CHAPTER XC.

AN ACT

For the relief of the heirs of Ezekiel Sanky, an old soldier.

WHEREAS it appears to the legislature, that Ezekiel Sanky, a private of the third Pennsylvania regiment in the revolutionary war, was entitled to a tract of donation land of two hundred acres, which he did not draw in his lifetime, nor any person since his decease; and it is but just that his heirs and legal representatives should be compensated out of the state treasury for the value thereof:

Therefore,

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the State Treasurer be, and he is hereby directed to pay to the heirs or legal representatives of Ezekiel Sanky, late of York county, deceased, the sum of three hundred dollars, in lieu of a tract of donation land to which he was entitled in his lifetime.

JOSEPH LAWRENCE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.
