No 96.

An Act

For the relief of Charles Nice.

WHEREAS, Charles Nice has represented to the Legislature, that by deed poll, dated the thirteenth day of April, Anno Domini, one thousand eight hundred and twelve, he granted and conveyed certain estates, real and personal, to trustees in trust, to apply the income thereof to his use during his life, and after his death to the use of his relations and next of kin; and that the income arising therefrom not being sufficient for his support, the trustees were under the necessity of selling part of the land and applying the whole proceeds thereof directly to his use, instead of investing the same and so applying the income thereof only; and further, that the income of the residue of the said estates is insufficient for his maintenance, and that he is desirous that an act should be passed directing that the said residue shall be sold, and the proceeds thereof invested in the purchase of a life annuity for him the said Charles Nice;—Now, therefore,

Preamble.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall and may be lawful for the said Charles Nice to apply, by petition, to the Court of Common Pleas for the city and county of Philadelphia, praying the said court to order and decree that the trustees under the deed poll of the said Charles Nice, dated the thirteenth day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and twelve, and recorded in the office for recording deeds for the city and county of Philadelphia, in deed book J. C., number eighteen, page five hundred and forty-seven, or any trustees to be appointed by the said court in place of the present trustees, shall expose to public sale, on the terms and conditions to be prescribed by the said court, the whole unsold residue of the effects, rents and estates, real and personal, which passed and were conveyed by the said deed, and invest the whole proceeds thereof in the purchase of a life annuity, or make such other investments as may be deemed advisable, the interest thereon to be paid to the said Charles Nice, during his natural life, on such terms as shall be approved by the said court; whereupon the said court shall have full power and authority to make and enforce such order and decree, and it shall be the duty of such trustee to obey and comply with the same, and on compliance therewith the trustees named in the said deed, and their representatives, and all others upon whom, either by inheritance, or the appointment of the court, the said trusts shall have devolved, shall be and are hereby declared to be fully and absolutely exonerated and discharged from all responsibility and accountability to any person or persons whatsoever, for or by reason of the trusts or any of them created by the said deed, in regard to the estates and effects so ordered to be sold, and also in regard to the estates and effects whatsoever heretofore sold or disposed of by the said trustees or any of them.

Trustees of C. Nice authorized to sell estate & invest in an annuity.

JAMES THOMPSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

THOMAS S. CUNNINGHAM,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The tenth day of April, Anno Domini eighteen hundred and thirty-five.
