CHAPTER XXIII.

AN ACT

Authorising the administrators of Joseph Burley, deceased, to convey a tract of land in Tyrone township, Huntingdon county, to Thomas Stevens.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Legislature that Giles Stephens and Thomas Stephens purchased of Joseph Burley two adjoining tracts of land, situate in Tyrone township, Huntingdon county, containing about one hundred and six acres: and that the said Giles Stephens released all his right and claim of, in and to the said land to the aforesaid Thomas Stephens: and the said Joseph Burley died intestate, without having executed a deed for the said tract of land, and the article of agreement made between the parties aforesaid being destroyed by the accidental burning of the house of James E. Stewart, in whose care the said article had been lodged for safe keeping: and that the said Thomas Stephens has paid three hundred and twenty-three dollars, in part of the purchase money, to the said Joseph Burley:

Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General

Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That John Templeton and Joseph Meredith, administrators of the goods and chattles of Joseph Burley, deceased, or the survivor of them, be authorised to make and execute a deed of conveyance to Thomas Stephens, his heirs and assigns, in fee, for two adjoining tracts of land, situate in Tyrone township, in Huntingdon county, containing about one hundred and six acres, on his paying the balance due for the same, which title, so as aforesaid executed, shall be as good and valid in law as if it had been made in the life time of the said Joseph Burley: Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be understood to injure or prejudice the right of any other individual or individuals.

REES HILL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the third day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventeen.
