

school house, near Thomas Fargo, on the Ridge road, in said township.

JOHN LAPORTE,
Speaker of the House of Representatives:

J. R. BURDEN,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The eleventh day of June, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two.

GEO. WOLF.

No. 241.

A SUPPLEMENT

To an act, entitled "An act concerning the administration of Justice."

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the provisions of the second section of the act entitled "An act concerning the administration of Justice," approved the thirtieth day of April, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two, shall not take effect until the first day of December next, and that all writs of error or other process, which may have issued since the passage of the said law, shall be returned, as if the section hereby altered had not been passed.

Certain provisions of former act not to take effect until 1st of December.

SECT. 2. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That every writ, process, recognizance, rule or order now issued or to be issued, taken or to be taken, in either of the courts of Allegheny county, returnable to, or to be enforced at the terms of said courts, heretofore commencing on the fourth Monday of June, of the present year, shall be returnable to and enforced at the term commencing on the third Monday of June.

Allegheny county. Returns of process.

SECT. 3. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That from and after the passage of this act, whenever a writ of error may be sued out from the Supreme court, to remove the proceedings of any inferior court, the party, his agent or attorney, shall be competent to make the affidavit required in such cases.

Writs of error from Supreme Court. Affidavit of parties.

SECT. 4. And be it further enacted by the authority aforesaid, That whenever it shall so happen that the president of the court of Common Pleas of the county of Allegheny, is Allegheny co.

Suits for sums over $500 in which Pres't. of Com. Pleas may be, or have been, interested, may be removed to Circuit Court at any time after first day of term.

personally interested in the event of any suit or action now pending, or hereafter to be instituted in his district, or has been concerned as counsel or attorney for either of the parties, or others under whom they or either of them claim, or whenever it shall happen that the title under which the parties or either of them, claim in any such suit or action shall have been derived from or through such president, then and in either of these cases, where the sum in controversy shall exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, all such suits or actions may be removed into the Circuit court, at any time after the first day of the term to which such suit or action may have been instituted, and shall be removed and proceeded in to trial, judgment and execution, in the manner directed by the act to enable the justices of the Supreme court to hold Circuit courts.

JOHN LAPORTE,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

J. R. BURDEN,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The eleventh day of June, A. D. one thousand eight hundred and thirty-two.

GEO. WOLF.

No. 242.

A SUPPLEMENT

To the act entitled, "An act to erect M'Connellsburg, in the county of Bedford, into a borough.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, by the neglect of the high constable of the borough of M'Connellsburg, in the county of Bedford, no election was held for officers of said borough, on the first Monday of May last, for remedy whereof—

SECT. 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the late high constable of the borough of M'Connellsburg, in the county aforesaid, be and he is hereby empowered to notify the inhabitants of said borough to hold an election, at such convenient time as may be deemed proper, which election, when held, shall be as valid and effectual as it held on the first Monday of May aforesaid.

High Const. in McConnellsburg to hold new election for borough officers.