

till other officers shall be chosen; and may make such by-laws, rules, orders and regulations, not inconsistent with the laws of the United States, or of this state, as shall be necessary for the well-ordering the affairs of the company, and generally have like powers, authorities and privileges necessary for carrying on and completing the said turnpike road, and be subject to all the duties, qualifications, restrictions, penalties, fines and forfeitures, and be entitled to like tolls and profits, in proportion to the distance, as are given and granted to the president, managers and company of the Easton and Wilkesbarre turnpike road: Provided, That the said president and managers shall not be compelled to cut more than twelve feet in width in such parts of the same as may lead through solid rocks, nor more than twenty feet in other difficult passes: And provided also, That no toll shall be demanded or taken from any person passing from one part of his or her farm to another part thereof, or to or from any place of worship, funeral, mill, school, election, or training: And be it further provided, That if the company shall not proceed to carry on the said works in four years, or shall not within ten years thereafter complete the said road, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, then in either of these cases, all and singular the rights, liberties and franchises hereby granted to the said company, shall revert to this commonwealth.

By-laws.
Similar privileges to the Easton and Wilkesbarre turnpike.
Proviso.
2nd proviso.

SECT. v. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That as soon as the said company shall have completed five miles or more of the said road, the president and directors shall give notice thereof to the governor, who shall thereupon forthwith appoint three disinterested persons to examine the same, and report to him whether the road is executed in a sufficient and workman-like manner, and if their report shall be in the affirmative, then the governor shall, by licence under his hand and seal of the commonwealth, permit the president and managers to erect and fix such and so many gates or turnpikes upon or across the said road, as will be necessary and sufficient to collect the tolls which the company shall be entitled to demand and receive.

5 miles being completed tolls may be taken.
