetime is not necessary to make the gift valid.

(c) The gift may be made to a specified donee or without specifying a donee. If the latter, the gift may be accepted by the attending physician as donee upon or following death. If the gift is made to a specified donee who is not available at the time and place of death, the attending physician upon or following death, in the absence of any expressed indication that the donor desired otherwise, may accept the gift as donee. The physician who becomes a donee under this subsection shall not participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part.

(d) Notwithstanding section 8607(b) of this code (relating to rights and duties at death), the donor may designate in his will, card, or other document of gift the surgeon or physician to carry out the appropriate procedures. In the absence of a designation or if the designee is not available, the donee or other person authorized to accept the gift may employ or authorize any surgeon or physician for the purpose.

(e) Any gift by a person designated in section 8602(b) of this code (relating to persons who may execute an anatomical gift), shall be made by a document signed by him or made by his telegraphic, recorded telephonic, or other recorded message.

§ 8605. Delivery of document of gift.

If the gift is made by the donor to a specified donee, the will, card, or other document, or an executed copy thereof, may be delivered to the donee to expedite the appropriate procedures immediately after death.

Delivery is not necessary to the validity of the gift. The will, card, or other document, or an executed copy thereof, may be deposited in any hospital, bank or storage facility or registry office that accepts it for safekeeping or for facilitation of procedures after death. On request of any interested party upon or after the donor's death the person in possession shall produce the document for examination.

§ 8606. Amendment or revocation of the gift.

(a) If the will, card, or other document or executed copy thereof, has been delivered to a specified donee, the donor may amend or revoke the gift by:

- (1) the execution and delivery to the donee of a signed statement;
or
- (2) an oral statement made in the presence of two persons and communicated to the donee; or
- (3) a statement during a terminal illness or injury addressed to an attending physician and communicated to the donee; or
- (4) a signed card or document found on his person or in his effects.

(b) Any document of gift which has not been delivered to the donee may be revoked by the donor in the manner set out in subsection (a) of this section, or by destruction, cancellation, or mutilation of the document and all executed copies thereof.

(c) Any gift made by a will may also be amended or revoked in the manner provided for amendment or revocation of wills, or as provided in subsection (a) of this section.

§ 8607. Rights and duties at death.

(a) The donee may accept or reject the gift. If the donee accepts a gift of the entire body, he shall subject to the terms of the gift, authorize embalming and the use of the body in funeral services if the surviving spouse or next of kin as determined in section 8602(b) of this code (relating to persons who may execute an anatomical gift) requests embalming and use of the body for funeral services. If the gift is of a part of the body, the donee, upon the death of the donor and prior to embalming, shall cause the part to be removed without unnecessary mutilation. After removal of the part, custody of the remainder of the body vests in the surviving spouse, next of kin, or other persons under obligation to dispose of the body.

(b) The time of death shall be determined by a physician who tends the donor at his death, or, if none, the physician who certifies the death. The physician who certifies death or any of his professional partners or associates shall not participate in the procedures for removing or transplanting a part.

§ 8702. Combining trusts.

Whenever two or more trusts heretofore have been or hereafter shall be created primarily for the benefit of the employees of the same employer or their families or appointees under any stock, bonus, pension, disability, death benefit, profit sharing or other employee-benefit plan or plans and the court of common pleas having jurisdiction over any one of such trusts, upon the application of the employer who established such trusts, any trustee thereof or any other party in interest, shall find that such trusts can be more effectively administered if they are combined, the court, in its discretion, after such notice to parties in interest as the court shall direct, may order that they be combined into one trust, which may be one of such existing trusts, in the manner and to the extent that the court shall approve, but not so as to violate any express provision to the contrary in any conveyance creating any of the trusts so combined.

§ 8703. Transfer of assets to corporate trustee; investments; common trust funds.

The trustee or trustees of any employee-benefit plan, such as a pension, welfare, profit sharing, share, purchase, or other plan, may transfer any part of the property and assets of the plan, in trust, to a corporate trustee which shall be a bank and trust company or trust company, incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, or a national banking association, having fiduciary powers and having its principal office in Pennsylvania, and may authorize such corporate trustee to invest and reinvest such property and assets subject to the same powers, restrictions and obligations with respect to investment and reinvestment of such property and assets as are applicable to the trustee or trustees making such transfer, and to contribute such property and assets to any common trust fund which the transferee may be otherwise authorized to maintain and to pay over the net income therefrom at such intervals as may be agreed: Provided, however, That such transfer in trust may be at any time revoked by action of the trustee or trustees so making transfer.

Pending such payment, such trustee, custodian or committee shall not be required to recognize any claim by third parties or to withhold disbursement pending the resolution of such claims, in the absence of an appropriate court order directed to it restraining such disbursement until further order of such court or instructing it to make disbursement of the account as provided in the order. Any person to whom payment is made shall be answerable therefor to anyone prejudiced thereby.

§ 8803. Descent, distribution, dower, curtesy, and statutory rights as survivor.

The slayer shall be deemed to have predeceased the decedent as to property which would have passed from the decedent or his estate to the slayer under the statutes of descent and distribution or have been acquired by dower, by curtesy or by statutory right as surviving spouse.

§ 8804. Legacies.

Property which would have passed to or for the benefit of the slayer by devise or legacy from the decedent shall be distributed as if he had predeceased the decedent.

(a) Insurance proceeds payable to the slayer as the beneficiary or assignee of any policy or certificate of insurance on the life of the decedent, or as the survivor of a joint life policy, shall be paid to the estate of the decedent, unless the policy or certificate designates some person not claiming through the slayer as alternative beneficiary to him.

(b) If the decedent is beneficiary or assignee of any policy or certificate of insurance on the life of the slayer, the proceeds shall be paid to the estate of the decedent upon the death of the slayer, unless the policy names some person other than the slayer or his estate as alternative beneficiary, or unless the slayer by naming a new beneficiary or assigning the policy performs an act which would have deprived the decedent of his interest in the policy if he had been living.

§ 8812. Bona fide payment by insurance company or obligor.

Any insurance company making payment according to the terms of its policy or any bank or other person performing an obligation for the slayer as one of several joint obligees shall not be subject to additional liability by the terms of this chapter, if such payment or performance is made without notice of the killing by a slayer.
