

CHAPTER CXVIII.

AN ACT

Repealing so much of an act, as prevents fishing with seines and brush nets in the Conodoguinet creek, in Cumberland county, passed the twenty-seventh of March, eighteen hundred and nineteen.

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the act passed March, eighteen hundred and nineteen, to prevent fishing with seines and brush nets in the Conodoguinet creek, be, and the same is hereby repealed, from the mouth of said creek to the mouth of Lethart's spring.

JOSEPH LAWRENCE, Speaker
of the House of Representatives.

WILLIAM MARKS, Junior,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and twenty.

WILLIAM FINDLAY.

CHAPTER CXIX.

AN ACT

To aid the Erie Academy.

WHEREAS it has been represented to the Legislature, that an institution has been established at the borough of Erie, in Erie county, and incorporated agreeably to law, for the instruction of youth, under the style of the "Erie Academy," and that an academy and public school has been commenced, in which the various branches of useful knowledge are now taught, under the superintendance of the trustees of said institution: And further, that the present funds of the corporation are inadequate to build a house for the accommodation of the institution, and as the Legislature is desirous to aid and encourage seminaries of learning throughout the Commonwealth: