

CHAPTER LVI.

AN ACT

In aid of the act for making the turnpike roads from Susquehanna to Waterford, and from Northumberland to Anderson's creek, passed the twenty-second day of February, one thousand eight hundred and twelve.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for the different companies who are incorporated by the act to which this is a supplement and the supplements thereto; to erect the bridge over the west branch of the Susquehanna, directed to be built by the twenty eighth section thereof, at the mouth of Sugar Camp run, instead of the point where the Susquehanna and Waterford turnpike terminates, and that the expense of erecting the said bridge shall be paid out of the funds at the same period of the building, and in the manner directed by the ninth section of the further supplement of the act of which this is in aid, passed the twenty-ninth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and nineteen. Place changed for the erection of a bridge.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the president and managers of the Philipsburg and Susquehanna turnpike company to construct their road by the best and nearest route from Philipsburg to the site of said bridge, at the mouth of Sugar Camp run aforesaid, and from thence on the west side of the river to the termination of the Susquehanna and Waterford turnpike aforesaid, instead of carrying it on the east side of the Susquehanna as directed by the act to which this is in aid. Company authorised to change the route in part.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That the proviso in the eighth section, and the whole of the twenty-eighth section of the act to which this is in aid be, and the same is hereby repealed.

JOSEPH LAWRENCE, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

ISAAC WEAVER,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the eleventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.