AN ACT

To amend the charter of the trustees of the fund for the relief and support of the itinerant and superannuated and worn out ministers and preachers of the Methodist Episcopal church, (in the United States of America) their wives and children, widows and orphans.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it hath been represented to this general assembly, that great inconvenience has occurred to the said corporation, by reason of the length of their corporate name, style and title; that errors and misnomers have thereby happened, and in some cases law suits have been occasioned, and praying that the said name, style and title may be altered; and that since the date of the said charter, to wit: the year seventeen hundred and ninety-seven, the funds in their hands have so accumulated by donation, devises and bequests, by benevolent individuals, as to produce an income greater in amount than the sum limited by the act of assembly of seventeen hundred and ninety-one; and that the said income is divided yearly between twenty-two annual conferences of the Methodist Episcopal church, and by them appropriated solely to the support and relief of the itinerant, superannuated and worn out ministers and preachers, their wives and children, widows and orphans, of the said church, and the said corporation pray that a law may pass, so amend-
