

and Saint James's church, or either of them, and also exclusive of the monies arising from opening the ground for burials in the church yards belonging to the said churches, or either of them.

SECT. V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed so as in any manner to affect, impair or alter the aforesaid charter granted by the former proprietaries of Pennsylvania, in any other matter or thing than what is herein before enacted, but that the said charter in all matters and respects not herein before altered or provided, shall be firm and valid forever.

This act not to impair a former charter.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER LXXV.

An ACT concerning the education of German Redemptioners, who are minors.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all masters or mistresses of German redemptioners who are minors, and who shall arrive at the port of Philadelphia after the passing of this act, shall give to the said redemptioner six weeks schooling for every year of his or her term of servitude: And it shall be the duty of the register of German passengers, to insert the same fully in their indentures.

Schooling to be given to German redemptioners.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER LXXVI.

An ACT to provide for the payment of the taxes due on lands late the property of John Nicholson, deceased, on which the state had a lien.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General

Commissioners to make a statement of taxes accrued and unpaid on lands late of John Nicholson, previous to the sale thereof. And transmit the same to the auditor general. Who shall draw his warrant for the amount found due.

Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same.
That the commissioners of the respective counties within this commonwealth, be, and they are hereby directed to make out under their hands and seals of office, a schedule or statement of the amount of taxes which may have occurred previous to the respective sales of the lands (by the commissioners appointed for that purpose,) of the late John Nicholson on which the state had a lien, (where such taxes remain unpaid,) and transmit the same to the auditor-general of this commonwealth, who is hereby directed to audit and settle the same agreeably to an act of this commonwealth, passed the fourth of April, one thousand eight hundred and five, and an act passed the thirty-first of March, one thousand eight hundred and six; and after having so settled and ascertained the amount of taxes due as aforesaid, he shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer for such amount, to be paid out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated.

Purchasers of said lands having paid such taxes, shall be allowed therefor.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid,
That where any person or persons, having purchased such lands from the commissioners aforesaid, and since that time paid the aforesaid described taxes, or any part thereof, that on such person producing a receipt from the treasurer of the proper county, for the payment of the same, the state treasurer is hereby directed to deduct the amount of such taxes so paid, out of the amount of the purchase money due the commonwealth from said purchases; and in case no money appears to be due the commonwealth from such purchase, then and in that case, the state treasurer is hereby directed to pay to such person such taxes so paid as aforesaid.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the nineteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ten.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER LXXVII.

An ACT exonerating, on certain conditions, William Wallace from the obligations of settlement and residence on certain lands therein mentioned.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same,
That William Wallace of the borough of Erie, the purchaser of tracts number twelve, thirteen, fourteen and fifteen, of the

William Wallace exonerated