President and directors first chosen to issue certificates of stock.

SECTION 6. The president and directors first to be chosen as aforesaid, shall issue certificates of stock to the several stockholders respectively, signed by the president and countersigned by the treasurer of the said company, which certificates shall be transferable at his or her pleasure, in person or by attorney, subject, however, to the payments due and that may grow due thereon; and the assignee holding any certificate, having first caused the assignment or transfer to be entered in a book of the company, to be kept by the treasurer for that purpose, shall, for every share of stock so held by him or her, be entitled to his or her equal proportion of the said capital stock, and of all the estates and emoluments of the company, to vote as aforesaid, at the meetings thereof.

SECTION 7. The said president and directors shall meet at such times and places, and be convened in such manner as shall be agreed on for transacting their business at such meetings; five members shall be a quorum, who, in the absence of the president, may choose a chairman, and shall keep minutes of all their transactions fairly entered in a book, and a quorum being met, they shall have full power and authority to agree with and appoint such engineers, superintendents, artists and other officers, as they shall think necessary to carry on the said bridge, and to complete the same, and fix their salaries and other wages; to determine the time, manner and proportions in which the stockholders shall pay the money due on their respective shares; to draw orders on the treasurer for all moneys that may be required, the same to be signed by the president or chairman, and countersigned by the clerk of the board, and to do and transact all matters and things, as by the by-laws or regulations of the said company shall be lawful.

President and directors to meet at such place as shall be agreed upon; 5 members to be a quorum. Gen. powers and duties of president and directors.

SECTION 8. After the place for the erection of the said bridge shall be fixed, and before the said president and directors shall proceed to erect the same, it shall and may be lawful for the said president and directors to contract and agree with the owner or owners of any lands and tenements, for the purchase of so much thereof as shall be necessary, for the purpose of erecting and perfecting the said bridge, and making and establishing all the necessary works and roads to and from the same, if they can agree with the owner or owners of the same; but in case they cannot agree, then it shall and may be lawful for the said president and directors to apply to one of the justices of the Supreme Court of this state, not being a stockholder or otherwise interested, who, upon such application, is hereby authorized and directed to appoint three discreet and disinterested freeholders of this state, who, after being duly sworn or affirmed before any justice of the peace, faithfully to perform the duties enjoined on them by this act, shall proceed to view and examine the said banks, and all such lands and tenements as shall be necessary for the purpose of erecting and perfecting the said bridge, and making and establishing all necessary works and roads to and from the same; and shall, according to the best of their skill and judgment, ascertain and estimate the injury and damage that will be sustained by the owner or owners of such lands and tenements so necessary to be taken as aforesaid, and shall report what sum shall be paid by the said company for the same, which report shall be made in writing, under their hands and seals, or under the hands and seals of any two of them, and shall return the same, together with a map describing the metes and bounds, of such lands and tenements to the Supreme Court, next after they shall have agreed upon, and signed the same, and the report having been confirmed by the said Supreme Court, shall be filed in the clerks office, of the said court, with the map aforesaid, and the said president, and managers having paid the said owners respectively, the several sums awarded to be paid to them, in and by the said report, together with the fees of the said arbitrators, at the rate of two dollars to each, for every day employed in the said business, and their necessary expenses, the said company, shall be entitled to have and to hold to them, and their successors, and assigns forever, the said lands and tenements, as fully and effectually as if the same had been granted to them by the respective owners thereof, and it shall and may be lawful thereupon and not before, for the said president and directors, to enter upon the said lands and tenements, and to commence and to complete the erection of the said bridge.

SECTION 9. It shall and may be lawful, for the president and directors aforesaid, their superintendents, engineers and artists of every kind, to enter into, and upon all lands and enclosures near to the place where the said bridge is to be built, and to examine the ground, for the purpose of obtaining stone, gravel, or sand necessary for the building of the said bridge, and it shall and may be lawful for the said directors, overseers, superintendents or any other person employed in building the said bridge, to enter with wagons, carts, sleds or sleighs or beasts of burden or draught of any kind whatsoever, first giving notice to the owners, doing as little damage as possible, and repairing any breaches of fences they may have occasion to make, and first making amends for any damages that may be done, which damages shall be ascertained by the parties, if they can agree, or if they cannot agree, then by appraisement thereof, to be made upon oath or affirmation, of three disinterested freeholders of the neighborhood, or any two of them, to be mutually chosen, or, if the owner, or managers, or superintendents, engineers or artists, upon due notice, shall neglect or refuse to join in the choice, then the said freeholders to be appointed by any justice of the peace of the county not interested on either side, and the said managers, or other persons, by them employed as aforesaid, after tender of the appraised value to the owner, may enter, and dig, take, and carry away any stone, gravel, sand, or earth, most conveniently situated, for making and repairing said bridge.

SECTION 10. The president and directors of the said company shall keep fair and just accounts of all moneys received by them, from the said commissioners, and from the stockholders, and of the amount of the profits on shares that may be forfeited as aforesaid, and of all voluntary contributions, and also of all moneys by them expended in the prosecution of the said work ; and shall, at least once in each year, submit such accounts to a general meeting of the stockholders, until the said bridge be completed, and until all the costs, charges and expenses for effecting the same shall be fully paid and discharged, and the aggregate amount of all such expenses shall be liquidated and ascertained.

SECTION 11. That when a good and complete bridge is erected over the said river Delaware, at the place aforesaid, the property of the said bridge shall be vested in the said company aforesaid, their successors and assigns, forever ; and the said company, their successors and assigns, may demand and receive toll from travellers, and others, not to exceed the following rates : For every coach, landau, chariot, phaeton, or other pleasurable carriages, with four wheels, drawn by four horses, the sum of sixty cents ; for the same carriage, with two horses, the sum of forty cents ; for every wagon, with four horses, the sum of fifty cents ; for every carriage of the same description, drawn by two horses, the sum of forty cents ; for every chaise, riding chair, sulkey, cart, or two wheel carriage, or a sleigh, or sled, with two horses, the sum of thirty-one cents ; for the same, with one horse, the sum of fifteen cents ; for a single horse and rider, the sum of ten cents ; for every led or driven horse, or mule, the sum of five cents ; for every foot passenger, the sum of two cents ; for every head of horned cattle, the sum of three cents ; for every sheep or swine, the sum of half a cent : Provided, All persons going to and returning from funerals, persons going to and returning from meeting or church, children going to and returning from school, and persons going to and returning from military trainings, shall pass free of toll : Provided also, That in fixing the toll of all carriages to be drawn wholly by oxen, or partly by horses and partly by oxen, two oxen shall be estimated equal to one horse. And the said company shall so erect the said bridge, as in no wise to injure, stop, or interrupt the navigation of the said river, or prevent boats or rafts from passing, or persons from fording the said river.

Once in each year submit accounts to a general meeting.

Rates of toll allowed to be taken for crossing bridge.

Proviso. Who shall pass toll free.

2d proviso.

SECTION 12. If any person or persons shall wilfully cut, destroy, break, or remove from off the said bridge, or any part thereof, any piece or pieces of timber, plank or planks, stone or stones, chain or chains, bolt or bolts, or any other materials whatsoever, belonging to said bridge, or otherwise wilfully or maliciously damage the same, he, she, or they so offending, shall forfeit and pay for every such offence, over and above the damages done to the said bridge, the sum of thirty dollars, to be recovered in any court having cognizance thereof.

Any person injuring bridge to pay, over & above damages, $30
