CHAPTER CXXVI.

AN ACT

To vest a certain Burying Ground in the Board of Health, and to provide for registering the Births of Children, in the city of Philadelphia and its vicinity.

WHEREAS the religious society of friends of Philadelphia, having had possession, under an equitable title, of a lot of ground in the township of Blockley, in the county of Philadelphia, containing one hundred and twenty-six perches and an half, adjoining lands of Elizabeth Powel and the corporation of the city of Philadelphia, the legal title to which, if it existed, has been lost or mislaid. And whereas the said lot of ground was used by them as a place of interment, but for the want of a full right thereto, its enclosures have been forcibly broken through, and interments of the dead have been made therein in a reproachful manner. And whereas for the reasons mentioned, being unable to correct those abuses, the said religious society did by a formal act, under the direction of their monthly meeting, cede and relinquish to the board of health, all their right to the said lot of ground, on condition that the board of health shall procure from the legislature of the commonwealth, an act to invest them and their successors with the legal title and estate in the same; and when obtained to be limited to the use of a place of interment of the dead forever. And whereas the board of health have by their memorial prayed to be invested with the legal title to the said lot of ground, on the condition mentioned.

Therefore,
