CHAPTER LXIV.

AN ACT

To authorise the Orphan's Court of Northampton county to appoint trustees under the will of John Arndt, deceased.

WHEREAS it hath been represented to the legislature that John Arndt, late of the borough of Easton, in the county of Northampton esquire, deceased, by his last will and testament and codicil thereto annexed, duly executed, bearing date respectively, the twentieth day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirteen, and the fourteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, did nominate and appoint George Washington Arndt and Charles Lombaert, trustees, to do and perform several matters and things in his said last will and testament directed to be done, for and on behalf of his daughter Elizabeth, the wife of William Innis and her children, as in the said will particularly specified: And whereas, The said trustees have not hitherto executed and performed the trusts to them given by the said will, and still decline to carry the same into effect, so that the same remain unexecuted, to the manifest injury of the said Elizabeth.

Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be the duty of the orphan's court of the county of Northampton, on application to them made for that purpose, to appoint one or more persons in the room and stead of the said George Washington Arndt and Charles Lombaert, who shall have full power and authority to do, perform and execute, all the trusts, powers and authorities given and directed to be done and performed by the said George Washington Arndt and Charles Lombaert, in and by the last will and testament of the said John Arndt, deceased. And in case of the death, refusal or neglect of the person or persons so appointed, from time to time to fill the vacancy occasioned thereby, until the said trusts shall be duly executed and performed; and the court is also hereby authorised on the application of any of the parties interested, to compel the person or persons to be appointed by virtue of this act, to render and settle, just and true accounts of all monies by them received and paid over in the execution of the said trusts in the orphan's court aforesaid; and also to give security for the due and faithful execution of the trusts aforesaid, whenever the said court shall deem the same to be necessary and expedient for the interest of the parties concerned.

Court empowered to appoint new trustees.

And to supply vacancies.

Further powers given to the court.

REES HILL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.
