CHAPTER CLXXXIX.

A SUPPLEMENT to an act, entitled "An act establishing an academy in the borough of Gettysburgh, in the county of Adams, and granting a sum of money thereto."

WHEREAS it has been represented, that in pursuance of an act, entitled "An act establishing an academy in the borough of Gettysburgh, in the county of Adams, and granting a sum of money thereto;" passed the ninth day of March, anno Domini one thousand eight hundred and ten, the trustees held several meetings and appointed their officers; that an order was drawn on the state treasurer, in favour of the treasurer of the institution, signed by six members of the board, for the sum of two thousand dollars, granted by the aforesaid law, on which payment has been refused by the state treasurer, on the ground that the order was not signed by five of the trustees originally named in the law, and in order that the laudable views of the legislature may be carried into effect,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the state treasurer be, and he hereby is authorized to pay to the treasurer of the Gettysburgh academy, the sum granted by the law to which this is a supplement, on the order or orders of any five of the trustees duly and legally appointed, or their successors in office, and to be applied under their direction, one thousand dollars thereof in the erection of a building or buildings suitable for the accommodation of the institution, and the purchasing of books, mathematical instruments, and the necessary philosophical apparatus, and the remaining one thousand dollars shall be placed in some safe productive fund or funds, and the income thereof forever applied in aid of other revenues to compensate a teacher or teachers in said academy, for instructing youth in the higher grades of English education, the learned languages, useful arts, sciences and literature.

State treasurer to pay to the treasurer of Gettysburgh academy, a sum of money.
 How to be expended.

JOHN TOD, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.
 P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.
