SECT. IV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said stockholders shall meet on the first Monday in May in every succeeding year at such place as shall be fixed by the rules and orders of the said company, to be made as aforesaid, for the purpose of choosing such officers as aforesaid for the ensuing year.

First meeting to be held on the first Monday in May; times of meeting thereafter to be directed by the company.

SECT. V. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the president and directors first to be chosen as aforesaid, shall procure certificates to be written or printed, for all shares of stock of the said company, and shall deliver one such certificate, signed by the president and countersigned by the treasurer, and sealed with the seal of the corporation, to each person for every share by him or her subscribed or held, upon payment to the treasurer in part of the sum due thereon, the sum of five dollars for each share, which certificate shall be transferable at such person's pleasure, in person or by attorney, in presence of the president or treasurer, subject however to the payments due and that may grow due thereupon; and the assignee holding any certificate having first caused the assignment to be entered in a book of the company to be kept for that purpose, shall be a member of the corporation and for every certificate so held shall be entitled to one share of the capital stock and of all the estates and emoluments of the company, and to vote as aforesaid at the meetings thereof.

Form of certificates of stock;

and how transferable.

SECT. VI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and directors on their being chosen in the first instance, shall call a meeting of the stockholders, and that meeting may appoint five of their number to examine and report the most eligible place or places for building the bridge, and to treat with any body or bodies politic or corporate or individuals, for the purchase of their respective rights, or any of them, to the place or places deemed eligible; and when the said place or places and terms on which it or they can be purchased, are so reported, the said stockholders or a majority of those met may fix on the place and terms or may at any time agree to leave the determination both on place and terms to the president and directors.

Five members to form a quorum.

SECT. VII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president and directors shall meet at such times and places, and be convened in such manner as shall be agreed on for transacting their business, at such meetings five members shall be a quorum who, in the absence of the president, may choose a chairman, and shall keep minutes of all their transactions fairly entered in a book; and shall have full power and authority to agree with and appoint such engineers, superintendants, and artists, and other officers as they shall think necessary to carry on the said bridge, and to fix their salaries and other wages; to ascertain the times, manner and proportions, in which the stockholders shall pay the money due on their respective shares, in order to carry on their work; to draw orders on the treasury for all monies, to pay the salaries or wages of persons by them employed, and for the materials and labour done and provided, which shall be signed by the president or in his absence by a majority of a quorum; and to do and transact all other such acts, matters and things, as by the by-laws, orders and regulations, of the company shall be committed to them; and the said president, directors and company, shall, within the space of ten years, erect or cause to be erected, in a permanent and workmanlike manner, a good substantial bridge, of wood, iron, or such other materials as to them shall seem adequate and proper, over the said river Susquehanna at the place fixed on as herein mentioned, the said bridge to consist of one or more arch or arches, with stone abutments, and one or more pier or piers, if necessary, to be at least fifteen feet wide.

Keep a record of their proceedings. Power to appoint engineers, &c. and fix wages and salaries, &c.

Bridge to be erected within ten years. Its construction.

Penalty on stockholders neglecting to make payment at the time prescribed.

SECT. VIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if any stockholder after thirty days notice in four public newspapers printed at the places mentioned in the first section of this act, of the time and place appointed for the payment of any portion or dividend of the said capital stock, shall neglect to pay such proportion at the time so appointed, and for the space of forty days thereafter, every such stockholder or his assignee shall, in addition to the dividend so called, pay at the rate of five per centum per month for every delay of such payment, after the expiration of the said forty days; and if the same and the said additional penalties shall remain unpaid for such space of time that the accumulated penalties shall become equal to the sums before paid on account of such shares, the same shall be forfeited to the company aforesaid, and may and shall be sold by them to any other person or persons willing to purchase for the best price that can be obtained therefor.

In what cases the shares may be forfeited.

President and directors to keep their accounts, &c.

