CHAPTER CLXVI.

An ACT for the relief of sundry landholders in the manor of Springetsbury, in the county of York.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this legislature, that divers persons holding lands in the manor of Springetsbury, by warrants dated prior to the year one thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, did since that time pay into the land office of this commonwealth, the arrearages due on their said lands, and took out patents for the same; and others took out warrants for vacancies and lands held by settlement rights, and paid for the same into the land office of this commonwealth; since which time it has been decided in the circuit court of the United States, that the title of the said manor of Springetsbury is in the proprietors and not in this commonwealth, whereby the said patentees and warrantees are deprived of deriving any advantage from the payment of the aforesaid money for their said patents and warrants; Therefore,

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the deputy surveyor of York county be authorized and required to ascertain from the books and surveys, or otherwise, in his office at the expense of the holders, what tracts or parts of tracts of land in the manor of Springetsbury have been patented under this commonwealth, and also what warrants which have issued out of the land office of this commonwealth have been executed on land within the bounds of the said manor of Springetsbury, and certify the same to the surveyor general as soon as may be; whereupon the board of property shall ascertain the said several sums of money which have been paid into the land office on account of the aforesaid patents and warrants, together with interest thereon from the time of the said payment or payments, and certify to the auditor general the amount and by whom paid; whereupon the auditor general is hereby authorized and required to draw his warrant on the Duty of the deputy surveyor of York county.

Board of property to certify to the auditor general, &c.

Who is authorized to draw his warrant, &c.
