CHAPTER LXI.

AN ACT

To authorise the corporation of the city of Philadelphia, to regulate the ascents and descents of Callowhill street, in the township of Penn, and county of Philadelphia.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the commissioners of Spring-Garden shall and may, after the passing of this act, survey and regulate with respect to ascents and descents, Callowhill street, from the east side of Broad street, to the Lancaster Schuylkill bridge, street.

ascertaining the highest and most elevated parts of the said street, from which the water ought to run in different directions, having in view at the same time the convenience of the adjoining grounds.

Survey to be deposited in the office of clerk of the sessions.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That it shall be the duty of the surveyor employed in the said work, to make a correct draft or plan of the said street, within the bounds aforesaid, marking thereon the ascents and descents of the said street, and the said survey, and shall on or before the first day of May next, deposit in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions for the city and county of Philadelphia, the aforesaid draft or plan, which shall remain open for the inspection of all persons interested therein.

Appeal.

Court may alter.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That so soon as the said plan or draft shall be so deposited in the clerk's office, notice thereof shall be given by the city commissioners in two of the public newspapers published in the city of Philadelphia, and any person owning ground who may be aggrieved by the said regulation may within thirty days after the first publication of the said notice, apply to the court of quarter sessions for the city and county of Philadelphia, who shall hear the objections that may be made to the said regulation, and if in their opinion the same has not been established in a manner, so as not to be generally useful and convenient to the owners of the ground in the neighbourhood, the court may direct such regulation to be altered where it may be required, keeping in view the effect to be produced by such alteration on the whole distance of the said street.

Compensation for damage.

SECT. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That in making such regulation of the ascent or descent of the said street, or in laying, re-laying, repairing or otherwise the pipes of conduit, all damages which may be done to the said Callowhill street turnpike road, shall be forthwith made good, and substantially repaired by the mayor, aldermen and citizens of Philadelphia at their own proper cost, who shall also pay all the costs of making the survey, and if any obstruction or detriment to the crossing or re-crossing the Lancaster Schuylkill bridge, shall be occasioned by reason of, or on account of the aforesaid work, by interrupting the passage to or from the said bridge, the said mayor, aldermen and citizens, shall make a fair and full compensation for the same to the president, managers and company of the said Lancaster Schuylkill bridge.

JOSEPH LAWRENCE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.
ISAAC WEAVER,

Speaker of the Senate.
