

CHAPTER XXXVI.

An ACT supplementary to an act, entitled "An act to incorporate the Western Missionary society."

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the funds of the said corporation shall be extended to the important objects of distributing bibles, and other religious books gratis, and sending missionaries to preach the gospel in such places as are destitute of the means of religious instruction, and for the education and instruction of any of the Indian tribes, in such manner as the said society may think proper.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so much of the act to which this is a supplement, as is hereby altered or supplied, be and the same is hereby repealed.

JOHN TOD, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER XXXVII.

An ACT to enable William Scott, and John Galloway, administrators, with the will annexed, to the estate of Archibald Scott, deceased, to sell and convey a certain tract of land therein mentioned.

WHEREAS it appears that Archibald Scott, late of east Huntingdon township, Westmoreland county, on the seventh day of December, one thousand eight hundred and four, duly made and published his last will and testament, and therein did order his plantation to be sold by his executors, for the best price to be gotten for it ; and that the monies thence arising, should be appropriated for the maintenance of his widow, the support and education of his children ; some of whom are yet minors ; that the said testator died without nominating any executors of said testament ; that said Archibald Scott, at, and immediately before his decease, was seized in fee of a certain plantation, situate in the township and county aforesaid, containing one hundred and twenty-six acres, more or less, and which is the same plantation directed by his will to be sold : and it further appears that William Scott and John Galloway, became administrators, with the will annexed, of the said Archibald Scott, deceased : and whereas, the said administrators have represented to the legislature, that although the circumstances of the family, as well as the directions given in the will, require a sale to be