

CHAPTER LVI.

An ACT granting certain privileges to the mayor, aldermen, and citizens of Philadelphia, in relation to the highways, streets, and roads of Penn township, in the county of Philadelphia.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, it shall and may be lawful for the mayor, aldermen and citizens of Philadelphia, to make use of any of the public highways, streets and roads of Penn township, in the county of Philadelphia, for the purpose of laying down (re-laying) and repairing of conduit pipes, and the usual and necessary devices connected with the same, for supplying the city of Philadelphia, and the adjoining districts with water: provided always, that the laying, re-laying and repairing of the said conduit pipes, and the usual and necessary devices connected therewith, shall be done in such manner as not to obstruct the passage of the said highways, streets or roads, and that all damage or injury which may ensue to the said highways, streets or roads, from the exercise of the privilege hereby granted, shall be repaired by the said corporation at its own proper costs.

Mayer and aldermen authorized to use certain streets for laying down and repairing conduit pipes, &c.

Proviso that the public streets, &c. be not obstructed.

And repair damages.

JOHN TOD, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the sixteenth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.
