

ACTS

OF THE

General Assembly of Pennsylvania.

CHAPTER I.

An ACT providing for the payment of that part of the direct tax of the United States which was apportioned to this state.

WHEREAS it was enacted by the seventh section of the law of the United States which was passed on the second day of August last, entitled, "An act to lay and collect a direct tax within the United States," that each state may pay its quota into the treasury of the United States, and that a deduction of fifteen per centum should be allowed to each state which should pay its quota prior to the tenth day of February next, provided that each state intending to pay, should give notice of such intention to the secretary of the treasury of the United States, one month prior to the day of payment: Therefore,

SECT. I. Be it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the sum of three hundred and ten thousand six hundred and fifty seven dollars, and thirty cents, being the nett amount of the quota of this state of the direct tax of the United States, be and the same is hereby appropriated and reserved out of any unappropriated monies in the treasury, for the payment of the said quota, as authorized by the act of the congress of the United States, passed on the second day of August last.

Direct tax of this state, to be paid to the U. S. out of the treasury.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the governor of this commonwealth be and he is here-

Notice to be given to the secretary of the treasury of the U. S. of said provision.

by authorized to cause notice to be given to the secretary of the treasury of the United States, one month prior to the tenth day of February next, that this commonwealth will, prior to that day, pay its quota of the direct tax into the treasury of the United States, in such manner as the secretary thereof may direct.

Treasurer of this state, required to pay said tax,

SECT. III. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the treasurer of this commonwealth, be and he is hereby required to pay the sum hereinbefore appropriated and reserved into the treasury of the United States, prior to the tenth day of February next, in such manner as the secretary thereof may direct; and in order that this duty may be the more readily executed, the state treasurer is hereby directed to perform it under the advice, and after a previous arrangement with the governor of this commonwealth as to the mode of execution.

and in what manner.

ROBERT SMITH, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

P. C. LANE, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twentieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER II.

An ACT for the relief of Arthur St. Clair.

Board of enquiry to place Arthur St. Clair on the pension books.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the board of enquiry established by the act entitled, "an act for the relief of disabled, aged and poor revolutionary officers and soldiers," passed the twenty-fifth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, be and they or any two of them are hereby directed, to place Arthur St. Clair, late a Major General in the army of the United States, on the pension book opened by them in their offices respectively, and allow him an annuity not exceeding the one fourth of his pay according to the rank he held at the time he left the service, to continue during life, payable half yearly, and also an additional sum, equal to one year's annuity to be paid at the time of making the decree.

His annuity to be allowed.

Additional annuity.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the act entitled, "an act for the relief of Arthur St. Clair," passed the fourth day of February one thousand Former act rev. p. a. l. d.