AN ACT

Vacating and laying aside "Blackberry alley," in the city of Philadelphia.

Preamble.

WHEREAS a certain alley called "Blackberry alley," laid out and declared a public highway, by several acts of assembly has become useless to the public and inconvenient and burdensome to the owners of the ground bordering thereon, and bounded thereby: Therefore,

Court to appoint viewers.

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the court of Quarter Sessions of the county of Philadelphia be and they are hereby authorized, upon the application of the owners of the adjacent ground, to appoint a jury of view, according to the laws of this commonwealth, in relation to the streets, lanes and alleys within the city of Philadelphia, for the purpose of ascertaining and determining whether an alley called Blackberry alley, running from Pine to Lombard street, between Eighth and Ninth streets, from the Delaware, has become useless and inconvenient to
