

CHAPTER XIX.

An ACT to continue an act, entitled, "An act to incorporate the Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the act, entitled "An act to incorporate the Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania," passed the eighteenth day of April, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-four, and the supplement thereto, passed the fifth day of March, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, be, and the same are hereby continued in full force and virtue, and in all their parts, (except the clause of limitation in the original act,) for the term of twenty years, from and after the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen, as if the present period of extension were part of the above recited act: provided, that if it shall appear, that the charter and privileges hereby renewed, are injurious to the citizens of this commonwealth, the legislature shall have full power to revoke and cancel them, at any time they may think proper:

The act incorporating the Pennsylvania Insurance company, and its supplements, extended twenty years.

JOHN TOD, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER XX.

An ACT to enable the executors of William Ball, deceased, to release certain lots from the payment of rents charge.

WHEREAS William Ball, late of the city of Philadelphia, died seized of divers yearly rents charge, issuing out of lots in the county of Philadelphia, extinguishable by the payment of certain sums of money mentioned in the deeds of conveyance of the said lots, and the tenants are desirous to extinguish the same; but the executors of the said William, are not, by his last will and testament, empowered to release the said lots from the payment of said rents charge: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Joseph Ball, John Hewston, and Joseph L. Ingles, executors of the last will and testament of William Ball, deceased, or the survivors or survivor of them, be, and they or he are or shall be authorized and empowered to execute releases of the rent charges

Executors of William Ball, authorized to release rent-charges on certain lots in Philadelphia county.