No. 185.

An Act

To amend an act entitled An act to incorporate the Pennsylvania and Ohio Canal company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That the full and entire assent of this Commonwealth be and the same is hereby given to all and each of the provisions mentioned and contained in an act of the Legislature of the State of Ohio, passed on the twenty-first day of February, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, being an act to amend an act to incorporate the Pennsylvania and Ohio canal company, and the said amendatory act is hereby adopted, ratified and confirmed, and enacted into a law of this Commonwealth, and all and each of the provisions, conditions and restrictions thereof, as fully and effectually as if the same were enacted paragraph by paragraph, and section by section, so far as the same can apply to this Commonwealth.

Assent of this Commonwealth given to the provisions of an act of the State of Ohio, passed Feb. 21st, 1835.

SECTION 2. An exemplified copy of the said amendatory act of the State of Ohio shall be annexed to this act and published in the same manner as this act shall be published, and the Governor of this Commonwealth shall cause an attested copy of this act to be transmitted to the Governor of Ohio for the use of that State.

SECTION 3. If the Mechanic's bank of the city and county of Philadelphia shall accept the provisions of this section and advise the Governor of the same, under their corporate seal, within thirty days after the passage of this act, then the charter of the said bank shall be and it is hereby continued and extended twenty years from the passage of this act, and the capital stock of the said bank may be increased so as to consist of forty thousand shares of thirty-five dollars each and no more, and the said bank shall be free from any tax or other charge whatever, during the continuance of this charter: Provided, The said Mechanic's bank of the city and county of Philadelphia shall subscribe for one thousand shares in the stock of the Pennsylvania and Ohio canal company whenever books shall be opened at Philadelphia, to be paid for by said bank, at such time and in such instalments as may be required by the said Pennsylvania and Ohio canal company, the dividends upon which shares shall be received by the said bank for and during the period of five years from the date of the subscription, and at the expiration of the said period, the said shares shall be transferred to and become the exclusive property of this Commonwealth: Provided, That if the said bank should not be called on within four years after the passage of this act, to invest the above sum, or any part thereof in the stock of the Pennsylvania and Ohio canal company, that it shall be the duty of the President and directors of said bank to pay into the treasury of this Commonwealth, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars, in two annual payments of fifty thousand dollars each on the first days of January in the years one thousand eight hundred and forty, and one thousand eight hundred and forty-one.

An Act

To amend an act entitled An act to incorporate the Pennsylvania and Ohio Canal Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That the company incorporated by an act entitled An act to incorporate the Pennsylvania and Ohio Canal company, passed January tenth, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-seven, be and they are hereby allowed ten years from the thirty-first day of December, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-five, in which to complete said canal, any thing in said act to the contrary notwithstanding, and that the charter of said company be and the same is hereby renewed.

SECTION 2. It shall be lawful for said company annually, to fix, regulate and receive the tolls and charges by them to be received for the transportation of property or persons on the canal authorized by the act to which this is an amendment for the sole benefit of said company: Provided, That the nett proceeds of such tolls and charges thus fixed, regulated and received by said company, shall at no time exceed ten per centum per annum on the capital invested in the construction and necessary expenditure of said canal: Provided however, That this restriction in the amount of tolls and charges, shall not be construed so as to prevent the said company from fixing and receiving the highest rate of tolls and duties, together with the charges of freight to which property of a similar kind is subjected as the costs of transportation on the Ohio canal during the same period of time.

SECTION 3. That whenever the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, or a greater amount of the stock of said company, shall have been subscribed, the commissioners named in the act to which this is an amendment, shall have power to call a meeting of the stockholders for the purpose of organizing said company, in the manner pointed out in the said act, any thing contained therein to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 4. That said company shall keep a fair and accurate account of the whole expense in making and repairing said canal, with all incidental expenses appertaining to the same, within the respective limits of each of the States of Pennsylvania and Ohio, together with an accurate and just account of all the tolls collected by said company on such part of said canal as lies within the territorial limits of each of said States respectively; and said States shall each have the right to purchase at any time hereafter all that portion of said canal which lies within their territorial limits, for the sole use and benefit of said State, by paying to said company a sum of money which, together with the tolls received by said company within such State, shall equal the cost and expenses of said canal as aforesaid within such State, with an interest of eight per centum per annum thereon; and the books of said company shall always be open for the inspection of the agents of said States respectively, appointed for that purpose by the Legislatures of either of said States; and if said company shall neglect or refuse to keep and exhibit their accounts as required by this section, when thereunto requested by such agent, then all the rights and privileges granted by this act shall cease and determine.
