

No. 211.

AN ACT

For the relief of the heirs of Conrad Weiser, deceased.

WHEREAS, In consideration of his services as Indian interpreter, there were granted to Conrad Weiser, now deceased, a certain tract of land containing three hundred and five acres and thirty-six perches, and a certain island in the river Susquehanna, containing fifty acres and one hundred and forty-one perches, in Northumberland county: And whereas, It afterwards appeared that the said tract of land and island were not within the then new purchase from the Indians, and were subsequently granted by the Commonwealth to other purchasers, who reserved the same against the heirs of said Conrad Weiser, saving only seventy acres and nine perches, which have since been granted by patent, to Jacob Weiser, one of the heirs of said deceased, who executed a mortgage, dated first May, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, for the purchase money, amounting to fifty-five dollars and fourteen cents: Therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the Secretary of the Land Office be and he is hereby required, without fee or compensation, to release and deliver to Jacob Weiser, his heirs and assigns, a certain mortgage, dated May first, eighteen hundred and twenty-seven, given to secure the payment of the purchase money of a certain tract of land situate in Mahanoy, Northumberland county, containing seventy acres and nine perches, and allowance, amounting to the sum of fifty-five dollars and fourteen cents.

WM. PATTERSON,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JACOB KERN,

Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fifteenth day of April, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and thirty-four.
