An Act

Authorizing the clerk of the Orphan's Court of the county of Northampton, to supply the records of said court, and for other purposes.

Clerk of the O. C. of Northampton co. to supply defects in the records, &c.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That Charles Kitchen, esquire, clerk of the Orphans' Court of the county of Northampton, (or in case of his death, resignation or removal, his successor in office,) or any other fit person under the direction of the commissioners, is hereby authorized to supply, from the papers on file in his office by the proper legal and customary docket entries in like cases, all deficiencies that may exist in the records of the said court, from the year one thousand eight hundred and nine, to the year one thousand eight hundred and fourteen, inclusive.

To be exam'd & certified by judges.

SECTION 2. After the said docket entries shall have been made and the records made up, they shall be submitted to the judges of the said Orphans' Court, who shall examine the same or cause them to be examined in such manner as to ascertain their correctness or incorrectness, and if the result of the said examination shall be such as to satisfy the said court of their correctness, they shall certify the fact at the end of the book or books containing the same, after which the said book or books shall ever be deemed and taken to be true and legal records of the said court.

SECTION 3. After the books containing the said entries shall thus have become part of the records of the said court, the commissioners of the said county shall pay to the clerk, aforesaid, by warrants drawn upon the treasurer of the said county, such compensation as the said commissioners shall deem just and reasonable: and the said commissioners shall also pay in the same manner in accordance with the instructions of the Orphans' Court as aforesaid, the amount of expense, if any, that may have been incurred in the examination of the records aforesaid.

SECTION 4. The treasurer of Indiana county is hereby authorized and directed to transcribe and record, in suitable books, to be by him for that purpose procured, all books of sale of unseated lands for taxes now in his office, and all transcripts of unseated lands now in his office, on which taxes were due, returned to the treasurer of said county by the commissioners thereof, preparatory to a sale for taxes.

SECTION 5. The records of said sale books and transcripts, when so made and certified by said treasurer under oath or affirmation, shall be as good evidence in all courts of justice and as valid in law, for all purposes, as the said original sale books and transcripts would or could be.

SECTION 6. The said treasurer shall be allowed as a compensation the same fees that are by law allowed to recorders of deeds for the same amount of service, which compensation and the costs of said books to be procured, as aforesaid, shall be paid out of the county funds, on warrants drawn by the commissioners of said county or the treasurer thereof.

SECTION 7. The treasurer of Somerset county is authorized and hereby directed to commence on the second Monday of August next, and adjourn from day to day; if it shall be necessary so to do, in order to make public sale of the whole or any part of such tracts of unseated lands lying and being in said county of Somerset, as will pay all arrearages of taxes that may be due thereon up to the year eighteen hundred and thirty-four, inclusive, together with all costs accruing by reason of the non-payment thereof.

SECTION 8. It shall be the duty of the treasurer of said county of Somerset to give at least sixty days notice of the time and place of such sales, the township or townships in which such tracts are respectively situated, the number of acres contained in each tract, the names of the warrantees or owners thereof, and the sums due on each tract for taxes, at least four times in one daily newspaper published in the city of Philadel-
