CHAPTER CXLV.

An ACT to dissolve the marriage contract between Jacob Zinn, junior, and Eve his wife.

WHEREAS it appears that Jacob Zinn, junior, was married to a certain Eve Ermel, on the fifteenth day of November, one thousand eight hundred and eight, and that the said marriage took place in consequence of the said Eve having taken an oath before Henry Reim, esq. of Lancaster county, on the eleventh day of November, in said year, charging the said Jacob with being the father of a child, with which she was then pregnant, it further appears that the said Eve did on the seventh day of the same month, of the same year, appear before Peter Nagle, esquire, of Berks county, and on her oath did declare and say, that Jacob Sando was the father of a child of which she was then pregnant, from all which it appears that the said Jacob Zinn was by intimidation and fear, and in the years of his minority, under the age of eighteen years, compelled to enter into the marriage contract, contrary to his own free will and consent, and in consequence of the oath of a person, which in the nature thereof cannot be true : Therefore,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the marriage contract entered into between Jacob Zinn, junior, and Eve Zinn, his wife, be, and the same is hereby declared to be null and void, and the parties to the same are hereby set free from the same and enabled to contract marriage with any person or persons, in the same manner as they could have done if no prior marriage contract had ever existed.

Marriage contract of J. and E. Zinn dissolved.

JOHN TOD, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the thirty-first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER CXLVI.

An ACT enabling Henry Manifold and Andrew Clarkson, of York county, to make and execute a deed of conveyance for a certain tract of land.

BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Henry Manifold, and Andrew Clarkson, of Chanceford township, in the county of York, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered to make and execute, a sufficient deed or deeds of conveyance, to William Douglass of said county, for a tract of land sold as the property of Joseph Manifold, a lunatic; which deed or deeds of conveyance shall be as good and valid in law, to all intents and purposes, as if the said Joseph Manifold had sold and conveyed the same while of sound mind and memory; Provided, that the said Henry Manifold, and Andrew Clarkson, shall, before they proceed to convey the estate of the said Joseph

Committee of Joseph Manifold, a lunatic, authorized to sell his real estate.

To enter into recognizance, &c.
