

CHAPTER VI.

An ACT supplementary to an act, entitled, "An act to extend the powers of the Gettysburg and Petersburg turnpike company, and to enable the governor to incorporate a company to make an artificial road from a point near Gallagher's saw mill, to the borough of Chambersburg."

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That so soon as the Gettysburg and Petersburg turnpike company shall have perfected an artificial road from the court-house, in the borough of Gettysburg, to the German church on the lands of Jacob Middlekauff, the president and managers of said company, or a majority of them, shall give notice thereof to the governor, who shall thereupon forthwith nominate and appoint three disinterested persons to view and examine the same, and to report to him in writing, whether the said road is so far executed in a masterly and workmanlike manner, according to the true intent and meaning of the act, to which this is a supplement; and if the report shall be in the affirmative, then the governor shall by license under his hand and the less seal of the commonwealth, permit the said company to erect a gate or turnpike on and across that part of the road which shall be reported to him to be finished in the manner aforesaid, and to receive the like tolls and profits in proportion to the distance, as are given to them by the act of assembly under which they were incorporated.

Governor to appoint three persons to view and examine, &c.

The governor to license and permit said company to erect gates, &c.

JOHN TOD, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-second day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER VII.

An ACT to revive and continue certain acts therein mentioned relative to the patenting of land.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all the provisions of the act entitled, "An act relating to the patenting of land," passed the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and ten, shall be and the same hereby are continued until the first day of January, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, and no longer:

The extension of time for patenting lands.
