CHAPTER CXLVIII.

An ACT for the relief of Doctor Robert Johnson.

WHEREAS by the act passed twenty-fourth March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, section fourth, all officers or soldiers of the Pennsylvania regiments or of independent corps, acknowledged by this state as the quota of Pennsylvania in the federal army, and officers being citizens of this state at the time of their entering into the service, not attached to the line of any state who served ed therein until the end of the late war with Great-Britain, and all officers as aforesaid who have been deranged by the regulations and arrangements of the army, &c. shall be entitled to land according to the pay and rank they last held, before they left the said service in the proportions laid down in the resolution appropriating donation lands: And whereas Robert Johnson alledges that he was regimental surgeon to the sixth regiment of the Pennsylvania line, from the commencement of the war and continued in that service and as physician until the year one thousand seven hundred and eighty-one, when in obedience to the orders of General Greene, the commander in chief, he was obliged to leave the regimental service in order to assist the wounded officers and soldiers of the American army, then prisoners in the British hospital in Charleston: And whereas it appears that Robert Johnson did not, nor could not forfeit any right or emolument to which he was otherwise entitled, by yielding obedience to the commander in chief in such an emergency, and that he continued in actual service till the end of the war with Great-Britain: Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,

The board of property authorised to examine the claims of doctor R. Johnson, &c. and to grant him a patent for land &c.

That the board of property be, and they hereby are authorised and required to examine the claims of Robert Johnson, formerly surgeon in the Pennsylvania line, and if the facts set forth in his petition appear to be well founded to the satisfaction of the board, they are hereby authorised to grant him a patent for land as a surgeon in the Pennsylvania line, any thing in in the act for the distribution of the donation land passed twenty-fourth March, one thousand seven hundred and eighty-five, to the contrary notwithstanding.
