CHAPTER XLIX.

An ACT to remedy a defect in the title of Jacob C. Welper to certain lots in the town of Berwick, in the county of Luzerne, and in the borough of Easton, in the county of Northampton.

WHEREAS it appears to the legislature that Jacob C. Welper, a native of Germany, emigrated to the state of Pennsylvania on the twentieth of July, one thousand eight hundred and six, and has since declared his intention of becoming a citizen of the United States: That on the twenty-third day of May, one thousand eight hundred and nine, he purchased from

Sebastian Seybert, junior, two lots in the town of Berwick; Luzerne county, marked in the plan of said town, numbers twenty-three and twenty-four: That he also purchased of Michael Opp, a certain piece of ground situate in the borough of Easton, in the county of Northampton, being lot marked in the plan of said borough, number two hundred and forty-nine, and part of lot number two hundred and forty-five, containing in front ninety-seven feet, and in depth two hundred and twenty feet, by deed dated December twenty-seven, one thousand eight hundred and nine, and that in consequence of his being an alien, his titles to the aforesaid lots are defective; Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the said

Jacob C. Welper an alien entitled
to hold, in fee,
certain lots and parts of lots in Luzerne and Northampton counties.

Jacob C. Welper shall have and hold to himself, his heirs and assigns, two lots marked numbers twenty-three and twenty-four, situate in the town of Berwick, Luzerne county, and also the lot marked number two hundred and forty-nine, and part of lot marked number two hundred and forty-five, situate in the borough of Easton, Northampton county, containing in front ninety-seven feet, and in depth two hundred and twenty feet, in the same manner and for the same estate he would have been entitled thereto had he been a citizen of this commonwealth at the time of his purchase of the aforesaid lots; Provided always, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to bar or defeat any person or persons of any right, title or interest, which they may lawfully have, in or to the said lots of ground or any part or parts thereof.

proviso.
