

hundred and six: Provided, That no toll shall be demanded ^{Proviso.} or taken from any person passing or repassing from one part of his farm to another, or to or from any place of public worship, funeral, militia training, general or special elections, or from any student or child, going to or from any school or seminary of learning: And provided also, That if the company shall not proceed to carry on the work in five years after the passing of this act, or shall not within ten years complete the said road, according to the true intent and meaning of this act, then in either of these cases, all and singular the rights, liberties and franchises, hereby granted to the company, shall revert to the commonwealth.

SECT. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That if the legislature should at any time after the year one thousand eight hundred and thirty, think proper to take possession of said road, three persons shall be appointed by the Governor, three persons by the president and managers of the said company, and three by the judges of the supreme court, who are hereby required to appoint the same, who, or any six or more of them, not having any interest in the said road, shall proceed to examine and estimate the value of the property, which the said company have therein, and certify the amount thereof to the Governor, who shall cause the same to be laid before the legislature at their next session; and whenever the amount so certified shall be paid by the state to the said company, their right to take toll on the said road, together with all their right, title, claim and interest therein, shall cease and determine.

Proceeding in case the legislature choose to take possession of the road.

REES HILL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.

CHAPTER LXXVII.

AN ACT

To reannex part of Mifflin county to the county of Union.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General

Limits described.

Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That all that part of Decatur township, in Mifflin county, lying eastward of a line to begin at or near the south east corner of Centre county, on the top of Jacks mountain, nearly opposite to John Eberhart's still-house, so that the same remains in the county of Mifflin; and from thence a south course to the original division line, between Union and Mifflin counties, shall from and after the passing of this act, be annexed to the county of Union, and the electors thereof, shall hold their general election with the township of Beaver, where said township elections are held.

Line to be run and marked.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That one of the county commissioners of the county of Mifflin, and one of the county commissioners of the county of Union, shall meet on a day agreed upon by them, in May next, and shall employ a skillful surveyor to run and mark, in a plain manner, a line agreeably to the provisions of this act; and it shall be the duty of the said commissioners to make report of the course and distance of the said line, to the court of quarter sessions, of their respective counties, there to remain of record as the established line between said counties; and the expenses necessary in running and marking said line, shall be paid out of the treasury of Union county, upon warrant or warrants to be drawn by the commissioners of said county.

Expenses how paid.

Provision as to suits.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That no action or suit that has been, or may be commenced in the county court of Mifflin, before the fourth Monday of May next, against any person or persons living or residing within the lines by this law annexed to Union county, shall be stayed, discontinued, or affected by this act, but the same may be prosecuted to the final issue, in the same manner as if this act had not passed; and all taxes and arrearages of taxes, now assessed and unpaid within the said part of Decatur township, before the passing of this act; and all sums of money due to this commonwealth, within the said part of Decatur township, shall be collected and paid as if this act had not passed; and all persons living within the aforesaid part of Decatur township, shall be subject to the same military discipline and restrictions as the inhabitants of Beaver township are subject to.

Taxes.

All money due to the commonwealth,

And military discipline.

REES HILL, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the sixteenth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.