CHAPTER LI.

An ACT for the relief of Frederick Hake.

WHEREAS a warrant was granted to Jacob Hake on the seventeenth September, one thousand seven hundred and sixty-six, for two hundred acres of land in Manchester township, in the county of York, and by an entry made in the books of the land-office it is stated that the land was situated in the manor of Springetsbury, and charged at the rate of sixty pounds per hundred acres; but it has since been found that the said land was not within the said manor, that lands not included therein were at that time charged at fifteen pounds ten shillings per hundred acres, and that the officers of the land-office have no authority to grant relief in this case; Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the secretary of the land-office be, and he is hereby authorized to make settlement of the amount due on the quantity of land returned into the surveyor-general's office on said warrant, charging for the same at the rate of fifteen pounds ten shillings per hundred acres, upon payment of which with the interest due thereon by Frederick Hake and his producing a legal title to said land, a patent shall be issued to him, his heirs or assigns, for the same.

Secretary of the land-office to make a settlement with Frederick Hake and upon certain conditions to issue a patent to him for certain lands in York county.

JOHN WEBER, Speaker
