CHAPTER CXXVI.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled, "An act for establishing a Health Office, and to secure the city and port of Philadelphia from the introduction of pestilential and contagious diseases, and for other purposes."

SECT. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, between the first day of June and the first day of October, every ship or vessel coming from any port or place southward of Cape Fear, bound to Philadelphia, shall be subject to the examination directed by the fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement; for every ship or vessel coming from any foreign port or place, and the master, commander, or pilot, of every such ship or vessel coming from any port or place southward of Cape Fear, shall be subject to the same restrictions, and liable to the same indictment, prosecution and penalties, as by the said fourth section of the said act is prescribed for the master, commander, or pilot, of any ship or vessel coming from any foreign port or place; and the same duties shall be performed by the Lazaretto physician and quarantine master, and the same oaths or affirmations shall be by them administered, first making known to the person interrogated the penalty imposed by the said act to which this is a supplement, which penalty is hereby extended to every person who shall give false answers, under oath or affirmation, to the questions proposed under the authority of this act; and the said physician and quarantine master, and the master or captain of such ship or vessel, shall proceed in the same manner, in all respects, as is directed by the said fourth section of the act to which this is a supplement, and the board of health shall have Every ship or vessel bound &c. from any port, &c. southward of Cape Fear, to be subject to the examination directed by the 4th section of the original act.

And under like restrictions and liable to like penalties.

Officers at the Lazaretto to perform like duties.

the same power to determine and direct what measures shall be pursued, and the same shall be carried in like manner into execution.

Power of the Board of Health.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this act, between the first day of June and the first day of October, every ship or vessel coming from a port or place in the United States, bound to the port of Philadelphia, and from which ship or vessel shall have been, within thirty days then next preceding, unladen the whole or a part of the cargo or baggage brought in the said ship or vessel from some foreign port or place, every such ship or vessel shall be liable and subject to all the rules, regulations and restrictions of the said fourth section of the said act to which this is a supplement, and shall be examined and treated, as well the vessel itself, as the cargo, crew, passengers and baggage on board, in the same manner as if such ship or vessel had brought the same cargo, crew, passengers, or baggage, directly from such foreign port or place, and had the same then on board at the Lazaretto.

Proceedings as to vessels coming from a port or place in the United States bound to Philadelphia.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this act, between the first day of June and the first day of October, that no ship or vessel, which shall be laden with, or have on board, any vegetables, fish, or hides, shall be unladen at the port of Philadelphia, until a permit shall be applied for and obtained from the board of health; and if any master, captain, owner or owners, consignee or consignees, or other person, shall presume to unlade from on board of any such ship or vessel, any vegetables, fish, or hides, without first having applied for and obtained a permit from the board of health, every such master, captain, owner or owners, consignee or consignees, or other person, so offending, shall pay a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars, to be recovered and appropriated as is directed in the act to which this is a supplement.

No vegetables, fish, or hides to be unladen from any ship without a permit.

SECT. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this act, between the first day of June and the first day of October, within forty-eight hours after the discharge of the cargo of every ship or vessel at the port of Philadelphia, it shall be the duty of the captain or master, owner or owners, consignee or consignees, and other person having the direction of the discharge of the same, under the penalty of one hundred dollars, to be recovered and appropriated as by the act to which this is a supplement is directed, to give or cause to be given to the board of health notice that the same cargo is discharged, and to permit and suffer the board of health, by themselves or by their lawful agent by them for that purpose appointed, to examine the condition of the hold, ballast and limbers, of such ship or vessel; and if the board of health shall deem it for the safety and health of the city of Philadelphia, they are hereby authorised and empowered to designate a proper place

Notice to be given to the Board of Health within 48 hours after the discharge of any cargo.

And proceed to which the said ship or vessel shall be taken, and that her hold, ballast and limbers, shall there be cleansed and purified, or at the expense of such captain or master, owner or owners, consignee or consignees, or other person having the direction of the discharge of the cargo, to send or cause to be sent such ship or vessel to a proper place and have her hold, ballast and limbers, cleansed and purified.

SECT. 5. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this act, between the first day of June and the first day of October, that no person or persons shall, under the penalty of fifty dollars, to be recovered and appropriated as is directed by the act to which this is a supplement, be permitted to store or keep in any one house, store, cellar, or other inclosure, a greater quantity than one hundred bushels of vegetables, which are in themselves of a perishable nature, without a permit from the board of health, which permit shall be granted for a limited time therein expressed, and may be renewed from time to time by the board of health.

Of the storage of vegetables of a perishable nature.
