CHAPTER CLIII.

An ACT to enable Michael Crow, administrator with the will annexed, of John Huhn, deceased, to sell and convey a certain tract of land and mills therein mentioned.

WHEREAS it appears that John Huhn, late of Springhill township, Fayette county, on the twentieth day of October, one thousand eight hundred and three, duly made and published his last will and testament, and therein did order his mills and plantation which he then possessed and occupied, to be sold as soon after his decease as could be conveniently done either at public or private sale as his executors, should think most advantageous to his heirs, and the monies thence arising to be appropriated, as directed by the said will; but if the said John should die leaving a widow, then the mills and plantation aforesaid, not to be sold during her life, that the said testator died leaving no widow, and without nominating any executors of his said testament seized in fee of the said mills and plantation, situate in the township and county aforesaid, and that Michael Crow became the administrator with the will annexed of the said John Huhn, deceased; and whereas, by reason of the said testator having neglected to nominate and appoint executors of his said last will and testament, no sale can be made of the mills and plantation, aforesaid, agreeably to the will and order of the testator: For remedy whereof,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Michael Crow, administrator with the will annexed of John Huhn, late of Springhill township, Fayette county, deceased, is hereby authorized and empowered to sell and convey for the highest and best price that can be had for the same, the mills and plantation mentioned by the said John Huhn, in his last will and testament, and thereby by him directed to be sold, and to make such deed or deeds or other conveyance as shall be sufficient to secure to the purchaser or purchasers all the right, title, interest and estate, which the said John Huhn had in his life time, and at the time of his decease, in and to the same and every part thereof, and that the monies arising therefrom shall be appropriated and disposed of, according to the directions of the last will and testament of the said John Huhn.

Michael Crow to sell the property of John Huhn, deceased, for the best price that can be had for the same.

And make a deed to the purchaser thereof.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the said Michael Crow shall, before he proceeds to sell and convey the said mills and plantation enter into recognizance with sufficient sureties before the orphans' court of the county of Fayette, conditioned for the faithful execution of the trust in him confided and for the performance of the powers hereby granted.

Michael Crow to enter into recognizance before the sale, &c.

CHAPTER CLIV.

An ACT dissolving the marriage of Michael Miller and Catharine Miller.

WHEREAS it appears to the legislature that Michael Miller, of the township of Guildford, county of Franklin, and state of Pennsylvania, was on the eighth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and three, joined in matrimony with a certain Catharine Rock of the same county with whom he lived and cohabited until the eighth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and eleven, and during which time they had three children, and that the said Catharine, regardless of the laws and her matrimonial vows did conduct herself in a manner irregular and unbecoming a wife, and on the said eighth day of July, did elope in company with a married man from her said husband and three small children, and has not since lived or cohabited with her said husband; and that it further appears that the said Michael did demean himself as a good and kind husband, and is reputed a man of good morals and truth, and is desirous that the marriage of him and the said Catharine be dissolved by the legislature of the state, and it being just and reasonable that relief should be afforded: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That
