CHAPTER XXVI.

An ACT enabling Anna Maria Hanke, the wife of Matthew Hanke, late Anna Maria Eyerly, widow and relict of Jacob Eyerly, junior, late of Nazareth in the county of Northampton, deceased, and administratrix de bonis non of the said Jacob Eyerly, junior, with the will annexed, to convey certain lands therein mentioned.

WHEREAS it satisfactorily appears to the legislature that Jacob Eyerly, junior, late of Nazareth in the county of Northampton, deceased, and George Huber of Bethlehem in the same county, blacksmith, were seized in fee as tenants in common, of a certain messuage, plantation and tract of land, situate, lying, and being on the West Branch of the river Delaware in Bethlehem township in the county aforesaid, adjoining lands late of Patrick Græme and Thomas Græme, and land of Caspar Wistar, containing five hundred and thirty acres and allowance, and also of a certain island in the said West Branch of Delaware, called Number Nine, lying opposite to the above described tract of land, and opposite to land now or late of Richard Freeman, on the southerly side of the said river, containing nine acres and one hundred and thirty perches, be the same more or less, together with the appurtenances to the said tract of land and island respectively belonging: That the said Jacob Eyerly, junior, and the said George Huber in the lifetime of the said Jacob Eyerly, sold and conveyed several parcels of the said described tract of five hundred and thirty acres of land and allowance, to divers citizens of Northampton county, and that the said Jacob Eyerly, junior, in his life-time, on or about the third day of July, in the year of our Lord, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, by writing signed by him in the presence of Daniel Kliest, esquire, now deceased, and of John Wagener of Bethlehem, who subscribed the same as witnesses to the execution thereof, agreed to convey and release to the said George Huber in fee-simple, all his, the said Jacob Eyerly's moiety, or undivided half part of the residue of the said described tract of land and of the island aforesaid; for the consideration of one thousand three hundred and forty-three pounds and thirteen shillings; but the said agreement has been unfortunately lost by the said George Huber, the same having not been recorded: That the said purchase money was paid by the said George Huber to the said Jacob Eyerly, but that the said Jacob Eyerly, junior, died on the eleventh day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand and eight hundred, without having conveyed and released to the said George Huber, his moiety of the residue of the said tract of land and of the said island, according to his agreement, and without having made provision for the performance of the said agreement by his last will and testament, or otherwise, the heirs of the said Jacob Eyerly being all minors: And it further appears that this case does not fall within the provisions of the acts of Assembly, empowering the supreme court and courts of common pleas to supply defects in the titles of lands occasioned by the loss of deeds or writings respecting the same, nor within the provisions of the acts of Assembly, made to enable executors and administrators, by leave of the court, to convey lands and tenements contracted for, with their decedents; and it is just and reasonable to grant relief in the premises: Therefore,

The Administratrix de bonis non, with the will annexed, of Jacob Eyerly, junr. empowered to convey in fee simple to George Huber of Northampton county, a certain piece of land situate in the county aforesaid; in performance of a contract made in the lifetime of the said Jacob Eyerly.

SECTION I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Anna Maria Hanke, late Anna Maria Eyerly, widow and relict of Jacob Eyerly, junior, late of Nazareth in the county of Northampton, deceased, administratrix de bonis non, with the will annexed of the said Jacob Eyerly, junior, be, and she is hereby authorized by a sufficient deed of conveyance in the law, to convey, release and assure to George Huber, of Bethlehem township, in the county of Northampton, blacksmith, his heirs and assigns, in fee-simple, all the right, title, interest, property and estate whatever, in law or in equity, of the said Jacob Eyerly, of, in and to the moiety or undivided half part of the unsold residue of a tract of five hundred and thirty acres of land and allowance, situate, lying, and being on the West branch of the river Delaware in Bethlehem township, in the county aforesaid, adjoining lands late of Patrick Græme and of Thomas Græme, and lands of Caspar Wistar, and also of a certain island in the said West branch of the river, called Number Nine, lying opposite to the above described tract of land, and opposite to land now or late of Richard Freeman, on the southerly side of said river, containing nine acres and one hundred and thirty perches, be the same more or less, together with the appurtenances to the said tract of land and island respectively belonging in pursuance and in performance of a contract or agreement for that purpose made and entered into by and between the said Jacob Eyerly, and the said George Huber, in the life-time of the said Jacob Eyerly, which deed shall be as effectual to all intents and purposes, to vest the premises in fee-simple in the said George Huber, as if the said Jacob Eyerly, junior, had fully complied with the said agreement, and conveyed the said premises to the said George Huber, in fee-simple in his life-time : Provided nevertheless, That before the said deed shall be executed, it shall satisfactorily appear to the president of the Orphans court of Northampton county, and to the said Anna Maria, that the whole of the consideration money therefor has been paid by the said George Huber, and the said agreement or contract on his part in all other respects fully satisfied and performed.

The consideration money must first satisfactorily appear to have been paid.
