CHAPTER CXI.

An ACT authorizing the State-Treasurer to transfer to certain individuals the Stock held by the State for their use in the Loan-Office of the United States.

WHEREAS by virtue of the powers vested in the treasurer of the commonwealth, under certain acts of Assembly, passed the thirtieth day of September, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-one, the fifth day of March one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and the fourteenth day of April one thousand seven seven hundred and ninety-four, he subscribed in the name of the commonwealth certain continental certificates which had been received from the United States in exchange for new loan certificates, stated to have been lost by Sarah Caldwell, John Thompson, Mary Beere, James Steene, Charles West, Thomas Butler, and Henry Brown, to a loan opened by congress under the act of the fourth day of August one thousand seven hundred and ninety, for the benefit of domestic creditors, in trust for the use of said persons: And whereas under certain other acts, passed the twenty-ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and two, and the twenty-ninth day of March one thousand eight hundred and three, a large part of said stock thus held in trust was transferred and paid over to Thomas Leiper, as executor to the estate of Sarah Caldwell, deceased; and as the retaining of the residue can be of no further advantage to the state than as security against the said lost certificates, and may be a disadvantage to the aforesaid persons or their representatives, who may desire to vest the property in other funds, or place it in trade: Therefore,

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state-treasurer, for the time being, shall, when so required by persons properly authorized, transfer or cause to be transferred the original amount of stock of the United States, held in trust as aforesaid, and also the dividend of two per cent. which the commonwealth has received thereon to the said John Thompson, Mary Beere, James Steene, Charles West, Thomas Butler and Henry Brown, respectively, or their

CHAPTER CXII.

An ACT to enable James Wallis to obtain a Title to a Lot of Land in the township of Charlestown, and county of Chester.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the legislature, that James Wallis did purchase of Llewelin Davis a lot of land, containing about one acre and sixty-five perches, situate in the township of Charlestown, in the county of Chester, and hath actually paid the full consideration for the same, according to the terms of an agreement made in the life-time of the said Llewelin Davis, who is since dead, by reason whereof he is deprived of the means of obtaining a title thereto; and as no written contract was made respecting the premises, he therefore