SECT. IX. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the president and directors of the said company shall keep fair and just accounts of all monies received by them from the commissioners, and from the subscribers to the said undertakings, and of all penalties for delay in the payment thereof, and of the amount of the profits on shares that may be forfeited as aforesaid, and of all voluntary contributions and other monies received for or on account of the erecting or freeing the said bridge; and also of all monies by them expended in the prosecution of the said work; and shall at least once in every year submit such accounts to a general meeting of the stockholders until the said bridge be completed, and until all the costs, charges and expenses, for effecting the same, shall be fully paid and discharged, and the aggregate amount of all such expenses shall be liquidated and ascertained; and if upon such liquidation, or whenever the whole capital stock of the company shall be nearly expended, it shall be found that the said capital stock is not sufficient to complete the said bridge according to the true intent and meaning of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the said president, directors and company, at stated or special meetings to be convened according to the provisions of this act or their own by-laws, to increase the number of shares to such extent as shall be deemed sufficient to accomplish the work, and to demand and receive the monies subscribed for such shares, in like manner and under the like penalties as are herein before provided for the original subscription; and if after the said bridge is completed, it shall be found that more monies remain in the hands of the treasurer than are necessary for the payment of all charges and expenses incurred in and about the erecting of the said bridge, the surplus shall be returned as part of the dividend due and payable to the stockholders respectively.

And submit the same annually to the stockholders.

If the capital stock be inadequate, mode of increasing it.

Surplus, if any, to be returned to stockholders.

SECT. x. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That when a good and complete bridge is erected over the said river Susquehanna, at or near M'Call's ferry at the place deemed most convenient as herein before mentioned, the property of the said bridge shall be vested in the said president, directors and company, and their successors, during and unto the end of fifty years, to commence from the time when the bridge is completed; and the said president, directors and company, and their successors, may demand and receive toll from travellers and others, agreeably to the following rates, which shall be written or printed, and published or placed on or near the said bridge for the information of passengers; to wit, for every coach, barouch, coachee, landau, phaeton or other pleasurable carriage, with four wheels, drawn by four horses, the sum of one dollar; and so in proportion if more horses are added; and for the same carriage with two horses, sixty-two and a half cents; for every loaded waggon with four horses, one dollar; and in proportion if more horses toll be not thought more eligible for keeping the bridge in repair; but if the said bridge shall not be redeemed and paid for as a free bridge before or at the expiration of the said term of fifty years, the said corporation may and shall continue to hold the same on the terms of this act beyond the said term, and until the same shall be redeemed and paid for in manner herein directed.

But if not redeemed, corporation to continue.

SECT. XI. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the said president, directors and company or their successors or any person by their authority shall collect or demand any greater rates or prices for passing over the said bridge than what are herein before prescribed and specified, or shall neglect to keep the said bridge in good repair on ten days notice given by or from any magistrate of either of the counties of Lancaster or York, they shall for every such offence forfeit and pay the sum of thirty dollars, one moiety thereof for the use of the poor, and the other moiety for the use of the person who may sue for the same; Provided always, That no suit or action shall be brought unless within thirty days after such offence shall have been committed.

Penalty for exacting illegal tolls, or for not keeping it in repair.

Before whom recovered and how appropriated.

Proviso.

SECT. XII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said president, directors and company shall also keep a just and true account of all monies received by their several respective collectors of tolls for crossing the said bridge; and shall make and declare a dividend of the profits and income thereof among all the stockholders, deducting first therefrom all contingent costs and charges, and such proportions of the said income as may be deemed necessary for the growing fund to provide against the decay and for the re-building and repairing the said bridge, and shall on the first Mondays in May or November of every year publish the dividend to be made of the said clear profits thereof among the stockholders, and of the time and place where and when the same shall be paid and shall cause the same to be paid accordingly.

Accounts of tolls to be kept and dividends made.

On the first Mondays in May, or November, publish the dividends.

And when and where they shall be paid.

SECT. XIII. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid; That the said president and directors shall, at the end of or within three years from the date of the incorporation and within every third year thereafter, lay before the general assembly of this commonwealth, an abstract of their accounts showing the whole of the capital expended in the prosecution of the said work, and of the income and profits arising from the said bridge for and during the respective periods, together with an exact account of the costs and charges of keeping the said bridge in repair, and all other contingent costs and charges, to the end that the clear annual income and profits thereof may be ascertained.

Abstract of accounts to be triennially exhibited to the legislature.

SECT. XIV. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the said company shall not proceed to carry on the said work within the space of five years after they have been in-
