

said, shall be considered as relinquished for the benefit of the institution.

SIMON SNYDER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

SAMUEL MACLAY, Speaker
of the Senate.

APPROVED—March the eighth, 1803:

THOMAS M'KEAN, Governor
of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

CHAPTER CXXXI.

A further SUPPLEMENT to the act, entitled "An act to erect the town of Sunbury, in the county of Northumberland, into a borough."

WHEREAS the burgesses and sundry inhabitants of the borough of Sunbury, in the county of Northumberland, by their petition to the legislature, have suggested certain alterations and amendments of the existing acts of incorporation of the said borough, whereby the same would be rendered more conformable to the wishes and convenience of the said inhabitants: Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,

That the inhabitants of the said borough, qualified to vote for burgesses and assistants, shall at the same time and place at which burgesses and assistants of the borough of Sunbury shall and.

annually elect eight common council men, each of whom to take an oath of office before he enters on the duties thereof.

and assistants are elected, annually elect eight inhabitants of the said borough qualified as aforesaid, to serve as common council men, each of whom before he enters on the duties of his office, shall take an oath or solemn affirmation, before some judge or justice of the peace of the said county, well and faithfully to execute the office of a common council man of the said borough.

Powers of the burgesses, assistants and common council men.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said burgesses, assistants and common council men, in common council assembled, shall have full power and authority to frame all laws and ordinances, necessary and convenient for the government and welfare of the said borough, and the same at their discretion to revoke, alter and make anew, as occasion may require, reserving nevertheless to the inhabitants at large, duly qualified as aforesaid, in their town meetings, to revoke, alter and amend the said laws and ordinances: Provided, That a majority of the whole number of the said inhabitants concur in such revocation, alteration or amendments.

Proceedings before the laws and ordinances of the corporation are to have effect, & for revoking or altering the same.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in order to give due notice of such laws and ordinances, and that a full opportunity may be had for the inhabitants aforesaid, to revoke, alter or amend the same, the said laws shall be published for ten days before they shall obtain any operation, and in the interval a town meeting shall be convened by the burgesses and assistants, and if at such town meeting a sufficient number of the inhabitants shall not appear to revoke, or alter the said laws or ordinances, or appearing shall not revoke, or alter the same, the said laws and

and ordinances shall at the expiration of the said ten days become of full force and effect, subject nevertheless to revocation, alteration or amendment by the said common council, or by a majority of the whole number of inhabitants duly qualified as aforesaid, at any subsequent town meeting.

SIMON SNYDER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

SAMUEL MACLAY, Speaker
of the Senate.

APPROVED—March the sixteenth, 1803 :

THOMAS M'KEAN, Governor
of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

CHAPTER CXXXII.

An ACT to erect a new election district in the county of Dauphin, and to alter the place of holding the general elections for the two adjoining districts.

Section 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the following boundaries shall compose an election district, to wit: Beginning at the west side of Susquehanna river, opposite the end of Peter's mountain; thence across the said river, and along the top of said mountain to the line of Berks county; thence along said line to the top of Wisconesco

A new election district erected in Dauphin county; its boundaries,