STATE OF NEW JERSEY.

A FURTHER SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled “An act to regulate the fisheries in the river Delaware, and for other purposes,” passed November twenty-sixth one thousand eight hundred and eight.

1. BE it enacted by the Council and General Assembly of this state, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That wherever any fishery is occupied upon the river Delaware, from the station point or north west corner of this state down opposite to the circular boundary of the state of Delaware, either the owner or tenant, or some respectable person appointed by the owner or owners, shall apply to the clerk of the county wherein such fishery may be situated, and give a bond with one or more sufficient sureties to the said clerk, and his successors in office, in the penal sum of three hundred dollars, conditioned for the payment to the collector of that county, of all the fines and penalties created or given by this act, and the act to which this is a supplement, that shall or may be incurred and recovered for any offence against, or infraction of the said act or acts committed at such fishery, by his or their command or permission, during his or their occupying the same, and shall also give unto the said clerk a description in writing of his or their pool or fishing place, together with the name of the township or place in which it is situated, and the number of men generally employed in fishing; which together with the bond the clerk shall file in his office, and give him or them a receipt for the same, on paying him therefor seventy-five cents, which said bond shall remain as a security for all such fines or penalties as may be incurred or recovered during his or their occupying the said pool or fishing place, and if any person or persons shall fish with any seine or net in the river Delaware within the limits aforesaid, without having previously entered his or their fishery as aforesaid, he or they shall forfeit and pay for each person, and every such offence, the sum of one hundred dollars with costs of suit, to be sued for and recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction, by any person or persons who will sue for the same; and if any person or persons shall fish at any fishery that has been entered as aforesaid without permission of him or them entering the same, he or they so offending shall forfeit and pay for each person and every such offence, the sum of two hundred dollars with costs of suit, to be sued for and recovered in any court of competent jurisdiction by him or them who have entered the same.

II. And be it enacted, That all and each of the penalties created, given or contained in this act, or the act to which this is a supplement, excepting the penalty of two hundred dollars contained in the preceding section, shall be sued for and recovered by action of debt, with costs of suit, in any court of competent jurisdiction, by any person or persons who will sue for the same, one half to the use of the prosecutor or prosecutors, and the other half for the use of the state.

III. And be it enacted, That in all and every action or suit for any fine or penalty given or created by this act, or the act to which this is a supplement, the person prosecuting shall and may sue by warrant or summons, in case the same is commenced in the court for the trial of small causes, or by capias ad respondendum or summons, in case the action is commenced in any other court, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.

IV. And be it enacted, That all and every part of the act to which this is a supplement, and of the supplementary acts thereto, as comes within the purview of this act, be, and the same are hereby repealed: Provided, That this act shall not be considered as valid or operative until the legislature of the state of Pennsylvania shall approve of the same, by enacting a similar law.
