

SECTION 2. John Quigley, his heirs and assigns, shall have the right at his, her or their cost, to make a good and convenient landing on the north and south sides of the West Branch of the river Susquehanna, and to use the said river between the said landings as a public ferry, on the estate of the said John Quigley, situate on the great road leading across the said river, between Dunstable and Bald Eagle townships, in said county and near to the mouth of Sugar Run.

SECTION 3. The said John Quigley, his heirs and assigns, shall keep the same landing and ferry, in good order and repair, fit for the transportation and passing of men, horses, other animals and carriages of all kinds, and further, shall keep good and substantial boats and qualified ferrymen, who shall constantly as occasion may require, attend for the purpose of transporting travellers, cattle and carriages as aforesaid, over the said river with all reasonable diligence and attention.

SECTION 4. The said John Quigley, his heirs or assigns, for keeping up and maintaining the said landings and ferry as aforesaid, shall receive from persons passing over the said river at said ferry, such price or fees as are customarily paid at other ferries on said West Branch of the river Susquehanna, subject to such rates and regulations as the court of Quarter Sessions of the county of Lycoming, may order and direct: Provided, That nothing in this act contained shall be construed so as to vest in the said John Quigley, his heirs and assigns, the right to receive or discharge any travellers, cattle or carriages as aforesaid, on land belonging to any other person or persons without the consent of the owner or owners of such land, or to prevent any future Legislature from resuming the privileges hereby granted.
