

No. 179.

AN ACT

Vesting the right of this Commonwealth to the escheated estate of John Mader Wiggins, deceased, an illegitimate son of John Wiggins, deceased, in William Henderson and others.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the estate, right and title which this Commonwealth may have acquired by reason of an escheat for want of heirs, of John Mader Wiggins, deceased, of Cumberland county, in and to the real estate devised to him by the codicil, to the last will of his putative father, John Wiggins, late of the borough of Sunbury, deceased, be and the same is hereby vested in William Henderson, James Henderson, Elizabeth W. Henderson and the children of the deceased brother of the said William, James and Elizabeth, who have for guardian Samuel McCune; the said children taking one fourth and the said William Henderson, James Henderson and Elizabeth W. Henderson each taking and holding a fourth to them and their heirs and assigns forever, the estate of the children of the said deceased brother, to be subject to the same disposition as the real estates of other minors are by the laws of this Commonwealth: Provided, That no other right or interest of the said Commonwealth except that vested by virtue of the said escheat, shall pass by this act, nor shall the right or interest of any individual or individuals be in any wise affected or impaired thereby: And provided also, That the said real estate shall be subject to the tax due the Commonwealth under an act entitled "An act relative to collateral inheritances," passed the seventh of April, eighteen hundred and twenty-six, as if the same had passed by collateral inheritance.

JAMES THOMPSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

THOMAS S. CUNNINGHAM,
Speaker of the Senate.

APPROVED—The fifteenth day of April, Anno Domini, eighteen hundred and thirty-five.
