

CHAPTER LII.

A SUPPLEMENT to an Act, entitled "An Act to enable the governor to incorporate a company for making an artificial road by the best and nearest route from the borough of York, to the Maryland line at the place the present York road passes the same, or as near thereto as the commissioners shall find expedient."

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the president, managers and company of the York and Maryland line turnpike road, may at any time hereafter extend the said road, from the north end thereof along George-street, in the borough of York, by paving the same to the intersection thereof with High-street, at the court-house: Provided however, That the said company shall not erect a gate or gates within one mile of the borough of York, for the purpose of receiving or collecting toll.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the true meaning and intent of that clause, in the fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement, by which the said company are "entitled to like tolls and profits as are given and granted to the president, managers and company of the Susquehanna and York borough turnpike road;" is that the president, managers and company of the York and Maryland line turnpike road, shall be entitled to like tolls and profits as are given to the president, managers and company of the Susquehanna and York borough turnpike road, in proportion to the respective distances of the same: And the president, managers and company of the York and Maryland line turnpike, are hereby authorized and permitted to erect a gate or gates as soon as five or more miles of the said road shall be finished and completed according to the provisions of the act to which this is a supplement, and to receive toll for travelling on the same.
