

CHAPTER IV.

AN ACT

For the relief of Silver Lake Bank.

WHEREAS it appears to the Legislature that the amount of the per centage due to the state from the Silver Lake bank, for the year ending on the first Monday of November last, although transmitted in due time to the seat of government, was by an occurrence not chargeable to any neglect or omission of the said bank, delayed to be paid into the state treasury for more than two months after the said first Monday of November last, whereby the charter of the said bank according to the tenth section of the act, entitled "An act regulating banks," has become void.

Therefore, for remedy whereof,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That if the Silver Lake bank shall at any time within twenty days after the passing of this act, transmit to the state treasurer eight per cent. on the whole amount of all the dividends declared in the said bank, in and during the year immediately preceding, and including the first Monday of November last, accompanied by a certificate as is required by the tenth section of the "Act regulating banks;" then, in that case, neither the charter nor any of the privileges of the said bank shall be in any manner affected for, or by reason of any omission to transmit to the state treasurer the said eight per cent. within two months after the said first Monday of November last, but the said charter and privileges are hereby revived and continued in a manner as valid and effectual to all intents and purposes, as if no such omission had occurred, and on the transmission of the said eight per cent. the state treasurer is hereby authorised and required to receive the same.

JOSEPH LAWRENCE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.
