CHAPTER XLII.

An ACT for the relief of Robert Coleman and Cyrus Jacobs.

WHEREAS the commissioners appointed to sell the lands of the late John Nicholson, on which the commonwealth had a lien, notwithstanding the act under which the sales were to be made, directed that said lands, should be sold in the county, in which the same were situated, did sell in the borough of Lancaster, lands, which are situate in the county of Berks, whereby the purchasers, were prevented, contrary to the intentions of the legislature, from having a convenient opportunity at the time of sale, to examine the county records, or correctly learn the title: And whereas, Robert Coleman and Cyrus Jacobs, purchased a tract, so sold, on which it appears there was a lien, under mortgage to Isaac Snowden, prior to the lien of the commonwealth, for so large a sum of money, that the commonwealth could have no interest therein: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state-treasurer, be and he is hereby directed to pass the monies paid by Robert Coleman and Cyrus Jacobs, on certain lands in the county of Berks, which they purchased at the sale of the property of John Nicholson, to the credit of them or either of them, on other purchases made at said sale.

Certain monies to be credited to Robert Coleman and Cyrus Jacobs.

JOHN TOD, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.
