AN ACT

To authorize the Trustees of the First Presbyterian congregation in the city of Philadelphia, to sell certain real estate.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, William Allison, and Grace his wife, by indenture, dated the eighteenth day of July, seventeen hundred and eighty-two, recorded at Philadelphia, in deed book number six, page one hundred and eighty-seven, &c., granted and conveyed unto John Caldwell, John Bleakley, William Ewing, Samuel Bryan, and William Allison, their heirs and assigns, a brick messuage and lot of ground, situate on the west side of Third street, from Delaware, between Spruce and Walnut streets, in the city of Philadelphia, containing in breadth, on Third street, eighteen feet, and in length or depth one hundred feet nine inches, or thereabouts, to hold the same in trust, to permit and suffer the pastor or minister of the First Presbyterian congregation in said city, for the time being, to dwell in the said messuage, and to occupy the said lot of ground, if so inclined, free from any cost or charges of rent or taxes therefor; and in case the said pastor shall not incline to live therein, or occupy said lot, then with power to said trustees, to lease the same for a term of years not exceeding five years, and apply the rent for the support and maintenance of said pastor; which premises were paid for partly out of the proceeds of a legacy of five hundred pounds, bequeathed for the purpose of being applied, under the direction of a committee of said congregation, in buying a parsonage house for the benefit of the pastor thereof, and partly with the sum of two hundred pounds, raised by said committee: AND WHEREAS, It is represented to the Legislature, that the said parsonage house is now and has been for many years unsuited to the residence of the pastor of said congregation, in consequence of which the church has been compelled to rent another house for that purpose, and moreover to procure tenants, and pay taxes for the house in Third street; and that they have it now in their power to purchase another parsonage house in a convenient place, at a moderate price, and are desirous of disposing of the building conveyed by said deed, and investing the proceeds thereof in the parsonage house contemplated to be purchased: AND WHEREAS, It is represented that the said trustees are all deceased:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the trustees of the First Presbyterian congregation of the city of Philadelphia, to grant, bargain, and sell the messuage, lot and premises, described in the preamble, by public or private sale, to make, execute and acknowledge a good and sufficient deed of conveyance for the same to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, his, her, or their heirs and assigns, forever, in fee simple; discharged from the trust aforesaid, and to employ the money arising from said sale in the purchase of another parsonage house for the pastor of said church.

WM. PATTERSON.
