

CHAPTER XCVIII.

An ACT authorizing the board of property to decide on a certain caveat.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to the legislature, that the board of property have dismissed a caveat entered by Samuel Bowman and Mary Bowman, v. s. John Bigler, in consequence of the land in dispute being formerly a part of the channel of Conodoguinet creek, in Cumberland county, which, by an act of assembly passed March the fifth, one thousand eight hundred and four, was declared a public highway: Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the board of property be, and they are hereby authorized to decide on the aforesaid caveat, as they shall think just and right, as fully as though the aforesaid piece of land had not been a part of the channel of said creek: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall prejudice the title of any other person or persons.

JACOB HOLGATE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

JOHN TOD, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the eleventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and fifteen.

SIMON SNYDER.

CHAPTER XCIX.

An ACT authorizing a loan of money to colonel Rees Hill.

WHEREAS, in the year one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, colonel Rees Hill, of Greene county, then commanding a regiment of Pennsylvania militia in the service of the United States, marched to Lower Sandusky, and performed a tour of duty without being furnished, by government, with sufficient pecuniary resources, in consequence of which he had to advance considerable sums of money, that have not yet been repaid to him: Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the sum of two thousand four hundred dollars be loaned to colonel Rees Hill, to be paid to him on a warrant drawn by the governor, out of any money in the treasury, the said colonel Rees Hill first giving bond and security to the governor for the re-payment thereof, as soon as he shall be remunerated for the advances made by him to his officers and men, and other military expenditures while in the service of the United States, in the year one thousand eight