

CHAPTER LV.

A SUPPLEMENT to the act, entitled "An act appropriating certain militia fines to the improvement of public roads."

Application of certain militia fines to repairing roads.

SECT. I. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the commissioners of the several counties within the sixteenth division of the militia of this commonwealth, be, and they are hereby required to apply all militia fines belonging to this commonwealth, which may have been imposed on individuals within said division, for neglecting or refusing to march when required, to the frontier of this commonwealth, under the orders of major general Meade, and those who refused to march under the orders of general Kelso, to the improvement of such public roads, and to the repairs or erection of such public bridges, in each and every county where such fines may have been recoverable, as may appear most to the advantage of the citizens of such county, or the public generally.

Fines collected to be paid over to county treasurer.

SECT. II. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That any person or persons who may have received or collected any such fines, and who have not paid the same over to the respective county treasurer, are hereby required to make such payment, without delay, for the purpose aforesaid; and any delinquent, who shall neglect or refuse to pay any such fine or fines, on or before the first day of June next, it shall be the duty of the commissioners of the proper county to cause the same to be collected in such manner as is directed by law: Provided, That the persons fined shall have a preference in all contracts for repairs as aforesaid, in case they propose to do the same on as reasonable terms as others.

Proviso.

REES HILL, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

JOHN TOD, Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twentieth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and sixteen.
