CHAPTER CXLVII.

An ACT to authorize the executors of John Hawk, deceased, to convey a tract of land in East Pennsborough township, in the county of Cumberland.

WHEREAS it is represented to the legislature by the petition of Magdalena Hawk, executrix, and Martin Renninger, executor of the last will and testament of John Hawk, late of the township of East Pennsborough, in the county of Cumberland, deceased, that a certain George Graham conveyed a tract of land situate in said township and county to John Orr, of said township, now deceased, in fee simple, although it was intended by both parties that the use should still remain in the grantor aforesaid: and that the said John Orr conveyed the whole of said land to the above named testator and George Hawk, who afterwards divided the same between them, when in fact it was expressly agreed between the contracting parties last mentioned, that thirty-three acres and fifty-three perches should be reserved out of that part of the land which fell to the share of said testator to the said John Orr in trust, and for the use and benefit of the said George Graham, and that the said reserved land never was in possession of said testator, but held by said trustee for the purposes aforesaid. And it is further represented that said testator made no provision in his life time for re-conveying the same to the said George Graham, and as by the existing laws of this commonwealth no authority vests in the executrix and executor aforesaid to make said conveyance: Therefore,

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Magdalena Hawk, executrix, and Martin Renninger, executor, of the will and last testament of John Hawk, deceased, are hereby authorized to make and execute a good and sufficient title to George Graham, his heirs, and assigns, for thirty-three acres and fifty-three perches of land, situate in East Pennsborough township, in the county of Cumberland, which title shall be as good and available in law as if it had been made by the said John Hawk in his life time. Provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be understood to injure or prejudice the right of any other person or persons.

The executors of John Hawk to convey certain estate.

Proviso.

CHAPTER CXLVIII.

An ACT to authorize the accountant officers of this commonwealth to open their accounts with William Henderson, late treasurer of Montgomery county.

WHEREAS it is represented to the legislature that William Henderson was appointed treasurer of the county of Montgomery, for the years eighteen hundred and one two and three, and on the final settlement of his accounts, found that the several returns made by the commissioners of the exempts during the said term, were eleven hundred and seventy dollars and nineteen cents more than he actually received from the collectors in charging him with debits that had been allowed by them, and that he is now barred by the act of limitation to obtain redress; Therefore,

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in general assem-
